CONTRACT BRIDGE

By B. JAY BECKER

FAMOUS HANDS

Opening lead — four of hearts.

The first world championship match was held in Bermuda in [illegible] in the three-cornered event were a United States team, a British team, and a combination Swedish-Icelandic team. The Americans de eated both their adversaries and won the championship.

A remarkable result was achie ed in the hand shown when the Americans played the Swedish-Icelandic team.

For reasons best known to himself, Johnny Crawford opened the South hand with a diamond instead of a notrump. Sidney Silodor raised to two diamonds when the Swedish West overcalled with a heart, and Crawford became declarer at three notrump.

He won the heart king with the ace and led a low diamond. When West showed out, the ten was played from dummy's East won and returned a heart.

West took the queen of hearts and could have beaten the contract by leading three rounds of clubs. But he had received the impression, because of Crawford's deceptive ten of diamonds play, that East had the king of diamonds.

So after leading the king of clubs first, West returned a heart. Crawford wasted no time romping home with nine tricks for a score of 600 points.

When the other Swedish pair came to play the North-South cards, South opened with a notrump. George Rapee made a sporting overcall of two hearts and North expressed his opinion that Rapee could not make it by doubling two hearts. Sam Stayman (East) passed and that became the contract.

The bidding:

South	West	North	East
3 NT	Pass	Pass	Pass

North opened the six of clubs. Rapee played low from dummy and took East's ten with the king. He drew trumps as soon as possible and then played a club to the queen and picked up South's jack with a finesse. Rapee lost three spades and two trumps, making two hearts doubled, for a score of 670 points.

So the American team made a game with the North-South cards and also with the East-West cards.

And that's how championships are won!

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:

A X Y D L B A A X E
is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.
