

Local and Other Items.

SLEIGHING to-day. PASSED.—Mr. Hector Campbell, of Cape Traverse, passed for mate at the recent meeting of the Marine Board, in Halifax.

BAZAAR.—There will be lots of useful and fancy articles, suitable for Christmas presents, at the Bazaar next Thursday. Doors open at 2 o'clock.

JUST RECEIVED.—A further supply of that celebrated novel, "Robert Elsmere," just received at the Diamond Bookstore. Call early before all are gone.

POLICE COURT.—Thomas McCarvill was the only penitent this morning. The charge against him was drunkenness. He promised to take the pledge and was discharged.

DEAFNESS CURED.—A very interesting 132 page Illustrated book on deafness, in the head. How they may be cured. Post free 3d.—Address, Dr. Nicholson, St. John St., Montreal.

SUGGESTION TO THE "PATRIOT."—Someone down in Prince Edward Island has been saying that the city of Charlottetown is the mildest place in the universe. That person ought to go West.—Empire.

THE COLES-WHELAN MONUMENT.—A meeting of subscribers and all others interested in the Coles-Whehan Monument will be held in the office of Warburton & Smallwood, on Monday evening next, at 8 o'clock.

BIBLE CLASS.—Young Men's Bible Class in the upper parlor of the Y. M. C. A., this evening, at 8 o'clock. Every young man should avail himself of the opportunity of attending this class. Subject for to-night, "Job."

A LITTLE OFF.—Some of the Nova Scotia papers are still publishing paragraphs about the recent burning of Conductor Ryan's home. One enterprising sheet locates the fire at North Sydney, C. B., and another at Pownal. Our contemporaries should wake up.

ENFORCING HIS REMARKS.—A despatch from Sackville says that the college authorities are investigating the case of a senior student, who, during a racket in the debating club hall, drew a revolver and threatened to shoot. He will likely be sent home.

STEAMERS' MOVEMENTS.—The Princess of Wales left here for Pictou about half-past ten this forenoon, and is expected on return about nine to-night.

The St. Lawrence was about an hour late leaving Summerside for Point du Chene this morning.

WHO IS SHE?—A masculine-looking female, carrying a black bag, called at THE EXAMINER office yesterday, and asked for a paper containing the latest news about "Jack the Ripper." She appeared to be very careful of the black bag. Of course she was not the redoubtable Jack.

DAMAGED BY ICE.—The schr. Glen, owned by Capt. Hanahan, of P. E. Island, was cut through by ice and filled at the Trading Co's wharf, at Charlottetown, on Sunday last. She is now being hauled out upon Ritchie's wharf by Mr. Patrick Desmond.—Moncton Times. Our contemporary is altogether astray in its geography. No such accident has occurred here.

THE BOSTON STEAMERS.—The steamer Carroll, Captain Brown, leaves Boston for Halifax at noon to-morrow, and will sail on return from Halifax on Tuesday at four o'clock. During the past season both the Carroll and Worcester have done a good business in freight and passengers, and their officers have made many friends who will extend a warm welcome to them on their return next year.

WON'T GIVE UP.—In a letter received at Ottawa from Mr. A. M. Stenhouse, who resigned his seat in the British Columbia Legislature to join the Mormon colony, it is intimated that the Mormons do not propose to give up practicing polygamy. Mr. Stenhouse argues that Mormons settled in the Northwest are no more obliged to be satisfied with one wife than are the Mohammedans of India who are under British rule.

THE HALIFAX.—Says the Halifax Chronicle of Thursday:—"The steamer Halifax, which arrived early this morning from Boston, had a full cargo and 133 passengers. Every state room on the saloon deck was sold, and several applicants for rooms were obliged to take berths on the lower deck. The Boston agents had to decline several carloads of cargo for want of room in the ship. The Halifax sails this afternoon for Charlottetown. She is expected here to-morrow morning.

A WORD IN SEASON.—If the Summerside Pioneer and the St. John Telegraph keep on taking news paragraphs from THE EXAMINER and crediting them to the Patriot, the readers of these papers, who rarely see the Patriot, will soon begin to think that that paper keeps pace with the times. We have no objection to our contemporaries trying to boom the Patriot, but they must understand that they cannot do so at the expense of THE EXAMINER.

MUSICAL.—Mr. Earle has been engaged by the Y. M. C. A. to give two grand concerts during the season—the first a secular concert early in January, the other a grand oratorio concert to be given in March. The success attending the series of concerts given by Mr. Earle three years ago, is a guarantee of the superiority of the music to be performed at these concerts. The choruses will consist of upwards of thirty picked voices, and the instrumental music promises to be of unusual excellence.

DISASTROUS MARINE COLLISION.—A despatch from London says that the French steamer Louis, at Cardiff, ran into and sunk the British barque Erminia at that port, from Savannah, and drove the British ships Beaconsfield, from Antwerp and Macedon, from Montreal, against a pierhead, badly damaging both vessels. The Macedon was built in St. John in 1878, and is owned by Wm. Thomson & Co. The Beaconsfield was built at Digby, and the Erminia in P. E. Island. The latter, however, was owned in England and hailed from Swansea.

