The Mother's Prayer.

A mother's holy arm caressed A babe that laughed upon her breast. Then thus to heaven she cried in prayer: "Now, even as his face is fair, O Lord! keep thou his soul within As free from any spot of sin." From heaven the Lord an answer made, "Behold! I grant as thou hast prayed."

Within the door the darkness crept, And babe and mother sweetly slept. The bell rang the midnight bell; The watchman answered, "All is well."

Awaking at the cradle side, The mother knew the babe had died. With grief to set a woman wild She sought and clasped the marble child—

Until her heart against his own Was broken, beating on a stone! "Oh God!" she cried in her despair, "Why hast thou mocked a mother's prayer?"

Then answered He, "As I have willed Thy prayer, O woman, is fulfilled. "If on the earth his soul remain, His soul shall gather many a stain; "At thy behest I reach My hand To lift him to the heavenly land."

The mother heard and bowed her head, And laid her cheek against the dead— And cried, "O God!—I dare not pray— Thou answerest in so strange a way!"

In shadow of a taper's light She sat and moaned the livelong night. But when the morning brough the sun, She prayed, "Thy will, O Lord, be done!"

Trammen Excited. ALLANDALE, Jan. 20.—There is a good deal of excitement among the members of the local lodge of Railway Trammens over a peculiar case that happened at Gravenhurst. It appears that a member of the lodge named Samuel Murray was disabled while engaged as a brakeman, and for several years lay helpless at his home in Gravenhurst.

Physicians. Who have once tried Schiffman's Asthma Cure in their practice invariably recommend it thereafter. It is the greatest boon of the age. Relief instantaneous. Ask any druggist.

To DISPEL COLDS, headaches and fevers, to cleanse the system effectually, yet gently when coative or bilious, or when the blood is impure and sluggish, to permanently cure habitual constipation, to awaken the kidneys and liver to a healthy activity, without irritating or weakening them, use Syrup of Iritig.

Mrs. Skoda's Discovery, the great blood and nerve remedy. Yonkers Statesmen—See that team of horses, how nicely they go together, John. Why can't a man and woman pull together like that?

There is every reason my dear. Those horses have only one tongue between them. "In 1872 I was poisoned by ivy, and hearing of the beneficial effects of the Spa Spring Water of Wilmot in skin troubles, I applied them with the result of perfect cure, although numerous medicines failed."

MANY A YOUNG MAN—When from overwork, possibly assisted by an inherited weakness, the health fails, and rest or medical treatment must be resorted to, then no medicine can be employed with so safe and beneficial results as Scott's Emulsion.

For five years I suffered from severe Chronic Bronchitis, for which the doctors and numerous patent medicines failed to give relief. My physicians and friends advised a change of climate as my only hope. Hawker's Balsam of Tolu and Wild Cherry was recommended to me, and I am happy to say that I was entirely cured before I had used two large bottles. I consider it to be truly a wonderful medicine, and cheerfully recommend it to all afflicted.
