Local and Other Items.

CLOSE SEASON.—The close season for oysters began on Saturday.

EARLY.—Ripe strawberries were picked at Hunter River on Saturday last.

OFF AGAIN.—The steamer William grounded at Stanley on Friday evening, but got off again the following morning.

SONS OF TEMPERANCE.—The members of the Order are invited to meet with Victoria Division this evening. Please be punctual.

HOOK AND LADDER.—The regular monthly meeting of the Hook and Ladder Co. will be held this evening at 8 o'clock.—C. Bell, Secy.

VANDALISM.—Some thoughless boys stopped the outlet of the fountain on Market Square with stones and dirt, yesterday, and as a consequence there was an overflow last night, which necessitated the shutting off of the water until this morning.

AQUATIC.—As will be seen on reference to our advertising columns, Messrs. Carroll and Connell, of Pictou, have accepted the challenge of Messrs. Donaven and Collins to row a three-mile double-scull race at Charlottetown on the 26th inst., for $25 a side.

CRICKET.—As a sufficient number of Allcomers did not turn up at Victoria Park on Saturday, the match between Lawyers and Bankers vs. Allcomers was postponed until Saturday next. A very interesting scratch match was played, in which some good scores were made.

FAT CATTLE.—The Summerside Pioneer says: Mr. Drummond purchased two fat cattle from Alexander Hooper, Esq., of Bedeque, recently, that were allowed by everyone who saw them to be the best offered for market this spring. One weighed 1265 lbs., and the other 1215.

MORE FLOWER STEALING.—A few days ago we reported the stealing of flowers from a grave in the People's Cemetery. To-day we have to state that two graves in the Roman Catholic Cemetery adjoining, have been similarly despoiled. What a pity it is that an example cannot be made of some of the people guilty of so despicable a theft.

BIG EGGS.—Mr. Michael Ready informs the Pioneer that he saw some exceedingly large "hen fruit" at the residence of Mr. Joseph Duggan, Ponds, a short time ago. One of the eggs weighed over one-quarter of a pound, while four of them almost tipped the scales with the pound weight on. One industrious bird gets the credit of the production.

FLOATED ASHORE.—We learn from the Pioneer that the body of Peter Murphy, who was drowned in Summerside harbor last fall, floated ashore against the breastwork at the west end of that town on Friday morning. The body, which was in an advanced stage of decomposition, was interred in the Roman Catholic Cemetery.

FROM BOSTON.—The steamer Carroll arrived here from Boston about four o'clock on Sunday morning, with J. Quinn and B. Cousins as passengers, and a cargo consisting of 1125 bbls. flour and other merchandise.

The Worcester is due here on Saturday evening or Sunday morning, as per advertisement.

NEW POST OFFICES.—The following new post offices were opened on the 1st inst.: Annarowe (Mrs. B. McKenna, P. M.), served by tri-weekly mail from Wiltshire Station; DeGros Marsh, (M. McPhee, P. M.), served by weekly mail from Newport, Lot 55; Glengarry, Lot 7, (P. Griffin, P. M.), served by weekly mail from Bloomfield Station.

ARRIVAL OF A NORWEGIAN BARQUE.—The Norwegian barque L. H. Schwensen, Captain A. Gyermundier, from Liverpool, arrived at this port at noon yesterday. She had a cargo of salt, 3300 bags of which are for Peake Bros. & Co., and 1100 bags for Richibucto. She will leave here for the latter place in about a week, where she will discharge the remainder of her cargo.

FREE-AND-EASY.—A free fight took place at the eastern end of the city on the way out to the driving park yesterday afternoon. Quite a number of young men took part, one of whom was gathered in by the police. This business of drinking and fighting on Sundays is becoming altogether too prevalent, and stringent measures should be taken to supress this evil.

SLIGHT FIRE.—There was a slight fire in the cupola of Webber's furniture factory, Summerside, on Thursday evening. The fire started in a pile of excelsior. Ten minutes after the alarm was sounded, the steam fire engine was playing, and five minutes later the fire was extinguished. The Pioneer says the damage by fire is comparatively small, but, between the drenching of the house, the breaking of the windows and plastering and damage to the polish of the furniture, Mr. Webber estimates his loss at between $300 and $500. He has no insurance.

FAREWELL SERMON.—The Rev. John M. McLeod, who is about to enter on a new field of labor in Vancouver, B. C., preached his farewell sermon to Zion Church congregation on Sunday evening. He took for his text 2 Cor. 13 Chap. 14th verse: "The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the Communion of the Holy Ghost be with you all. Amen." The church was crowded to its utmost capacity. Many of the rev. gentleman's friends and well-wishers from other congregations were present to hear the farewell of this faithful Minister of the Gospel, who, for the past eighteen years, has labored as the pastor of Zion Church in this city.

