"Great growing - weather!" a visiting farmer today commented. "Yes," James agreed, "it couldn't be better. Unless" he amended "it could be a little warmer. But, as it is, with shower and sun" he smiled, "things will grow."

Up the creek whence comes our west wind, and along the stream up the valley to the north, wildings of trees now bloom: the pear in ragged flowers, the cherry blossoms so fragrant and neat.

St. Mark's WA Reports Sale Successful

A suggestion that the Diocesan WA of the Anglican Church hold its annual meeting in one day instead of two, was presented to the members of St. Mark's WA, Kensington, at the June meeting for consideration.

It was also reported that a satisfactory amount had been realized from the sale of Pakistani embroidery. An other shipment of embroidery is expected by the Diocesan WA. It was announced that the semi-annual meeting will be held in Alberton on October 6 at 11 a.m.

The meeting was held recently at the home of Mrs. Nelson Paynter. The president, Mrs. Elmer Moase, presided, and the devotions were led by Mrs. Walter Moase. A brief report on the JA Festival held recently in Kensington, was heard.

Mrs. H. L. Howard, refugee secretary, reported having sent money to Valija Sovers, St. Mark's adoptee in Germany.

A letter regarding a vocational conference and a GA conference for girls over fourteen, was discussed. Mrs. D. L. McInnis was appointed to contact girls who might wish to attend these conferences which will be held near Halifax. Money was voted to help with transportation expenses.

Mrs. Elmer Moase invited the members for next meeting, text word "remember". The study based on the mission capsule, "Building Families in Antigua", was conducted by Mrs. E. H. Profit.

The president read verses from "The Housewife's Prayer" and closed the meeting with the benediction.

IDA BAILEY ALLEN Tingling Fresh Lemons In Bavarian Cream Pie

SUNSHINY lemons brighten the most listless dish. Soup, hot or cold, takes on taste sparkle when dashed with fresh lemon juice. The colorful lemon quarter serves to flavor fish or meat dishes, and doubles as an attractive garnish.

ZESTY PUNCTUATION Fresh lemon juice is the zesty punctuation of both raw and cooked vegetable salads.

That every good cook has in her dessert repertoire. Measurements level; recipes for 6

RECIPES OF THE WEEK FRESH LEMON BAVARIAN PIE 1 env. unflavored gelatin 1 c. cold water 4 eggs, separated 1 c. sugar 1/2 c. fresh lemon juice 1/2 tsp. salt 1 tsp. fine-grated lemon rind 1 c. heavy cream 1 (9") baked pie - pastry shell, homemade or frozen 6 candied lemon slices (purchased)

Soften gelatin in cold water and set aside. Beat egg yolks until thick and lemon-colored. Gradually beat in 1/2 c. of sugar, lemon juice and salt. Cook - stir over hot water or very low heat about 10 min. or until mixture coats metal spoon. Remove from heat and stir in gelatin, stirring until dissolved. Mix in lemon rind. Refrigerate until beginning to thicken.

Beat egg whites until they stand in soft peaks. Gradually beat in remaining sugar. Fold into gelatin mixture. Whip heavy cream until stiff. Fold 1-3 c. into gelatin mixture. Turn into baked pie shell. Refrigerate until firm, about 4 hrs.

Just before serving, stir 1/2 tsp. sugar with remaining whipped cream and spread lightly over pie. Decor: the candied lemon slices, overlapping in center. Serves 6 to 8.
