Mr. and Mrs. Bannerman Lockhart, (nee Miss Pearl Rebecca Milligan), of Halifax, were recent visitors to Milo and Coleman, the guests of their parents and other relatives.

Another of the grand old ladies of Coleman, Mrs. MacCallum, has been confined to her bed for the past several months. Her friends hope that there will soon be an improvement in her health and that she'll be able to be up and around again.

One of the grand old ladies of Brae, Mrs. Jack, has been confined to her bed for the past seven or eight months. She is feeling stronger than she did and her many friends and neighbors hope that soon she will be able to be around once more.

On Saturday, Sept. 9, this correspondent had the privilege of visiting a grand old lady, "Aunt Margaret", Mrs. Livingstone, in Milburn who is 96, (ninety-five), years of age and on Tuesday, Sept. 12, he visited another grand old lady, "Aunt Hannah", Mrs. Rogerson, of Coleman, who was 96 last
