LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS.

PREMIER black and white sale now on.

THE FOREIGN MAIL arrived about two o'clock this afternoon.

THE STANLEY left Pictou this morning, but was obliged to return on account of heavy ice.

ST. PETER'S CATHEDRAL.—Special Lenten service with an address on "Confirmation" this evening at 7.30.

L. O. L.—Regular meeting of St. George Lodge, No. 1171, to-morrow night at 7.30 p. m. sharp. Royal Arch degree.

LEAGUE OF THE CROSS.—Don't forget the entertainment in St. Patrick's Hall to-night. A splendid programme has been prepared for the occasion.

LIQUOR REGULATION ACT.—A summons was served on Picton S. Brown this afternoon for a breach of the Liquor Regulation Act. He is charged with selling intoxicants in his dwelling house. The summons is returnable on Monday.

PART IV Magic City has arrived. Send in coupons now, as Part V. will be offered in a few days. Hereafter a delay of only a few days will elapse between the offering of the different parts, in order that subscribers may quickly secure the whole series.

MOVEMENTS OF THE TRAINS.—The train which left Tignish on Monday morning was at O'Leary at one o'clock this afternoon; and the train which left Mount Stewart for Summerside the same morning has not reached her destination yet. At latest accounts she was near Harmony. The other trains are running on time.

LAUGH AND GROW FAT.—If you want to enjoy a good hearty laugh and a general good time come to the concert and Pie social in the Hall at Vernon River Bridge, by the Eldon "Glee Club" on Thursday the 8th March. Dont fail to attend and see MacPherson's-Fairwell and Gillie Callum danced.

DIDN'T BELIEVE IN BANKS. — Jack Rogers, a wealthy farmer of Mercer County, Kentucky, having no confidence in banks, placed $4,000 in a barrel of shelled corn in his barn. A few days later when he went to make a draw, he found that someone had made a run on the barrel, and there was nothing left to pay his checks.

THE CATTLE DYING.—The unprecedented storms of January 23 and February 11 and 12 have wrought dire havoc among the cattle upon the great ranges in the Indian reservation, Oklahoma Territory. Many cattlemen declare they will market the stock they have left in the spring and quit the business.

THE MONTH'S RECORD. — During the month of February, ending to-day, there were twenty-three convictions at the police court, as follows: Drunkenness, 16; abusive language, 3; malicious injuries to property, 2; breach of Liquor Regulation Act, 1; nuisance, 1. There were four dismissals, two for assault, one for malicious injuries to property, and one for nuisance. The receipts of the court amounted to 91 28.

A BETTER WAY.—A good many of our people have been sending to Montreal for copies of Stoddard's Photographs. Although the photographs are worth the time and money thus spent in procuring them, our readers will find it cheaper to get them at THE EXAMINER office. There will be no delay. The pictures will be delivered over our counter, or if the order comes by mail they will be posted at once. See particulars in another column.

MEDICAL LECTURES.—A number of young men studying medicine in this city have organized a class, and under the tuition of several members of the medical faculty have commenced a systematic study of various branches of their intended profession. The lectures are to continue until next August. Last night Dr. Warburton gave the first lecture, taking for his subject "Tissue Formation and the Changes Caused in such Formation by Disease, more especially by Gangrene." The lecture was listened to with much interest and profit. The following are the names of the instructors and the subjects to be treated by each.

Dr. Warburton—Pathology.
Dr. Kelly—Thereapeutics.
Dr. Dorsey—Physiology.
Dr. S. R. Jenkins—Histology.
Dr. Richard Johnson—Principles and Theory of Medicine.

The members of the class have expressed themselves as being under great obligation to the gentlemen who have so kindly consented to act as instructors.

