Johnson Seeks Cut In U.S. Budget Total

By DOUGLAS B. CORNELL

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (AP)—President Johnson looked over spending estimates with Defence Secretary Robert McNamara and saw a possibility of holding the next U.S. defence budget below $50,000,000,000. That would vitally increase chances of keeping the entire budget under $100,000,000,000 for the second year in a row.

McNamara and Deputy Defence Secretary Cyrus Vance talked budget with Johnson Monday and Tuesday.

Then there was a follow-up conference with State Secretary Dean Rusk and Presidential Assistant McGeorge Bundy, a key adviser on national security matters.

McNamara told reporters the later session ranged over international issues and foreign political matters, including South Viet Nam.

The defence secretary said things look a little more favorable in Viet Nam. He said there are "no plans to send further combat divisions" there, but it will be "many years in the future" before the goal of freedom and independence is assured for that Far Eastern nation.

He said the budget contemplates keeping manned bombers flying as far as can be seen into the future. Furthermore, he said, research and development will be continued for a possible manned bomber to succeed the present B-52s and B-58s at some future time.

A defence budget just below $50,000,000,000 for the 1966 fiscal year starting next July 1 would be at about the level of spending in the present 1965 bookkeeping year. McNamara said the 1965 defence outlay now is calculated at $49,800,000,000. This is down from $49,900,000,000 estimated in an Oct. 26 budget revision.

STORE KEEPER TO TRY BUFFALO

SOUTHBORO, Mass. (AP)—Arthur F. St. Maurice, a country store proprietor, now is a Buffalo rancher.

He has been selling buffalo meat and assorted wild game since 1929 and decided it was time to raise his own buffalo, so he bought three buffalo cows and two bulls from a government wildlife refuge.

"I think people will go for buffalo burgers," he said.

St. Maurice said he will try to bring the nostalgia of the old west to one side of his farm and still maintain the old New England atmosphere of his country store on the other.

CONTRACT BRIDGE

By B. JAY BECKER

TEST YOUR PLAY

1. You are declarer with the West hand at Three Notrump. North leads the five of spades, South playing the king. How would you play the hand?

	♠ AQ10 ♥ 83 ♦ KJ62 ♣ AJ105
♠ 63 ♥ KQJ74 ♦ Q754 ♣ KQ	N W E S	♠ QJ743 ♥ A5 ♦ AK7 ♣ AQ2
		♠ A952 ♥ K6 ♦ Q932 ♣ K84

1. Win the spade with the ace, play a club to the queen, a d lead a low diamond. If Souta has the ace and goes up with it, you are sure of nine tricks, so let's assume that South follows low. When you play the jack, you may or may not win the trick, but either way you are sure of the contract.

If North has the ace of diamonds and takes it, there is no return he can make to prevent you from winning at least ten tricks. If North does not take the jack of diamonds, for whatever reason you lead a heart to the jack. Whether or not this is taken, you are sure of at least nine tricks.

The key play is the club to dummy at trick two, followed by a low diamond. If you were to lead a heart or a diamond at trick two, it would be possible to go down If South took the ace and if the suit you chose to lead broke unfavorably. A spade return from South would place the contract in jeopardy.

2 It is quite clear that the only real danger in the hand is that one opponent has all the missing trumps. All thoughts therefore should be concentrated on guarding against this one possibility.

The problem is to find a method of play that will guard against four trumps in either opponent's hand. There is only one way of guarding against both possibilities at the same time, and that is by starting the spade suit with a low one from dummy. This guarantees the loss of at most one trump trick, regardless of how the suit is divided.

If you started the suit by first leading the queen, you would go down if it turned out that South had the K-10-8-6, while if you started the suit by first leading the ace, you would go down if it developed that North had the four missing trumps. The safety play of the deuce assures the contract.

Five Firms Form Syndicate To Finance Nfld. Project

ST. JOHN'S, Nfl. (CP)—A syndicate of four Canadian companies and a United States firm has been formed to raise $38,000,000 for the initial phase of the Bay d'Espoir power development, Premier J. R. Smallwood said here.

Mr. Smallwood said the financing by a bond issue would be carried out in the United States because of the lower borrowing rates. He said the organizations accepted his invitation to raise the money and that the negotiations were handled for the Newfoundland government by George Hobbs, chairman of the Newfoundland power commission.

The syndicate is made up of Cornell McGillivray Limited, Parsons and Landrigan Limited and Royal Securities, all of St. John's, Gairdner and Company of Toronto and Merrill, Lynch, Pierce, Fenner and Smith of New York.

The New York firm and the Toronto firm jointly handled the recent $10,000,000 bond issue by the Newfoundland government, Mr. Smallwood said.

He said the decision to raise the money now will result in a start on the project in the near future. The Atlantic Development Board has earmarked about $20,000,000 for the big project which will produce 300,000 horsepower in the initial phase and ultimately will produce more than 500,000 horsepower.

The price under current plans for the project has been set at about $60,000,000 but further developments on the same waterfall may swell the cost to more than $200,000,000, Mr Smallwood said.

Among the more than 2,000 name changes in China during the last 15 years, is the town of Pailingmiao, now called Taerhhanmaominganlienhochi.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:

A X Y D L B A A X R
is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophies, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.
