MILITARY.—From the Canada Gazette of the 21st inst., we extract the following:—"Active militia, permanent corps, regiment of Canadian Artillery. HEARD FROM AGAIN.—Citizen Train was at latest accounts entertaining the people of Halifax. He is reported to have said that he had been to Windsor and on the road saw nothing but two water tanks and a wood pile. He was satisfied Windsor Junction was the place where the ark had landed, and where Noah threw the ballast out. He said that in Cincinnati every second man you meet is a boy, but at the Junction every second man is a goat.

A CHANGE.—A Halifax man while in Boston recently had a conversation with Harrison Loving, general agent of the steamers running between that port and Halifax, in which the latter states that it was the intention of the company to replace the Carroll and Worcester with two of the boats now running to Savannah, probably the Mason City and the Gate City. The two steamers now running would be used on this route in winter.—Halifax Herald.

Mrs. Malcolm McLea, Mrs. John Richards, and Miss Minnie Palmer were among the passengers in the Northern Light which left here for Pictou yesterday afternoon. The first named lady is en route to Boston, and the two latter to Philadelphia.

RESCUED.—A few weeks ago Mr. Peter Stewart, of Souris, succeeded in floating the brig Hattie F. Rich, which was stranded at that place last fall. Owing to the ice he was unable to get her to the Breakwater as his contract required him to do, and for several days she had been drifting about in the ice near the shore. On Wednesday morning about half-past nine, a strong north-wester set in which drove the brigantine and the field of ice in which she was held, out to sea. There were on board at the time eight men, viz: Peter Stewart, Peter McDonald, Edward Lavin, Randolph Lord, R. Lord, Wm. Prossie and Albert McDonald of Souris, and Edward Kinsman, of Summerside. With wind and tide in her favor, she was going at the rate of five miles an hour, and in less than half an hour was completely out of sight. As she had neither rudder nor compass nor ballast, nor much provisions, the prospect looked anything but cheering, and great anxiety was felt on shore for the men on board. At 12 o'clock she was about 7 miles off Red Point, when, providentially, the Northern Light was nearing the land on her route from Pictou to Souris. Capt. Finlayson and his mate got sight of the distressed vessel, and immediately went to her rescue. About half-past two the Northern Light arrived at Souris with the Hattie F. Rich in tow. As they neared the wharf three cheers for Capt. Finlayson were proposed by Dr. Muttart, which were lustily responded to by over a hundred persons who had assembled at the wharf. This was a well-merited compliment to Capt. Finlayson for his prompt and humane action in this case.—Com.

SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER.

NEWS FROM BERLIN.

The Queen's Movements.

Pleased With Her Reception.

BERLIN, April 26.
Before leaving the mausoleum the Queen placed a wreath upon Emperor William's coffin.

After dining at the castle the Queen and Empress drove to the drill grounds and inspected the Life Infantry Guards, Princess Victoria and Margaret accompanying them on horseback.

LATER.
The Queen, accompanied by the Empress, drove to Berlin to bid farewell to the Dowager Empress and Grand Duke, and Grand Duchess of Baden.

The Emperor at the interview yesterday handed the Queen the insignia of the Order of the Bath, which she bestowed upon William to celebrate his 50th year of military service; also the late Emperor's Order of the Garter.

At the reception following the banquet the Queen freely conversed in the purest German, devoting particular attention to Bismarck, who shook hands heartily with Her Majesty before retiring. The Queen found at the station the Burgomaster and members of the Municipal Council of Charlottenberg, attired in official robes to pay their respects to Her Majesty. The Crown Prince introduced them to the Queen, who expressed cordial thanks for the kindly welcome extended her by the inhabitants.

The Crown Prince then conducted the Queen to the saloon carriage. After affectionate embraces the train started amid loud cheers. The whole route to the station was lined with crowds who heartily saluted the Queen.

At the Castle the Queen bade the Emperor an affectionate farewell. The Emperor expressed the hope to see her again in better times. The Queen repeatedly expressed gratification at the friendly welcome given her by the people of Berlin.

CONTEMPT OF COURT.

Editor Hawke in Jail,

WHERE HE IS SERENADED.

FREDERICTON, April 26.

Mr. Hawke having refused to enter into recognition pending the hearing of answers to the interrogatories, was taken to jail this afternoon. To-night he was brought before the Clerk of the Court, T. C. Allen, for examination for the interrogatories. At the conclusion of the examination, Mr. Hawke at the jail gave the following to your correspondent for publication:—"I was taken by the Deputy Sheriff at 8 o'clock to-night from the jail before J. Carleton Allen, an examiner, to answer the interrogatories, Mr. Gregory being present as my counsel. The interrogatories simply specified some of the articles containing the alleged contempt as to whether I wrote and published them, and whether I was the publisher of the Transcript at the time the articles appeared. All questions containing matters of fact were answered pretty nearly as in my argument before the court. There were a number of interrogatories, however, put as to what I intended by certain statements. These were objected to by Mr. Gregory as improper, and he asked the examiner to rule them out, but Mr. Allan refused, and Mr. Gregory intimated that he would move in the court to-morrow that this class of interrogatories be eliminated. They were then put to the prisoner, but he declined to answer them at present."

Mr. Hawke said the reason that he had not entered recognition was because such a course would indicate submission, and as the articles were, in his opinion, not contempt and not intended to be contempt, and were justified in the public interest, he preferred going to jail for telling the truth rather than retaining his liberty by making an apology.

While Mr. Hawke was being interviewed by the press correspondent in the jail, the Fredericton Brass Band, accompanied by a large number of people, took up a position in front of the jail and serenaded Mr. Hawke, with three cheers for the imprisoned editor, and calls for an address from him, but of course this was impossible, and the crowd dispersed.

At Traveller's Rest, Lot 19, on the 20th inst., Annie Elizabeth, wife of Edwin P. Raynor, and eldest daughter of the late John Fillman, of New London, in the 45th year of her age. She was beloved by all who knew her; her sufferings were borne with christian patience. "He giveth His beloved sleep."

At Greenvale, on the 15th inst., of paralysis, Maria F., eldest daughter of the late Absalom Gregory, in the 34th year of her age. The deceased was for many years a consistent member in connection with the West River Baptist Church, and was universally esteemed and respected by all who knew her. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Bishop, assisted by the Rev. J. G. Cameron, and considering the very bad state of the roads, were largely attended. The family hereby desire to express their heartfelt thankfulness to their neighbors for all the kindness and attention shown to the departed during her brief but trying illness.

In Denver, Monday morning, October 24, Marian Campion, of this city, aged nearly nine years. Miss Marian was a bright and intelligent child far beyond her years, and was beloved by all who knew her. She had been attending school at the Convent but a few days, when she was attacked by diphtheria, and to it gave up her promising young life. The parents have the heartfelt sympathy of their many friends in this city.—Herald-Democrat, Leadville, Colorado.

At New Glasgow, April 16th, 1888, Etta May, dearly beloved and youngest daughter of Jessie and Charles Smith, aged 14.

This lovely bud, so young, so fair,
Called hence by early doom,
Just came to show how sweet a flower
In Paradise would bloom;
Ere sin could harm or sorrow fade,
Death came with friendly care,
The opening bud to heaven conveyed,
And bade it blossom there.
