

NEW MEMBERS INDUCTED BY S'IDE LIONS

The Summerside Lions Club announced at its regular bi-monthly meeting Wednesday night that it was donating $100 to the blind. Also at the meeting two new members were inducted into the club. Seen participating in the induction ceremony are (left to right): Club President Herb Schurman; new members Wallace Svenson and Fred Mc-

Kenney; Stewart Drummond, chairman of the membership committee; and Reginald McLellan, past deputy district governor who inducted the new members. Unable to attend the ceremony was new member Sheldon Sholtz who was out of the country. The club also announced a substantial profit on the Halloween candy sale.

Two Youths Sentenced To Penitentiary Terms

SUMMERSIDE — A total sentence of five years each in Dorchester Penitentiary was handed out to two youths in Prince County Court yesterday by Magistrate W. Chester S. Macdonald.

Joseph Leslie Chaisson, 17, of Summerside and Robert Melvin DesRoches, 20, of Tignish pleaded guilty to the following charges: break, entry and theft into the home of John MacIntosh, who died the day of the break, and break, entry and theft into the Tignish liquor store.

The two were each given two years for the MacIntosh home break and three years each for the liquor store break, sentences to run concurrently.

Cecil William Kerry of MacIntosh Mills was sentenced to one month in Prince County jail while he pleads guilty to the charge of unlawfully and knowingly supplying liquor to a person under 21 years of age. He had previously pleaded not guilty.

City Camera Club To Meet At Memorial Centre

The Charlottetown Camera Club will hold meetings in Confederation Memorial Centre in the future, it was announced last night. The first is scheduled for Monday evening next.

The club was one of a number of groups that met several years ago to discuss the possibility of having a cultural centre in Charlottetown on the site of the old Market Building. Now members are pleased to be participating in the activities of the new centre.

St. Anthony's Credit Union Reports Year's Assets Up

The 27th annual meeting of St. Anthony's Credit Union was held recently in the parish hall of Bloomfield with the president, Desmond Gallant presiding.

The financial report given by the treasurer, C. J. Gallant showed an increase in assets since the previous meeting among the 237 members.

In reporting for the credit committee, Arthur Pines stated that 12 monthly meetings and two special meetings had been held in the year and had approved 73 loans to the amount of $31,748.

The report of the supervisory committee was given by Pius Arsenault who stated that four complete audits had been made and 80 per cent of the pass books had been verified. It was recommended and approved that three per cent dividend be paid on share capital.

Desmond Gallant and C. J. Gallant were re-elected to the board of directors and Leo Gallant was also elected director, replacing Robert M. Arsenault.

Thomas D. Arsenault was re-elected to the credit committee and Mrs. Thomas Duncan was re-elected to the supervisory committee.

Gregory Kelly, managing director of the Credit Union League was welcomed as guest speaker and brought greetings from others who could not be present.

Mr. Kelley remarked on the progress made by St. Anthony's Credit Union from year to year and said with a little more effort vaster goals could easily be made.

A vote of thanks was extended to Mr. Kelley for his words of encouragement.

CHARLIE WAS THE WORRYING KIND

IT PAYS TO BE CAREFUL FOR

Superlative at his job. A crackerjack, they called him. Until he started worrying about his family health insurance plan. Worrying whether he could afford the doctor and hospital bills that are part and parcel of bringing up a family. The sort of worry that is unnecessary today, with Blue Shield-Blue Cross. Blue Shield-Blue Cross pays doctors' bills and any surgical, maternity and medical bills, including semi-private room in a hospital or a liberal allowance towards a private room. No bother about claim forms or queues. Blue Shield-Blue Cross takes care of the bills.