THE BRACKMAN WINS.—The argument of counsel in the suit of Stevenson vs. the New Brunswick railway company, in the Supreme Court of St. John, was concluded on Monday evening. It was agreed to refer the legal points of the case to the court en banc, with leave to the defendants to move to enter a non suit, and with leave to either party to move for a new trial. The question of the amount of damages to be paid plaintiff in case the legal points should ultimately be decided in his favor, was left to the jury. His Honor charged the jury on the question of damages on Wednesday morning, and after a short absence they made a return assessing the damages at $1,500.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER.

Three Men Perish.

GASPE, Que., Dec. 6. Three men named Fournier, father, son and nephew, left here yesterday for their home at Dartmouth River. Residents on the river bank were aroused last night by shouts for help from persons on the river, but although efforts were made to rescue them, they were unsuccessful, owing to the danger of sharp ice cutting through the boats. When daylight came people on the shore were horrified by the sight of the three Fourniers lying dead in their boat, which was full of water. They had evidently succumbed from exhaustion and exposure.

The Parnell Commission.

LONDON, Dec. 6. Upon the reassembling of the Parnell Commission to-day, Justice Hannen intimated that Patrick Molloy, who had been arrested in Dublin for refusing to obey the subpoena calling upon him to give evidence would be heard by the Commission to-morrow. The Commission to-day decided to adjourn from the 14th inst. for one month, instead of from Dec. 7th to Jan. 16th, as agreed upon yesterday. The subscriptions to the fund to aid Parnell in his litigation with the Times amounts to 24,500 pounds.

Reckless Strikers.

BRUSSELS, Dec. 6. The strike movement is increasing and strikers everywhere are becoming reckless. An attempt was made to-day to wreck a train on the Hollowview Railway, dynamite cartridges being placed on the track, but fortunately the cartridges were discovered in time to prevent disaster. An attempt to blow up a manufactory at Morlanwel with dynamite also failed.

Appeal to England.

OTTAWA, Dec. 6. At the last session of Parliament Sir John Thompson introduced an act which was adopted by Parliament, abolishing appeal to England in criminal cases. Considerable anxiety has since been felt in Government circles that the Imperial Government would withhold its assent, but a despatch has just been received stating that Her Majesty would not be advised to withhold assent.

The Rifle.

OTTAWA, Dec. 6. The officials of the Dominion Rifle Association are of the opinion that the annual rifle meeting of the National Association will, after all, be held on Wimbeldon Common next year. No new range has yet been selected, and the Duke of Cambridge will be asked to grant leave for another meeting at Wimbeldon.

The Shah Consents.

LONDON, Dec. 6. The Shah of Persia has expressed his willingness that a Russian consul shall reside at Resht, but objects to the consul's jurisdiction extending to Meshed, because that place is a holy city. The Persian authorities declare that Russian consuls in Persia generally cause strife.

Threw Out the Bill.

TORONTO, Dec. 6. The Grand Jury at the general session yesterday threw out the bill against Dr. S. E. McCully, charging him with shooting a medical student, H. H. Oldridge, in Holloween demonstration in front of his house.

Petition Withdrawn.

OTTAWA, Dec. 6. A petition against the return of W. C. Edwards, M. P., for Russell Co., and cross-petitions against C. H. McKintosh, by mutual consent of the parties, have been withdrawn, the Liberals agreeing to pay the costs.

Invited to Boston.

OTTAWA, Dec. 6. Senator Abbot has been invited to a banquet by the Boston Merchants Association, to represent Canada in the discussion of important questions.

Corn Sale Stopped.

LONDON, Dec. 6. The sale of corn to Russians to Sustabad, Persia, has been stopped. It is believed Southern Persia is now in the hands of England.

MARRIED.

At the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. John B. McCallum, Clyde River, on the 5th inst., by Rev. D. Davies Moore, A. M., Lemuel Hyde, Esq., of Cornwall, to Matilda Rebecca, third daughter of the late John B. McCallum, Esq.

ONE of the reasons why Scott's Emulsion has such a large sale is, because it is the best. Dr. W. H. Cameron, Halifax, N. S., says:—"I have prescribed Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, with Hypophosphites for the past two years, and found it more agreeable to the stomach and have better results from its use than any other preparation of the kind I have ever used." Sold by all druggists; 50c and $1.00.

THREE MONTHS FOR LARCENY.—On Monday last, says the Summerside Pioneer, while the Station Agent at Bloomfield was away to dinner, a young scamp, by the name of Jerome Arsenault, entered the inner part of the station house, through the small wicket, and with a poker forced open the cash drawer, and stole about $10 and made off with it. The thief was tracked through the snow and eventually found at Alberton. With a part of the money he had bought a pair of boots and a revolver and cartridges. Most of the remaining money was recovered, and the lad confessed his guilt. He was tried and convicted by R. B. Reid, Esq., J. P., and was sent for three months to the Prince County jail.
