Paine's Celery Compound Did the Wonderful Work After Doctors and Ordinary Medicines Failed

Raised from Helplessness to Vigor and True Life

Health and Long Years the Portion of All Who Use Paine's Celery Compound.

The almost miraculous cure of Mr. A. Daignault, of St. Hyacinthe, P. Q., by Paine's Celery Compound is already too well known to require any minute details. This important case is still the leading topic of conversation of the business and professional men, clergy and everyday people of St. Hyacinthe, and is another strong proof of the claim established long ago, that "Paine's Celery Compound makes people well."

realize that death was my only deliverance from suffering. At that time one of my friends urged me to use Paine's Celery Compound. As all other medicines had failed, I tried your Compound merely to please my friends. The first bottle truly did produce good results, and I got strong enough to walk a little. After using one bottle with such benefit I bought six bottles more, and from regular use of the medicine I am as well as ever before in my life, can do a full day's work, and my appetite is fully restored. My friends say my cure is a miracle, as I was surely condemned to die. I cannot thank you sufficiently for your wonderful life giving medicine. I send this testimonial for the benefit of all who are sick and suffering, and can assure you that Paine's Celery Compound will cure.

We commend the following letter to the attention of every sufferer in Canada:
WELLS & RICHARDSON CO.,
DEAR SIR:—I desire to say that had it not been for your Paine's Celery Compound I would not be living to-day. Five years ago I was taken sick, and suffered from dyspepsia and catarrh. For three years I was unable to work, and would lose consciousness several times a day. I was tired of life, and could

OUR GREAT RIVER.

Some Interesting Facts About the Father of Waters.

How many Americans appreciate the grandeur of their country's geography? How many know that there is no river system on earth which even distantly compares with that of the Mississippi and its tributaries?

The census tells us that these rivers, all flowing through one channel into the gulf of Mexico, aggregate more than 100,000 miles in length. The Amazon, the Nile, the Ganges and all the rest of the great river systems on earth put together scarcely approach this magnificent showing.

Think of it! A steambot leaving Pittsburgh can visit 23 states without passing through any artificial channel. It can go up the Alleghany and Monongahela, the Big Sandy, the Kentucky, the Wabash, the Tennessee and the Cumberland—clear into Alabama—before reaching the mouth of the Ohio.

Below Cairo it can traverse not only the Mississippi, but the St. Francis, the Arkansas, the White, the Red, the Yazoo, the Tallahatchee, the Yalobusha, the Ouachita, the great bayous and all the tributaries of these streams.

Above Cairo lie the upper Mississippi, the Illinois, the Missouri, the Yellowstone, the Platte, the Big Horn and a score of tributaries to all these. The supposititious steambot can land at 1,050 towns and cities on its way.

These rivers drain an area of 1,683,303 square miles, occupied by a population of 24,298,332 in 1890.

The commerce of this great river system was carried on in 1889 by 7,453 vessels, with an aggregate tonnage of 3,393,377 and a value of $15,535,005.

And so rich is that commerce that its annual gross earnings exceed the total value of the craft engaged in it by nearly $1,000,000. It carries nearly 11,000,000 passengers and nearly 33,000,000 tons of freight per year.

And this is only one of the great river systems of our country—one of many that include such mighty systems as that of the Yukon, that of the Columbia, that of the Colorado and that of the Alabama at Tombigbee.

And from one end to the other of all these rivers there is no custom house to stop traffic or to levy a cent of tribute upon it.

It is worth every American's while to reflect upon the greatness of our land and to rejoice in it. It is worth while to remember also that the resources of this marvelous country are far less than half developed.—New York World.

L'OLONNOIS THE CRUEL.

He Was the Most Fierocious of All the Famous Buccaneers.

Frank R. Stockton is writing "The Buccaneers of Our Coast" in St. Nicholas. He says:

Among the buccaneer leaders who distinguished themselves as land pirates was Francis L'Olonois, a Frenchman. In those days it was the custom to enforce servitude upon people who were not able to take care of themselves. Unfortunate debtors and paupers of all classes were sold to people who had need of their services. Boys and girls were sold for a term of years, somewhat as if they had been apprentices, and it so happened that the boy L'Olonois was sold to a master who took him to the West Indies.

There he led the life of a slave until he was of age, and then, being no longer subject to ownership, he became one of the freest and most independent persons who ever walked this earth. He began his career on the island of Hispaniola, where he took up the business of hunting and butchering cattle, but he soon became a pirate and enlisted as a common sailor on one of their ships. Here he gave signs of being so brave and unscrupulous that one of the leading pirates on the island of Tortuga gave him a ship and crew and set him up in business. The career of L'Olonois was much like that of other buccaneers of the day except that he was abominably cruel to his Spanish prisoners.

All the barbarities attributed to the pirates of the world were united in the career of this wretch, who does not appear to be so good an example of the true pirate as Roc, the Brazilian. He was not so brave, he was not so able, and it would be impossible for any one to look upon him as a hero. After having attained in a short time the reputation of being the wickedest pirate of his day, L'Olonois was unfortunate enough to be wrecked upon the coast near Campeachy. He and his crew came safely to shore, but it was not long before their presence was discovered by the people of the town, and the Spanish soldiers attacked them. There was a fierce fight, but the Spaniards were stronger, and the buccaneers were utterly defeated. Many were killed, wounded or taken prisoners.

Among the wounded was L'Olonois, and when the Spaniards walked over the battlefield he was looked upon as killed. When the soldiers had retired, he stealthily arose and made his way into the woods. Where he said until his wounds were well enough for him to walk about. He divested himself of his great boots, his pistol belt and the rest of his piratical costume, and adding to his scanty raiment a cloak and hat which he had stolen from a poor cottage, he boldly approached the town and entered it. He looked like a very ordinary person, and no notice was taken of him by the authorities. Here he found shelter and something to eat, and he soon began to make himself very much at home in the streets of Campeachy.