VALUABLE HORSEFLESH.—A correspondent at Georgetown writes: "The well-known blood mare Dollie, owned by Neil Nicholson, Esq., of Georgetown, dropped a splendid filly some few days since. This filly is sired by Captain Jeff, a horse that has not only won laurels at his own county exhibitions, but also at the provincial fairs of Charlottetown. The dam possesses good style and action, is a fair goer, and has many admirers. This gentleman has also, by the same dam, and Pilot, a yearling colt, which exhibits points of beauty and superior speed, and intends breeding from one of the flyers this season. We congratulate Mr. Nicholson on his great enterprise, and wish him every success in his stock-raising."

Police Court.

HIS HONOR THE STIPENDIARY MAGISTRATE HAS ANOTHER BIG DAY.

THIS was another "big day" at the Police Court. Below will be found a summary of the business transacted:—

Martin Walsh, violating Canada Temperance Act, first offence, fined $50 or one month's imprisonment. A similar charge against another person was dismissed.

Fred. McCoubrey and Nelson Whitlock, fighting on the streets, fined $3 and $4 respectively.

Timothy Carroll, drunk and incapable, $4 or 8 days.

Benjamin Bunting, drunk and incapable, $2 or 8 days.

Patrick Hughes, drunk and incapable, $2 or 8 days.

Frank Dalton, drunk and incapable, $2 or 8 days.

John Harrington, drunk and incapable, $2 or 8 days.

John McLeod, drunk and incapable, $2 or 8 days.

Michael Dalton, drunk and incapable, $2 or 8 days.

Edgar McCarron, drunk and incapable, $30 or 30 days.

Frank Connolly, fighting on the streets on Sunday, remanded eight days.

C. Johnstone and G. F. Halston, disorderly on the streets, fined $10 each.

Mary E. Heron, using abusive language, fined $30 or 30 days.

In the Weldon assault case, the complaint was withdrawn and the defendant discharged.

THE STAGE.—Burnham & Phillips' Big Minstrels have engaged the Lyceum for the evening of Aug. 1st next. The company appear in St. John during the week beginning July 22, and in Halifax during the week beginning August 5.

Mr. McConnell, managing Newton Beers Attractions, has written the manager of the Lyceum that the route of their "Lost in London" company has been changed, and that consequently a later date than that asked for will be required.

Six members of the Hyer Sisters "Out of Bondage" Company, which is contemplating visiting this city, are colored, including the Hyer sisters. "Out of Bondage" is a musical comedy in three acts, representing life in the South before the war. The company carry special scenery and have a brass band. They appear at the Academy of Music, Halifax, on the 6th, 7th and 8th June.

THEFT.—The Pioneer says: An act of vandalism and theft was committed late one night a short time ago at the west end of the town, near the railway crossing. The miscreant broke the town lantern near there and stole the lamp. In order to reach the top of the post they had to tear off the doorstep from the residence of Mr. William Linkletter to stand on. One of the inmates heard the crash of glass, and on looking out saw the parties hurrying down the railroad.

The Teacher

Who advised her pupils to strengthen their minds by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, appreciated the truth that bodily health is essential to mental vigor. For persons of delicate and feeble constitution, whether young or old, this medicine is remarkably beneficial. Be sure you get Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

"Every spring and fall I take a number of bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and am greatly benefited."—Mrs. James H. Eastman, Stoneham, Mass.

"I have taken Ayer's Sarsaparilla with great benefit to my general health."—Miss Thirza L. Crerar, Palmyra, Md.

"My daughter, twelve years of age, has suffered for the past year from General Debility.

A few weeks since, we began to give her Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Her health has greatly improved."—Mrs. Harriet H. Battles, South Chelmsford, Mass.

"About a year ago I began using Ayer's Sarsaparilla as a remedy for debility and neuralgia resulting from malarial exposure in the army. I was in a very bad condition, but six bottles of the Sarsaparilla, with occasional doses of Ayer's Pills, have greatly improved my health. I am now able to work, and feel that I cannot say too much for your excellent remedies."—F. A. Pinkham, South Moluncus, Me.

"My daughter, sixteen years old, is using Ayer's Sarsaparilla with good effect."—Rev. S. J. Graham, United Brethren Church, Buckhannon, W. Va.

"I suffered from

Nervous Prostration,

with lame back and headache, and have been much benefited by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I am now 80 years of age, and am satisfied that my present health and prolonged life are due to the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla."—Lucy Moffitt, Killingly, Conn.

Mrs. Ann H. Farnsworth, a lady 79 years old, So. Woodstock, Vt., writes: "After several weeks' suffering from nervous prostration, I procured a bottle of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and before I had taken half of it my usual health returned."
