Nothing succeeds like Success. Burdock Blood Bitters is a household remedy for dyspepsia, it expels rheumatism and neuralgia...

Cabinet Reconstruction. A popular topic is cabinet reconstruction, which really does not concern the public so much as the reconstruction and cleaning of the human system...

A Healer of 1829. When grandpa was a wooing, He wore a suit of blue, A pair of running shoes, Embroidered in the breast.

Very Bad Form.—Jack Dresser. "There was an annual ball on Washington Street this afternoon," Mrs. Dresser—"Unusual! Well, I should hope so. Didn't I hear you telling Mr. Potts about having to put on your hat with a shoe horn?"—Indianapolis Journal.

It may be old, but Johnson's Anodyne Liniment retains the vigor of your long may I live.

Uncle Eben went to the college professor—"Have not heard from my boy for some time. Hope he is not sick." "If he has been, I hope to hear he is improving." The professor went to Uncle Eben—"Do not get sick, and not improving."

In this climate use Johnson's Anodyne Liniment for colds, coughs, bronchitis and catarrh.

Young Nevergreen—"I beg pardon, Miss Polly, for leaving so early, for, well, I feel so much at home here, always, Miss Polly—"No apologies are necessary; I'm sure I always wish you to be at home when you are here."—Pittsburg Bulletin.

ESTEV'S Iron Tonic works like magic reaching every part of the human body through the blood, giving to all renewed life and vigor.

Grief or expectation, or mental application to any favorite pursuit, destroys appetite.

PHILOPHEMA is a positive cure for Burns and Scalds. It acts like magic.

Forty-five per cent of the water consumed or drawn for domestic purposes in London is wasted.

For softening, improving, and beautifying the skin, no preparation is so effective as the imported "Royal's" Fragrant Philodroma. Druggists sell it.

At a social gathering, the conversation being on Baslam's gas, Gus de Smith remarked—"I believe that animals can talk; I am sure that, even nowadays, asses talk just like Baslam's ass did." "So I hear said old Judge Paterby."

A Remedy that is endorsed by Physicians must have some merit, for no physician of any standing will place his seal of approval on a preparation unless he knows it to be good. Now ESTEV'S Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil is not only endorsed by Physicians but largely used by them in their practice.

Salisbury's Little Joke.

One of the most persistent jokers on the stage was Charles Salisbury, who died a few years ago. A certain manager hated him with a great hate.

Salisbury learned that there would be a vacancy in one of this manager's companies, and wired to him like this: "Name best salary for me for vacant part."

The manager replied: "Wouldn't have you in my company at any price?"

Salisbury answered, sending the message to be paid at the other end: "Terms accepted; will be on immediately."

Titles Bought and Sold.

The remarriage of the Duchess of Campo Salice, who is indebted for her vast wealth to the fact that she was one of the widows of Mr. Singer of sewing machine fame, will serve to draw attention to the facility with which titles are obtained in Italy.

The duchess bought the title of duke for her second husband from the Vatican for $10,000, while dues amounting to close upon $80,000 have just been paid into the treasury of the Italian government for the acquisition of the titles of duke, prince, marquis, and count by young Sacchetti, who led to the altar the other day the heiress and sole surviving representative of the grand old patrician house of Barberini.

It appears that the purchase of these titles is effected by means of the payment either to the Vatican or to the Italian Government of fees of registration. These amounts in the case of the title of prince to $13,000; in that of duke to $10,000; marquis, $8,000; count, $5,000; viscount or baron, $4,000.

Anybody who has not a record that is downright original can secure the title which he desires on payment of the dues just mentioned.—New York Recorder.
