Dr. Chase's OINTMENT
CURES

My six-year-old daughter, Bella, was afflicted with eczema for months. The itching and irritation were so bad that she could not sleep. I tried almost every remedy I saw advertised, brought in ointments and medicines and soap, and took the child to medical specialists in this city, but without result. Finally, a week ago, I purchased a box of Dr. Chase's Ointment, and the first application showed the curative effect of the remedy. We have used only one-sixth of the box, but the change is very marked. The eruption has all disappeared, and I can confidently say my child is cured. (Signed) MRS. J. L. JOHNSON, 112 Anne St., Toronto.

THE MURPHY SWEET MARIE.

From the Murphy cure I come, Sweet Marie, Won't you bid me welcome home, love to thee? Please call that usual row, Chase that from your brow, For I'm drinking root beer now, Sweet Marie.

As I gaze into your face, Sweet Marie, For I'm sober as a judge, don't you see? For I seem to see you stand With a poker in your hand, And my back hair may be fanned, love, by thee.

Sweet Marie, come to me, Come to me, Sweet Marie, For I'm sober as a judge, don't you see? I am just as full of gold as I possibly can be, And your wealth will be untold, Sweet Marie.

I once was a jolly jig, Sweet Marie, I have carried many a jug home to thee; Then you'd treat me to a head, That would lay me up in bed, And some awful things you've said, love to me.

But my tank is empty now, Sweet Marie, We've had our last big row, don't you see? For the Murphy Institute Took me in as a recruit, And you'll find that I'm a beant, Sweet Marie.

GODFATHERS AND GODMOTHERS.

We must doubtless look to the Jews for the origin of godfathers and godmothers. The use of them in the primitive church is so early that it is not easy to fix a time for their beginning. Some of the most ancient fathers make mention of them, and through all the successive ages afterwards we find the use of them continued without any interruption. By a constitution of Edmund, Archbishop of Canterbury, 1236, and in a synod held at Worcester in 1240, a provision was made that there should be for every male child two godfathers and one godmother, and for every female one godfather and two godmothers. King Henry VIII, referring to the Princess Elizabeth, says—

My lord of Canterbury, I have a suit which you must not deny me. That is, a fair young maid that yet wants a godfather, as my wife might wish. You must be godfather and answer for her.

Henry VIII, Act 5, scene 3.

A constitution of 1281 makes provision for a Christian name being changed at confirmation. This is practically a re-naming of the child. The manner in which it was done was for the bishop to use the name in the invocation and afterwards for him to sign a certificate that he had so confirmed a person by such new name. It is possible that this practice might have been in Shakespeare's mind when he wrote—

Call me but love, and I'll be baptiz'd. Henceforth I never will be Romeo.

Romeo and Juliet. —Westminster Review.

AFTER DANGERS OF LA GRIPPE.

A Boston paper facetiously remarked that "La Grippe is seldom fatal unless you use all the remedies recommended for it. They are correct. The writer fully believes that the end of the poor 'grip' victim, if he tried all the patent medicines that have adorned (7) the pages of our leading newspapers as 'cure cures for La Grippe,' would be like Mark Twain, who for his famous cold tried every remedy advised by friends, until his stomach became so weak he began to vomit and continued until, as he says, 'he was like to throw up his immortal soul.' We notice one of the leading advertisers of the day has been conspicuous at this opportune time by the absence of any claim to cure the 'grip,' as we feel like giving them a free 'grip' for their compassion upon our readers. The more so for the reason that probably more people have used their remedy, that good old family medicine, Johnson's Liniment, than this troublesome influenza, than all others combined. And why not? Certainly no other will relieve catarrhal colds, coughs, bronchial troubles or influenza, as promptly as that same old Johnson's Anodyne Liniment. The real after dangers from this epidemic disease, it leaves the mucous membrane linings of the nose, throat and bronchial tubes tender, and very susceptible to the catarrhal, bronchial troubles and pneumonia, which come with February and March in our northern climate. The Proprietors, J. S. Johnson & Co., Boston, Mass., will send you a new illustrated book, entitled 'Treatment of Diseases,' free to any person for the asking.

The Jews were commanded to celebrate a jubilee feast, or national holiday, every 50 years. All Jews in bondage to their brethren went free on this feast.

RADICAL CHANGES.

Have taken place in Medical Practice during the Past Few Years.
