Alan Bowness has been chosen to represent the Guardian-Carrier Boys as Acting Manager of the Capitol Theatre, for Monday, March 17th.

Wishing to honor these young men who serve the community through their daily news-gathering, the theatre management has chosen Alan Bowness, a member of the Guardian-Carrier Boys, to act as "Acting Manager of the Capitol Theatre for one day".

The theatre management has chosen Alan Bowness as Acting Manager of the Capitol Theatre for Monday, March 17th. Bowness, a member of the Guardian-Carrier Boys, will be in charge of the theatre's operations for the day.

ALAN BOWNESS

more practical and fuller insight into business management and its many aspects.

FILLS THE BILL
Chosen on the basis of long service, dependability and efficiency, Alan fulfills all these requirements to the letter. The son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Bowness, 35 Sidmont Ave., at 16 years of age, has devoted six of those years in continuous, competent service as a Guardian-Carrier Boy Salesman, in a manner that is a joy to any Circulation Manager or the public he is serving.

Nurses Alumnae Plan A Dance

Mrs. A. Lawlor presided at the quarterly meeting of the Charlottetown Hospital Nurses Alumnae, which was held at the Hospital on Tuesday evening. Twenty-five members were in attendance.

Prior to the business meeting, the nurses took part in a study and discussion period, which was led by Rev. R. Ellsworth. Mrs. M. McIsaac, the secretary, read the minutes also correspondence. A letter was received from the Red Cross asking for volunteers to help in the forthcoming Red Cross collection drive. Mrs. L. MacGuigan, Mrs. A. Lawlor and Mrs. Clarence Coady volunteered to collect.

Tentative plans were made for the Nurses Graduation dance on May 22. A committee was appointed to make arrangements for the dance.

"My Fur Lady" Creates Enthusiasm In Ch'town

"My Fur Lady" has stormed Charlottetown. The rib-ticking, riotous satire, now playing in the Queen Charlotte High School auditorium scored a big success in the opening performance yesterday evening.

The show was originally written for the McGill Red and White Revue, but was such a success that the cast decided on a tour of Canada. When it was produced at the university, its writers, a group of law students, Timothy Porteous, Erik Wang and Donald MacSweeney, little realized that it would become the biggest "Canadian" show to hit the stage.

Since its first appearance, two years ago, the show has risen to a Cinderella success story by setting and tying all records for engagements.

The performers yesterday showed professional skill in their parts and from the opening until the final curtain the applause and laughter from the audience was almost continuous.

The final performance will be given here this evening, when another large and appreciative audience is expected.

Juvenile Delinquency Shows Slight Increase During 1957

Juvenile delinquency in the Province showed a slight increase during the year 1957 but the Royal Canadian Mounted Police assert the situation is not alarming.

The investigations of offences committed were 35 as compared to 30 the previous year. In all, 48 juveniles were implicated. For the most part the offences were of a minor nature and were dealt with accordingly by the Juvenile Court Judges.

This is contained in the annual report of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police tabled in the Legislature by Attorney General A. W. Matheson.

Offences under the Criminal Code showed a decrease during the year. There was one charge of murder but the accused was convicted of manslaughter. The 162 who were charged with drunken and impaired driving shows an increase of 28 over the previous year.

IMPROVEMENT NOTED
Reckless driving and criminal negligence causing bodily harm accounted for only one charge in the province during the year. This is a decided reduction from 1955 when 15 such charges were laid.

Investigations under the Highway Traffic Act numbered 3,394 — a decrease of 53 from the previous year. Traffic offences showed a decrease of 283 but the prosecutions under the act showed an increase of 66 over the previous 12 months. Convictions

Mary Miller Auxiliary Met

The Mary Miller Evening Auxiliary met Monday, March 2, in the west parlour of Hertz Memorial Hall. Miss Alice Dollar led the worship service, assisted by Mrs. Katharine Craswell.

Miss Dollar opened the service with prayer, and then read the scripture lesson from St. Paul's epistle to the Philippians 4: 1-9. Mrs. Craswell gave a meditation on the life of St. Paul, after which she led in prayer. The hymns sung were "Rejoice, the Lord is King" and "Lead us, Heavenly Father, Lead us."

Mrs. Margaret MacPherson and Mrs. John Simpson were in charge of the study program, which began with a brief outline of the past one hundred years in Japan — a resume of Christian mission work there.

At the present time, less than one-half of one per cent of the population of Japan are Christians. There is great need of Church unity in missions. It is imperative that denominational barriers be broken down, and that the churches share their problems. Kagawa's life and work is an example and an inspiration to all.

In the absence of the president, Mrs. Thompson, through illness, the vice-president, Mrs. Bayfield Ellis, conducted the business meeting. Reports of various conveners of committees were heard, and routine business was transacted. The meeting closed with the Mizpah benediction, after which a social hour was enjoyed.

ECONOMIC CRISIS

WASHINGTON, (AP) — Democratic Senator John Kennedy of Massachusetts said Thursday the economic situation in the U.S. is approaching "the crisis stage."