MOCK PARLIAMENT.—The meeting last night was largely attended by members, but the dangerous condition of icy sidewalks and the extremely cold weather, would no doubt prevent the large attendance of visitors that would, under more favorable circumstances be present. The Speaker, Hon. Mr. Laird, took the chair at 8 o'clock. After the reading of minutes of previous meeting by the Clerk, Premier J. A. Macdonald introduced his namesake, the editor of the Guardian, who took his seat as a member of the assembly. Pursuant to notice, Mr McRae introduced a bill relating to the franchise and qualifications of voters, and the same was received and read the first time. Rules being suspended, the bill was read a second time. A very well sustained debate then followed, with Mr. Speaker in the chair. Messrs. McRae, Matheson, Macdonald and Campbell spoke in favor of the bill, and Messrs. Doull, Macdonald (Guardian) and Alfred Duchemin opposed the measure. Several speakers, with copious notes on their desks, were ready to take the floor, but as the hour of adjournment had arrived, on motion the debate was adjourned, and then the House adjourned till Tuesday, March 6th.

This morning the ejectment case of D. C. Morson vs. Daniel McLean and another began before a jury.

Morson for plaintiff; M. & D. C. McLeod for defendants.

The Scott Act appeal cases come up when this case is concluded.

NEWS NOTES.

An attempt will be made to save the old U. S. warship Kearsage. Secretary Herbert has addressed letters to the senate and house asking for authority and an appropriation to contract with some wrecking company for saving the wreck of the vessel.

The big Stoney Creek strike, in effect for the past fourteen months, has been settled. Several saloon keepers celebrated the occasion by giving out free beer. The strike has been the longest and hardest fought in the history of Connecticut labor troubles. It is estimated that the men lost more than a million dollars in wages during the time they were out.

Anarchist Bourdin was buried on Thursday at Finiply cemetery, London, by order of the authorities. Few persons were present. As the coffin was being lowered, Quinn, an anarchist leader, attempted to deliver an oration. He was seized by the police and hustled out of the cemetery gates, where he was set at liberty. Meanwhile the body was buried and groups of anarchists and others who congregated outside the enclosure quickly and quietly dispersed.

More school difficulties appear to be looming up. Father Lacomb, the well known Northwest missionary, says the Roman Catholics of the Territory are drawing up for submission to the government a statement which will offset the statement of Premier Haultain upon which the government based the decision that was recently made declaring that the federal authorities were not prepared to interfere in the Northwest school legislation.

A terrific explosinn took place in the coal mines, at Blossbury, near here, yesterday. Six dead bodies have been recovered, and it is beleived two Italians are in th mine. Three men were badly hurt. The explosion was probably caused by gas in the entry being ignited by a miner's light Luckily, only a few were in the mine on account of its being a holiday. Over 100 would have perished had all the miners been at work.

NEW YORK, Feb. 23.—The big drop in silver was the chief topic among the silver bullion and specie men in financial circles to-day. Prominent bankers think the slump will have a tendency to restrict production, and also that it may lead to a quicker international settlement of the silver question.

SOUTHAMPTON, Feb. 23.—The Workman's Radical Club, on January 30th resolved not to drink the health of the Queen. The president thereupon resigned, but on February 15th the action was rescinded by a small majority.

DULUTH, Minn., Feb. 23.—The Scottish Rite Masons here have revived an old practice, once a condition in France, and have admitted "by adoption" two ladies. The admission carries with it the right to wear the Masonic apron.

DIED.

At Colville Road, Lot 31, on the 14th Feb. 1894, Jane McCallum, widow of the late Angus Darrach, aged 86 years. Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord, that they may rest from their labors: for their works follow them.

At New Glasgow Road on the 17th inst., after a lingering illness of consumption, which he bore with true christian fortitude, Alexander McKay, aged 48 years.

A Chance for Thrift to Capture a Bargain.

If it's to sit on, to sleep on, or to eat from, anything for home which fancy suggests or necessity demands, we have them all, our own manufacture. Price is a powerful argument, and especially when backed by quality, and goods worth more than we ask for them. But 'tis sales we want, and thus we seek them.
