

SAVE THE MOTHERS

Dodd's Kidney Pills Their Only Safety in Female Diseases.

You have seen a flower nipped by frost, fade and die in the flush of its beauty. That is how women die when attacked by any of the diseases peculiar to their sex. Woman's burdens are woefully heavy. Her sufferings are agonizing. Her patience is grand. Disease prey upon her. The light dies out of her eyes, her steps become slow and dragging; she loses flesh; grows sallow, listless, droops like a flower. Then she dies. Her family is left to the cold mercy of the world. "Mother's dead!" What a piteous phrase. What sufferings have been endured before it was used. Why should mothers, wives, sisters suffer? They need not. Dodd's Kidney Pills will quickly and thoroughly cure all cases of Female Weakness. They never fail. They give health, strength, vigor: a new lease of life.

We are the original manufacturers of portable Vapor Baths. We have, during the last ten years, supplied thousands of our Baths to physicians, hospitals, sanitariums, etc., and we are now, for the first time, advertising them direct to the general public. Get one with a steel frame that stands on the floor. If a manufacturer does not show you a cut of a frame without the covering you may take it for granted that his "steel frame" is a wire loop that rests on the shoulder of the bather. Get one that is covered with proper material. Insist on seeing a sample of material before ordering. We make our own covering material and print it with a handsome "all over" pattern of Niagara Falls. Get one with a thermometer attachment. Don't go it blind—a bath that is too hot or not hot enough will be of no benefit to you. Get one that you can return and have your money back if not satisfactory in every way. Send for sample of material and interesting booklet that will tell you all about Vapor Baths. Vapor Baths are an acknowledged household necessity. Turkish, Hot Air, Vapor, sulphur or medicated Baths at Home, etc. Purifies system, produces cleanliness, health, strength. Prevents disease, obesity. Cures Colds, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, La Grippe, Eczema, Catarrh, Female Ills, Head, Skin, Nerve and Kidney Troubles. Beautifies Complexion.

THE RED CROSS

They, too, have heard the drumbeat. They follow the bugle's call. These who are swift with pity On the field where brave men fall. When the battle boom is silent And the echoing thunder dies, They haste to the plain red sodden With the blood of sacrifice. The flag that floats above them Is marked with a crimson sign, Pledge of a great compassion And the rifted heart divine. That once for man's redemption Knew earth's completest loss— These to the field of valor Bring love's immortal cross. And so they follow the bugle And heed the drumbeat's call, But their errand is one of pity— They succor the men who fall. —Harper's Bazar.

TOO SURE OF HER MAN.

He Came to Tell Her Important News, but She Beat Him Off. "There's no use of your saying a word!" exclaimed the woman of the house as soon as she had opened the door and glanced at the man standing outside. "I know you." "But, ma'am!" "I recognized you as soon as I saw you. You can't!" "Ma'am!" "You're the man who sold me a washing machine six months ago for $6.50 that wasn't worth shucks. It wouldn't!" "All I wanted to tell you, ma'am, is—" "It wouldn't wash anything. The longer you used it the dirtier the clothes got. You couldn't sell me anything now if you was to pay me for taking it. When a man fools me once, he won't ever have the chance to do it again. I can tell you that. I'll sell that washing machine back to you for 50 cents. It doesn't make any difference what you've got this time. I wouldn't touch it with a ten foot pole, and you can talk until you are gray. It won't do any good." "Madam," yelled the man, who had been dancing about impatiently, "your kitchen roof is blazing where that iron stovepipe runs up through it! That's what I stopped to!" "Good land! Why didn't you say so? What did you want to stand there talking for when the house is burning up? Run over to that grocery store on the corner and turn in an alarm! Fire! Fire!"

HOW INDIANS SWEAR PIOUSLY

It is said that a certain tribe of Indians have a useful divinity which they call a swearing god. It is very small, equally ugly and even more convenient. It generally stands on a pedestal or is nailed to the wall of the living room, and the use of the picturesque language in its presence is accounted not a sin, but a pious duty. Thus if an Indian bruises his finger, or his cayuse steps into a prairie dog's hole and wickedly breaks his leg, he confines himself to general remarks on the weather until he reaches home and sees again the comforting face of the grinning devil. Then he becomes suddenly possessed of the eloquence of a mule driver, and the things that he says would make any ordinary effigy shiver up with horror, but the swearing god is used to it. After all, so called civilized beings are not so far beyond the Indian. When we get angry at a man we burn him in effigy, or hang up a doll whose distorted features convey our impressions of his unworth, and throw stones at it.—New York World.

Negro Development.

Medical researches show that in a general way white children exhibit more diversity in their measurements and the negro more uniformity, this becoming even more marked with age. Thus, the negro children are taller at the same age than the whites, but there are no marked differences up to the age of about 14. The size of the head is somewhat smaller in the negro, teeth are stronger and healthier and more regular, and the cutting period more strongly defined. There is a decided negro ear, which is smaller and has a drooping upper lobe, often with an angle. The negro body is less fat and has relatively more muscular development in both sexes. The arm spread is greater and hands and feet both average longer. The thighs are more prominent in the middle, and the legs are smaller.—New York Tribune.

A Noble Critic.

When Pope was first introduced to Lord Halifax, to read his "Iliad," the noble critic generously criticised this passage and that word at frequent intervals. The poet was stung with vexation, for the parts that most pleased him were the ones most criticised. As he returned home with Sir Samuel Garth, he revealed his displeasure. "Oh," said Garth, "you are not acquainted with his lordship; he must criticise. At the next visit, read him the same passages and tell him you recollected his criticisms." Pope made use of this stratagem. Lord Halifax was delighted and exclaimed, "Pope, they are now inimitable!"

GREAT SHOOTERS OF EUROPE

In Europe, where the question of a game supply does not enter into consideration, killing for sport is recognized as legitimate and sportsmanlike. He is considered to have made a record of honor or who has bagged the largest numbers of birds or other game. Thus we read of one Trauttmansdorff — Prince Carl Trauttmansdorff—who has to his credit for a single day's shooting the slaughter of 862 head of game, with the best bag of pheasants, 303; of partridges, 632; of hares, 416; of rabbits, 638; of roe-buck, 12; of fallow deer, 20, and of blackcock, 14, and a best year's count of 10,833 head of assorted game. Another record smasher is Earl de Gray, whose exploits have been duly tabulated for a series of years, from 1867 to 1895. His pheasants score was 111,119, with 89,401 partridges, 47,468 grouse, 26,747 rabbits, and as many hares, 2,735 snipe, 2,077 woodcock, 1,308 wild duck, 567 deer, 12 buffalo, 11 tigers, a couple of rhinoceroses, and 9,000 assorted, making a total of 316,699 for the entire period, or about 11,000 annually. This is a record which the most industrious market shooter in this country would needs work hard to equal. In very truth the noble sportsman must have been a monomaniac in the field. Yet for all his slaughter the game supply where he shot has not been permanently diminished.—Forest and Stream.

Keep in mind that Scott's Emulsion contains the hypophosphites.

These alone make it of great value for all affections of the nervous system. It also contains glycerine, a most valuable, soothing and healing agent. Then there is the cod-liver oil, acknowledged by all physicians as the best remedy for poor blood and loss in weight. These three great remedial agents blended into a creamy Emulsion, make a remarkable tissue builder.