Kennedy, mentioned as a possible presidential candidate for 1960, said the country needs the kind of leadership Franklin Roosevelt used in the early 1930s.

Something Lost - - -

Kniping has a haunting sentence in his poem, "The Explorer": "Something lost behind the ranges, lost, and waiting for you—go!" And later, the equally haunting explanation: "Anybody might have done it, but his whisper came to me."

The founders of the British and Foreign Bible Society were men who heard and listened to God's incessant whisper, telling them of lost men and women beyond the mountains and oceans of the world. As a result millions of souls have been brought to a knowledge of Christ through the translation and distribution of the Scriptures which are now available in more than 1100 languages and dialects.

And still whispers to us of a task far from completed—a task needing our prayers backed by action and money. Contributions may be made through the branch in your community or sent to The Bible House in Charlottetown. Incidentally, a purchase at the Bible House also helps, as all profits are used to fund the work. Here will be found a wide variety of Bibles, books, teaching material and religious novelties. You are invited to call.

Victoria Prayer Service Held

The women of Hampton and Victoria Missionary Societies met in Victoria Hall on the afternoon of February 21st. for the annual Day of Prayer Service.

The front of the hall was artistically decorated with spruce, potted plants and shaded lights which was most appealing for this beautiful prayer service which had been prepared by the women of Australia on the theme "The Bread of Life." Mrs. Keith Boswell, President of the Victoria W. M. S. presided over the first part of the programme and accompanied the children of the Mission Band on the piano as they sweetly sang three hymn selections.

The second part of the service was presided over by Mrs. Lorne Ferguson, President of the Hampton W. M. S. Mrs. Allison Law was pianist for the hymns on the programme led by the choir.

Those who led in prayer were, Mrs. John Rogerson, Mrs. Warren Imman, Mrs. Gordon Villett, Mrs. Lorne Ferguson, Mrs. Windsor Bell and Mrs. Elmer Imman.

The address on the theme, "Bread of Life" was most capably given by Miss Jean Boswell, Deaconess.

The offering was taken by two of the Mission Band girls and dedicated by Mrs. L. Ferguson.

After the singing of the hymn, "The Day Thou Gavest Lord is Ended," followed by the Benediction, the Victoria ladies served refreshments to all present. Mrs. Lorne Ferguson thanked them on behalf of the Hampton Society to which Mrs. Louis McLeod in her capable manner responded, thanking all who had in any way helped to share in this Christian fellowship with our sisters around the world.

Trinity Choir Is Entertained

The Senior Choir of Trinity United Church was entertained by the Board of Stewards at their annual banquet on March 10. Over 100 members and guests attended the banquet which Mr. O. K. Presby acted as chairman and extended the welcome.

Rev. A. Frank MacLean spoke, expressing his appreciation of the work of the choir. Mr. Royston F. Mugford, Organist and Director of Choirs, also spoke briefly. Mr. William Crockett, on behalf of the Board, tendered a vote of thanks to President, Mrs. Garfield Taylor, and members of the W.A. for the splendid banquet provided. A gift of chocolates to the members and a short program, consisting of tape recordings of some of the work of the junior choirs; special numbers by Mr. Mugford, Miss Joyce MacCallum, Mrs. H. W. Davison, Mr. Gordon MacCallum, brought a very pleasant evening to a close.

firmation of the fact that the Island will get the $2,500,000. He read a telegram from the Prime Minister in which announcement of the grant was to be made but said nothing official had been received.

The telegram stated that the money would be paid within the fiscal year beginning April first, 1958. Mr. Matheson said "that grant can be any time before March 31, 1959."

Dr. L. G. Dewar (P.C. 2nd Prince) expressed the opinion

TAX REDUCTION

He recalled there had been reduction in corporation taxes on other occasions but there had been corresponding increases in personal income tax. In this case there will be no increases in personal income tax to offset this loss of revenue, he said.

Mr. Bell asked what the Government intended to do for the municipalities who had presented a brief about a week ago. He recalled a statement made by the Prime Minister in Charlottetown when he expressed the hope that the municipalities would get extra assistance since the Province had more money to work with.

The Premier replied that Mr. Diefenbaker may have made such a statement in Charlottetown but observed that Prime Minister had made many announcements at political meetings that he never made on the floor of the House of Commons. "This seems to be a favourite place for the Prime Minister to make many of his announcements," said Mr. Matheson.

ENTITLED TO SOMETHING
Questioned further by Mr. Bell as to whether the municipalities would get any extra grant from the Provincial Government the Premier replied, "If we get the money they are entitled to something extra."

In reference to a Guardian editorial, the Premier noted that the writer had been in agreement with him that the Island should have gotten more money under the adjustment grant and that they had received nothing under the stabilization grant.

He read a letter from the Premier of Manitoba to the Prime Minister in which it was stated that not enough time had been given at the conference to consider Maritime claims and particularly noted a schedule submitted by the Manitoba Premier which he proposed that the Atlantic provinces could have received $40,000,000 without seriously affecting the grants of the other provinces.

T.B. MENTAL CARE
The Premier criticized the Federal Government for not agreeing
