

PRAYERS AT SEA

Ships of the RCN engaged in Caribbean exercises pause for prayer. In the foreground, members of the ship's company of H.M.C.S. St. Laurent are gathered on the quarterdeck, led in prayer by Captain A.G. Boulton, Winnipeg and Halifax, commanding officer of the ship and Captain, Third Canadian Escort Squadron, The Ottawa.

P.W.C. NEWS

So much time has passed since this column last appeared that it would be practically impossible to bring our readers completely up to date on recent events at P.W.C. so you will have to excuse us if we omit any important points.

Our Curling team, whom we sent off on College Day to Winnipeg returned without the hoped-for trophy. This year's team, just in case you didn't know, was skipped by Art Burke, and included Arnold Llewellyn, Allison Saunders, and Harris Dingwall. The team did very well in the Island play-offs, but unfortunately one of the boys got sick during the Dominion finals. That probably explains why they didn't do as well as expected. Well better luck next year, boys!

On March 14 the Mardi Gras Formal was held, sponsored by the Social Committee. The auditorium was beautifully decorated - nicer than we've seen it in a long time, and everyone felt that the dance was a big success. Music was supplied by the Downtowners, and chaperones were Mr. and Mrs. R. Matheson, Mr. and Mrs. Cletus Murphy, and Mr. Bruce Hodgins. The formal was our last big pre-Lenten dance, but another social will probably be held sometime before Easter.

P.W.C. ENSEMBLE

This year, as practically every one knows by now, the P.W.C. Ensemble is presenting another popular Gilbert and Sullivan operetta - "Trial by Jury". Costumes are again being ordered from Malabar's in Toronto - those screams from the office were just the girls giving their measurements. So the show should be every bit as colorful as last year's. The first stage practices were held last week and the cast is finally beginning to get into the swing of things. "Trial by Jury" is not as long an operetta as "The Mikado" - it lasts just little under an hour. This year the concert will also consist of a number of songs from other lands - both choruses and solos. All in all it should be an evening of fine entertainment, and we hope you will share it with us. The show will be held the first week in April and will run for three nights.

In this regard some mention should be made of the Variety Show. For a while it seemed that a Variety show would be staged this year, but plans have not been dropped. One explanation for the failure of the show might be that we have not had a variety show for the past two years, and, as a result we have more or less lost interest in it. Probably the best explanation, however, is lack of student co-operation. One thing we certainly do not lack is talent. It seems a shame to let talent go to waste, but we are putting a great deal of it to work in "Trial by Jury".

Let us ask time out here to say congratulations to Alan MacKenzie, who has been chosen by the Charlottetown Rotary Club to attend the annual "Adventure in Citizenship" in Ottawa, May 21 - 25. Alan is a very popular student and the Rotarians couldn't have made a better choice.

On March 7, after several postponements, the graduates finally held their class meeting. The following officers of the graduating class were elected: President, Norman Stewart; Life-president, Jack LeClair; secretary, Margaret Hagen; Valetictorian, Jean-Isabel MacDonald; Class prophet, Fred Sellar.

And while we're on the subject of graduating, let us make some mention of the year book. The Welshmen staff, after many hectic weeks, is beginning to see the fruits of its labor as our year book takes shape. Graduates, classes, clubs, committees, and teams have been photographed and written about, and we are all looking forward to the appearance of the '57 Welshman.

Well, one thing really leads to another. Speaking of publications, the College Times is just about ready (we hope) to make its third and probably final appearance for this year. When we see our editor with that frantic gleam in his eye and his right-hand man looking slightly dazed, we begin to brace ourselves for the next issue of the SPORT.

To get back to the subject of sport again, we hear that a big badminton tournament is being planned and will get under way on Wednesday, March 20. So all you badminton fans - just off your racquets and enter the tourney! And speaking of "rackets" - what ever happened to last week's trip ??? The boys' and girls' basketball teams and the boys' hockey team had planned a big week-end trip to Acadia and to Kings' College in Halifax. Nothing seemed to be amiss until late

Thursday afternoon, when the whole affair was suddenly called off-and for no apparent reason. We have since had several explanations, but a great many of the students still do not know just what happened. We feel that some explanatory statement should be made by the authorities - not only for the benefit of these students, but as an act of courtesy toward the student body as a whole.

At the time of writing, however, another trip is being planned for this week-end. Our basketball and hockey teams plan to leave by car on Friday for Moncton and return on Saturday. Here's hoping that this trip doesn't turn out to be another mirage, and if you do get to Moncton, kids, we'll be rooting for you.

On the home front, the girls' basketball team is doing very well. They have played Q.C.H.S. girls a number of times, and they always manage to come out on top without too much difficulty. Intramural basketball has more or less faded into the dim and distant past, but we understand that house leagues are being formed for both girls and boys, with teams from each year participating.

As for the boys' play in the City Hoop League ended early this week with the Welshmen in fourth place. Playoffs started Wednesday with P.W.C. meeting the Saints. Incidentally, we think that our boy's team is pretty terrific, in spite of the fact that they did not come out on top of the City League. We're not making excuses for them, but we would like to point out that, with the exception of two players, our team is made up entirely of high-school boys. The veteran team of the City Hoop League provided some pretty stiff competition, and we're proud of the way our boys have played.

Well, that seems to be just about all for now. Join us again next week for another look at life at the Prince of Wales, won't you? And when you find yourself getting discouraged, remember what Michelangelo once said: "Trifles make perfection; and perfection is no trifle."
