

Maurey Willis Accuses National League Office

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Dodger shortstop Maury Willis accused the National League office Sunday of intimidating umpires—of even going so far as to take money away from them to keep them from enforcing the balk rule.

Willis, who was charged with the balk rule because he enforced the rule, "was changed," and "I believe one also was cut a salary for the same reason."

National League President Warren Giles, reached at home in Cincinnati, said: "If Willis has a complaint, he should make it in writing. And he should get his facts straight before making public statements." Giles declined further comment.

Willis, who set a modern mark in league record by stealing 104 bases for Los Angeles in 1963, said non-enforcement of the balk rule will drive base stealers into extinction.

Weatherbe battled in the Charlottesville seventh run in the ninth when he doubled home Carl McQuaid. All nine runs were charged to Weatherbe as he went 5 2/3 innings, allowed 14 hits, struck out six and walked four.

In addition to their home runs, Weatherbe had a double and McQuaid had two singles in the third when five were tallied and the sixth when the other four came in. Charlottesville built a quick 5-0 lead after the first two and one half innings.

Willis said he thinks in a couple of years 40 stolen bases will be obsolete. He said he talks to an umpire on the field throughout a game on the last Dodger trip and he went over everything, and told me the whole story.
