QUEEN EFFECTS OF A HURT.

Forty-five Years of a Man's Life Rendered a Perfect Blank. "In the village of Lubec," says the Levinson, Me., Journal, "lives Clem Wallis. When he was a boy about fifteen years of age he went out to his father's pasture to catch a frisky colt. As he was about to place a halter around his neck the colt kicked him in the head, making a ragged wound. The wound healed, but soon became a permanent sore. The man was slightly deranged, and his hallucination took peculiar forms. He would trudge up and down the hay on the steamboat, and then he would be back in the mill, and he would be back in the mill, and he would be back in the mill."

It is prudent to look well to your eyes, and correct at once any defect or peculiarity of vision by the use of properly fitted glasses that relieve the sight from being overstrained and impaired.

PECULIAR IN COMBINATION.

London, Dec. 19.—Professor Be-t and Companion, Stevenson, Schwann and Channing called yesterday upon Lord Kimberley, secretary for foreign affairs, and presented to him the resolutions adopted at the mass meeting held in London yesterday to protest against Turkish atrocities in Armenia. A long conference was held, in which the delegation submitted proposals for reforms in Armenia. Lord Kimberley expressed sympathy with the movement, and promised to consider the proposals.
