THE PUWASH EXCURSION.—Although disappointment is common to all, it is pleasing to know that the O idfellows are increasing their efforts to make the excursion on Monday next one of the very best of the season.

LIGHT-HOUSE INSPECTION.—The marine cutter Prince Edward, with Agent Lord and Captain Finlayson on board, returned to port last evening. During the trip, Mr. Lord has inspected and supplied the light-houses from North Cape to East Point. The light-houses on the south side of the Island will be attended to next week.

FOUND.—Yesterday morning, some eighteen or twenty men turned out to look for the papers, etc., stolen from the safe of D. McKay, Esq., at Oyster Bed Bridge, on the night of the 11th, and after some two hours' search found the cash box and papers in a wood about two miles from the store. Mr. McKay's loss will be about $150.

PROVINCIALISTS INJURED.—A hand car with four men on it jumped the track on the Canadian Pacific, five miles west of Greenville, Me., Saturday afternoon. James McGee, of James River, N. S., was terribly injured in the head and was unconscious for 24 hours. Charles Hogan, of Prince Edward Island, was severely injured in the shoulder and side.

BROKE DOWN.—A carriage containing two strangers came to grief on the Malpeque Road, near Three Mile Run, last evening. It appears that one of the wheels went into a rut on the road, and the jolt caused some of the forward pinning to give way, loosening the fore wheels and detaching them from the carriage. The occupants were thrown out but were not seriously injured.

SUGAR.—The market for refined sugar has been strong and excited during the past week at a further appreciation in prices. There have been large transactions in granulated at 7 1/2, smaller lots at 7 3/4. There has also been a heavy business in yellows at from 5 1/2 to 6 1/2 as to grade. In the raw article we hear of a sale on private terms of 200 puns, said to be about 5 1/2. But no business is quoted from 35c to 37c.—Trade Bulletin, Montreal, July 20th.

CONCERT.—The concert by Messrs. Reid, Chisholm and McLean (the blind minstrels), in the hall at Georgetown, on Monday night, was very well patronized by an appreciative audience. The instrumental performance was in fine style, and the songs, both gay and sentimental, were rendered in excellent spirit. Lovers of music can scarcely spend an evening more pleasantly than in listening to the pleasing performances of these men, who possess high musical talent.

FRATERNAL.—Yesterday and to-day are gala days in St. John, N. B. The Cantor Shawmut Patriarchal Militant, of Boston, accompanied by two bands of music, are visiting their comrades at our sister city. Yesterday afternoon there was a grand parade and in the evening a promenade concert in the Lansdowne rink. To-day the visitors are at Fredericton enjoying the choice programme prepared, and will, after fully enjoying themselves, leave for their homes to-morrow.

THE ATHLETIC EXHIBITION.—The athletic exhibition given by Joe Lannan and Dick Cronin, came off as announced, in the Lyceum last evening. There was a large audience present. The fighting-ball exercises by Lannan and Cronin—the former showing the blows with which he knocked out several prominent pugilists—were applauded. The "set to's" by the local talent were every tame. The dog and jig dancing was fair, but the singing did not come up to expectation. The proceedings were brought to a close by a "set to" between Lannan and Cronin, in the course of which considerable science was shown.

MADE A MISTAKE.—Last evening a young man from the country entered a well-known grocery store in this city and made some purchases, among which was a large bottle of castor oil. The clerk took the goods out to the young man's wagon, which was in waiting, and deposited them therein. As soon as the purchaser was through chatting with some friends in the store he returned to his carriage and was surprised to find the bottle of oil missing. It appears that some person had observed the clerk put the bottle of oil in the carriage, and thinking it was whiskey stole it while the owner was chatting inside the store. The thief's disgust when he found out his mistake, can be better imagined than described.

JOE LANNAN TO BE TESTED.—An exchange says: "W. J. Mahoney is determined to give the fighting abilities of Joe Lannan a thorough test before cold weather sets in. He is negotiating for a match with either Fat Killen, of Minneapolis, to occur either East or West by the 1st of September. Killen is undoubtedly a first-class man, and many good judges are under the impression that he can lower the colors of Jake Kilrain. 'Parson' Davis predicted nearly two years ago that Killen, if properly handled, would, within three years' time, be the champion of the world. It may be said that Killen is making a strong bid for the title, because he has already expressed a willingness to meet Jake Kilrain for any part of $10,000 a side. Should Lannan succeed in disposing of Killen, or even besting him, Mahoney would then be safe in faving him against any man in the world."
