LUNCH PAIL

LOCAL BRIEFS

WORTHY FUNERAL - The funeral for William E. Worby was held Friday, June 1, from the MacLean Funeral Home, where service was conducted by Rev. John Ball. Pallbearers were Lloyd Weeks, Gordon MacKay, Arthur Coffin, Ernest Cameron, Weston Smith and Preston MacLaine. Interment took place in the Peoples cemetery.

PREMIERS TAKE PART - A recent campaign development has been the emergence of Conservative premiers Roberts of Ontario and Roblin of Manitoba with public declarations of support for Prime Minister Diefenbaker. This followed the vigorous support given Mr. Pearson by Liberal premiers Smallwood of Newfoundland and Robb of New Brunswick. Liberal Premier Lesage of Quebec has remained on the sidelines - he rejects premiers to enter federal campaigns.

Legion Home Construction Is Planned For Sept. Start

The construction of the new Legion home for the members of the Charlottetown Branch of the Royal Canadian Legion is expected to get underway Sept. 1. President Edward Brown reported at the regular monthly meeting of the branch Thursday night. The new home will be erected on Pownall Street between Richmond and Grafton streets.

Mr. Brown also reported that Legion Wood would be donated for the erection of a fence at Memorial Field had been used and the fence was now up. He outlined plans for baseball during the summer and stated that four teams were now entered in the City Baseball League. He noted that a donation from the branch would be given for financing baseball in the city.

BETTER TAX DEAL - Mr. Pearson's main offer is that a Liberal government would work to cut unemployment to not more than two per cent of the labor force. Last year it averaged a record 7.3 per cent. A better tax deal for all.

CASH CONTEST ERRORS FOUND - It has been discovered that some of the clues in the Cash Crossword Contest, as published yesterday in The Evening Patriot, were in error. They will be published in today's Patriot in their corrected form.

HUGE SPIDERS - Largest known spider species, the theoprobe blondi of the Guianas in South America reaches 13 inches body length.
