A PITABLE CRIPPLE.

From Rheumatism—Blistered by Doctors Till He Didn't Know Himself—South American Rheumatic Cure Performs a Wondrous Cure.

D. Desanetels, Peterboro', writes: "For months I was unable to work, had rheumatism in every part of my body. I was blistered by doctors at ten different times. My hands were drawn out of shape, my fingers were distorted, and my wrists and forearm were double their natural size. My leg was encased in a plaster case for four months. I tried South American Rheumatic Cure; I took two bottles. Twenty-four hours after first dose I felt like a new man. One week after I was able to go to work. Now I am as hearty and strong as ever. Sold by Dr. S. W. Dodd and Geo. E. Hughes."

A TRICKY BUTCHER

"The greatest business mind I ever ran up against was possessed by the former proprietor of a meat market out in Germantown," said a street car conductor the other day as his car was waiting on Front street. "This butcher had a fine, sneaky voice, which you could hear a block away. Tricky? Yes, that's just what you would call it. I used to watch him sometimes when he was waiting on customers, and it was positively amusing to see the apparent ease with which he would make a two pound steak weigh apparently three or more pounds."

"He would take a couple of pounds of meat and throw it on the scales so that the pointer would show four pounds and then take it off before the scales could register the true weight. 'There's just four pounds exactly,' he would say to the customer in that sneaky voice of his, and then continue with the statement quickly made: 'Four times 12 is 48. Call it 60,' and unless the customer was watching him closely he would always get even change."

"He was in the meat business only a few years and amassed a competency. Then he left it. What worries me is how he is going to get along now. I understand he is in the real estate business, and I wonder how he works it when he sells a piece of land. The scales won't help him much there."—Philadelphia Record.

MURRAY HARBOR NOTES.

Potato digging is well advanced in this section. The crop is exceptionally poor.

The cheese factory here closed its season's cheese making about a week ago; and on Monday next will start making butter. The number of cheese made this season is less than the preceding year, there being a slight falling off in the number of patrons and the factory having closed earlier this season. The work and management is highly creditable to Mr. Cowan and assistant J. H. Bull.

An interesting event took place at the home of Mr. Forbes on Thursday evening 6th inst., when Mr. Donald Jackson of H. North and Mrs. Ann White (widow of late Wm. White) were united in marriage. Mr. Forbes supported the groom while the bride was attended by Miss McKay. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Henry Carter. This happy pair are both on the verge of the allotted three score and ten years and this is the third time for each being married; consequently this will doubtless revive hope within any who may have considered themselves doomed to live a life of celibacy.

A few intimate friends assembled at the Methodist parsonage on the morning of the 7th ult. to witness the marriage of A. B. Allen, Esq., of Montreal to Miss Margaret Hall, daughter of Thomas Hall, Esq. Bathurst. The bride was attired in cream cashmere with peat trimming and carried a bouquet of bridal roses and maiden hair ferns. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Allen, father of the groom. After a dainty breakfast the happy pair left by the S.S. Electra for Charlottetown en route to Montreal where Mr. Allen holds a responsible position.

The Only Time There Was.

The necessity that there shall be only one man who "has the say" in a military command is thoroughly recognized in the United States army. A story is told of General Shafter which illustrates the punctilio of the regulars in this regard.

At a certain frontier post at which Shafter, who then held an inferior rank, was commander many years ago, a discussion arose among several officers as to the exact time of day. A captain, with his watch in his hand, said: "It is now exactly 3 o'clock."

"Oh, no!" said a lieutenant. "By my time it's eight minutes past 3."

A third young officer drew his watch out of his pocket. "I know my time is exactly right," he said, "and my watch says two minutes past 3."

At this juncture Major Shafter looked at his silver watch.

"I don't know what your watches say," he remarked, "but I wish you to understand that in this command it is five minutes past 3."

Then the young officers remembered that the authority of the commanding officer extended even to the time of day.—Youth's Companion.

NEWS NOTES.

