finance of the present delightful spell of weather, he decided this was an opportune time to bring in by horse and farm-cart loads of clay and get with the banking of this old house, so to speak.

"Better co-ome!" a youngster presently appearing in the doorway said "for he means 'in honeycomb' and that's pretty climbing rose."

It takes so little to make us glad. We recall of these the beauty of the season. We remember to the items of living we deemed of much importance, and as we feel the lesser things which sm all though they may be can mean so much to us of joy or pain.

Just a slighting word, or a doubted sneer. Just a scornful smile on some lips held bare. And our footsteps lag, tho' the harvest moon is today (a r.m.) Younglings of the woods that had gathered, there came another harvest moon today (a r.m.)

Just a cheering clasp of a friendly hand. Just a word from one who can understand. And we finish the task we long had planned. And we lose the doubt and the fear we had — So little it takes to make us glad! Until Monday — Diary — Good-night...

MR. AND MRS. VERNON WILLIS Marriage Rites Solemnized At Sackville United Church

Sackville United Church was the scene of a double-ring ceremony when Patricia Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Melanson, Sackville, N.B., was united in marriage with Vernon Fulton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edna Willis, Milton, P.E.I.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Melanson chose a blue lace sheath dress with matching flowered hat, and a corsage of white carnations and honey gold roses.

The groom's mother wore a pink lace sheath with matching jacket and hat. Her corsage was white carnations and pink sweethearts roses.

A reception was held in the church parlour for 125 guests. The bride's table was centered by a three-tiered wedding cake flanked by white tapers.
