New Edition Of Trade Index Is Published

By FORBES RHUDE Canadian Press Business Editor
The 1962 Canadian Trade Index, published by the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, has added a new section which lists manufacturers alphabetically by province and city.
This is in addition to the national alphabetical list which has been the publisher's aim which, as stated in the introduction, "is to provide buyers and sellers of Canada and other countries with an authoritative guide to products manufactured in Canada, and the names of the firms making them."
SINCE 1960
The volume, which this year contains 1,158 pages, has been published by the CMA since 1960, and in addition to its Canadian circulation, has worldwide distribution through the offices of the Canadian Government Trade Commissioner service.

RCMP Rescue Woman From Ch'town Harbor Sat.

A Charlottetown woman reportedly tried twice Saturday to jump over the Hillsboro Bridge into waters below. City police were called to the bridge at 3:30 in the afternoon by someone who had seen a tourist, who noticed the young woman starting to climb over the railing on the bridge. However, when the police arrived on the scene there was no sign of the woman.
Later in the day the Charlottetown Detachment of the RCMP were called by a passerby who stated that there was a woman in the water.
Two RCMP officers later arrived at the bridge and spotted the woman in the water. The police officers swam out to where the woman was and succeeded in bringing her to shore. It was reported that she was taken to Riverside Hospital.