The bursting cartridge shells at the Dominion Rifle matches at Ottawa are found to have been made of bad brass supply at the Quebec factory. Brasses of better quality is promised for the future.

Germany is about to provide by law that negotiators inciting workmen to strike shall be punished by imprisonment for terms of not less than three months nor more than two years.

For the next winter mail service the Allan Company will probably supply two boats and the Dominion three. The Allan boats will probably be the Parisian and the State of California. The Dominion will probably send the Labrador and Vancouver, and for a third boat either the Scotsman or the Dominion.

A USEFUL COFFIN

It may not be generally known that the Dutch Boers at the Cape, especially those living in remote districts where material is expensive and labor difficult to obtain, frequently purchase at least one coffin beforehand which is placed in a conspicuous position in the "voorkamer" or principal sitting room and utilized as an article of furniture, for ornament or as a receptacle for clothing and other oddments.

One farmer well known to the writer possesses a beautifully finished article of this sort which he purchased about 30 years ago. During that period he has buried three wives each of whom had to be content with coffins of the commonest material and roughest workmanship while his own awaiting its possessor stands in all its luster of polished teak and silver mountings.

For the present the old gentleman uses it as a couch for his midday nap in order, as he sometimes remarks with grave humor, that he may get accustomed to it.—Cape Times.

A German Word Serpent.

A German correspondent comes to the rescue of his countrymen, concerning whom we expressed surprise that they should prefer to use a word of four syllables when another word expressing the same thing in 40 syllables was available. He sends us a copy of The Kolnische Volkszeitung, in which occurs a sentence of 607 words, occupying 69 lines of the newspaper.

This word serpent occurs in a legal judgment, and even the printers got to hate it after setting up about 450 words of it. So they put in a full stop, which, like a rifle bullet in the spine of a boa constrictor, killed the whole sentence. But it must really be nice to have newspapers in which you can begin to read a sentence at breakfast, continue it in the train and triumphantly reach the verb at office.—London Globe.

Experienced.

"Have you made up your mind just what qualities you expect to find in a husband?" asked the matron.

"Why, of course," answered the maid.

"Too bad," commented the matron with a sigh.

"Why do you say that?" demanded the maiden.

"Oh, I always hate to see young girls disappointed," answered the matron.—Chicago Post.

So Kindly Considerate.

"Why is it," the daring young man asked, "that your daughter still wears such short dresses?"

"Oh, I keep her dressed that way," Mrs. Giddibus answered, with a beautiful blush, "because if she had long skirts on people would think she was my sister when they saw us together. I have no wish to conceal the fact that I have a daughter who is as tall as I am."—Cleveland Leader.

THE BANE OF BUSINESS MEN.

Is Dyspepsia, Which Ruins the Brightest Intellects.

Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets Remove this Curse by Banishing its Cause—Their Action is Speedy, Their Effect Positive and Permanent.

Dyspepsia is a blighting curse of the modern business world. Nine-tenths of the members of all the professions, too, are victims of the modern dragon.

The shrewdest, most far-seeing merchants, the most astute brokers, the cleverest lawyers, the most eloquent clergymen, and even the most skillful surgeons and physicians are tortured by Dyspepsia.

Many a bankrupt can blame Dyspepsia for his failure; many a sermon has been spoiled; many a lawyer has lost his case—because of Dyspepsia.

Dyspepsia unstrings the nerves; makes a man irritable, moody, unsociable, cranky; saps the freshness, strength and vigor of manhood, and unfits the victim for work.

Keenness of foresight and Dyspepsia never go together; clear-headedness and Dyspepsia are bitter enemies.

Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets are the best friends the business man and the professional man can have.

Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets absolutely cure Dyspepsia. They cure it rapidly, thoroughly and permanently.

Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets cure Dyspepsia by removing its cause. They digest the food, and give tone and vigor to the stomach. They fit a man for his business, giving him a clear head, and steady nerves, and ensure strength for the whole system.
