Cupid's Work.

A MAJOR'S WIFE ELOPES FROM ENGLAND WITH HER BROTHER'S GROOM—THEY ARE BELIEVED TO BE IN TORONTO.

A sensation was created in social circles in England a few months ago by the elopement of Major Forsyth Grant's wife with her brother's groom. Major Grant is attached to the Duke of Cornwall's Regiment, which is stationed at Gibraltar, and it was during a visit to her brother who lives near Tregauth Fort, a place several miles west of the Cornish side of the River Tamar, near Plymouth, that his fascinating wife became enamored of the personal charms of her brother's groom, whose name is Henry Hearn. The two became very intimate, and in a few days eloped. A most vigorous search was made for the missing pair, but no trace of them was found in the country. Three weeks ago Mr. Eden, a lawyer from London, Eng., who was employed by Major Grant to recover his wife if possible, arrived in Quebec, he was of the opinion that they had come to Canada. The services of Detective Skeffington, of the I. C. R., were called into requisition, and in company with Mr. Eden that officer visited Point Levis and exhibited a photograph of Mrs. Grant to a number of wharf officials there. They immediately recognized it as being that of a lady who arrived by the steamer Circassian on the 10th Oct. last, in company with a young man. The pair were then traced to the St. James' Hotel, where the photograph was again recognized. It has since been ascertained that they took Pullman passage to Montreal, and thence to Toronto, where it is believed they are now living as man and wife under the assumed name of Purches or Nicolls. The lady's private income is £5,000 a year, but she had only £30 in cash when she left England. Mrs. Grant, who is well acquainted with Canada, having been here on her wedding tour five years ago, is described as follows:—Twenty-five years old, five feet high, fair complexion, grey eyes, fair hair cut short in front, wore a long cloak lined with fur, and had on a diamond necklace when in Quebec. She left two little children in England. Hearn, the groom, is five feet eight inches high, brown hair, hazel eyes, and small moustache, and has a sprightly appearance.—Toronto Globe.

NEWS NOTES.

Four hundred exiled Russian Jews arrived in New York on Saturday.

From Canton comes the news of the burning of a monastery by a mob.

An Alexandria despatch says the cholera has practically disappeared from Ewedj.

A new law in Kansas forbids any person to marry within six months after procuring a divorce.

New York has had a Christmas fire which swept away $3,000,000 worth of property.

The production of anthracite coal by the Pennsylvania mines this year is estimated at 28,500,000 tons. Next year it is estimated that the output will be increased to 30,000,000 tons.

The Canada Gazette of Saturday contains the following: "William Cochran Milner, of Sackville, N. B., to be a Collector in her Majesty's Customs." Mr. Milner was editor of the Sackville Post.

A St. Petersburg despatch reports that the whole naval port of Cronstadt is on fire A quarter of the town is reported destroyed. The loss is enormous. The fire is believed to be the work of Nihilists.

The question of rapid transit between the United States and England is again being agitated. A union of the schemes of Lord Dunraven and Lorillard, with the selection of Milford on the Welsh coast as the British port, is spoken of.

"He is a very warm-hearted man," said Sprucely, the other day, of a friend whom he parted with at a sample-room door. "Yes," said Bencely, who came along too late to be asked in, "he seemed to have a very cordial breath."

Small-pox is rapidly spreading in Jersey City, in consequence of the filthy condition of the streets. Eleven new cases were reported yesterday, and two deaths. Unless prompt measures are immediately taken there will be a terrible epidemic in the city when cold weather sets in.

A farmer, on being asked to write a testimonial for a patent clothes wringer, produced the following:—"I bought your clothes wringer, and am hugely pleased with it. I bought a jag of wood which proved too green and unfit for use; I ran the whole load through your wringer, and have used the wood for kindling ever since."

Notwithstanding that the petition for the pardon of the Sandwich and Macclesfield bribers was signed by about one hundred and fifty Peers and members of Parliament, some of them influential men, Sir William Harcourt, Home Secretary, can find nothing to justify him in interfering with the sentences.

Gladstone, replying to a correspondent who called attention to the fact that bands of Mormon missionaries visit Great Britain annually, decoying thousands of young persons to a life of immorality in Utah, and asking if the Government could not do something to prevent the practice, says that he fears it is not a matter wherein he can interfere, as it is to be presumed that young persons go voluntarily.

A St. Petersburg despatch says a plot has been discovered for the assassination of the Czar in Karavanian street, which it was expected he would traverse in proceeding from the palace to Michael riding school during the fete of St. George. The conspirators were all arrested at a meeting of revolutionists in the outskirts of the town. It is stated that nothing could have saved the life of the Czar had he passed when expected.

By the death of Sir John Stewart Richardson, thirteenth baronet, of Pitfoor, Perthshire, Scotland, which occurred in Edinburg recently, another Nova Scotian girl becomes a baronet's wife. The late Sir John Richardson, born in 1797. He married the daughter of James Hay, of Devon, and had four sons and three daughters. His eldest son and successor, now Sir James Thomas Richardson, late Captain 78th Highlanders, was born December 24th, 1840, and married October 20th, 1868, Harriett Georginia Alice, second surviving daughter of Mr. Rupert John Cochran, of Halifax.
