Troubles Are Forgotten

By Thornton W. Burgess

Too often you will find the strong make might excuse for doing wrong.

—Old Mother Nature.

A lot of people seem to think that might makes right, but it never does. Right is right and wrong is wrong and might has nothing to do with either.

Of all the feathered folk who fly, King Eagle is the mightiest. This does not mean he is the biggest. It means that in some ways he is the strongest and the figure who has his own way.

There was a great flood. Water covered all the Green Meadows. It had brought fright and trouble to many.

"He didn't see us and he didn't see Happy Jack," said Polly Chuck.

"I don't believe that," said Johnny Chuck. "King Eagle has wonderful eyes. There is little he doesn't see."

It was true. King Eagle was much higher in the air than was Plunger, but he was heading in Plunger's direction.

"Do you suppose..." began Polly Chuck and stopped.

"Do you suppose that King Eagle will try to take that fish away from Plunger?" Mrs. Chuck asked.

"I don't believe he can, but I would like to see him try," replied Johnny.

So the two Chucks forgot every thing else as they watched King Eagle and Plunger the Osprey, who was carrying a good sized fish.

Mobilization director Arthur S. Flemming said the new incentive will be in addition to federal tax benefits and long-term federal purchase contracts which now are available to stimulate the expansion of nickel capacity for defence.

The contracts at higher-than-market prices, officials said, will be negotiated with producers in Canada, Cuba, the U.S. and other areas if the premium price is necessary to cover "unusual development costs."

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senator Estes Kefauver of Tennessee withdrew Tuesday as a candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination, and urged his supporters to back Adlai Stevenson.

Push U. S. Nickel Mine Production

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government Tuesday announced it will pay premium prices for nickel where necessary to bring new mines into production in the U.S. and elsewhere.

sumes that twelve are already certain. By bidding for all the tricks, therefore, declarer jeopardizes the sure small slam while trying for the big one.

The small slam bid and made, not vulnerable, is worth roughly 1000 points, counting the game value, the trick score and the slam bonus.

South, was in a fine contract. The two aces North showed in respect to the four notrump bid were just what the doctor ordered.

On the opening diamond lead, declarer discarded a club. After drawing trumps, he played the heart ace and discovered to his dismay that West had a heart trick coming.

Withdrawing a grand slam, the odds of making the contract should be at least two to one in favor of the declarer. Obviously, the quest for thirteen tricks pre-
