

CWL Early Years Recalled At Silver Jubilee Banquet

Members of St. James Summerville Parish Council of the Catholic Women's League celebrated the 25th anniversary of their organization recently. At 6:30 that evening over 60 members and guests attended Mass and a dinner at the Holy Trinity Hotel. The report of the first annual meeting was read by M. S. James Lawless. One minute of silence was observed in memory of departed members. A framed C.W.L. scroll painted by the members was unveiled by Rev. Basil Croken who also proposed a toast to the League. Mrs. Leslie Talano responded. Mrs. John Hagen spoke words of appreciation for her late speaker and to all who had made the occasion "such a noteworthy event."

A vote of thanks to the planners was proposed by Mrs. B. S. Croken, president of C.W.L., giving the response. The program featured Mrs. Raymond Smith as the pianist.

The head table was decorated with blue and gold tapers in silver holders and centered with a three-tiered anniversary cake. At the banquet guests were seated in the order: Rev. Basil Croken, spiritual director, Rev. Harold Croken, Kinkora, delivered a sermon on the role of C.W.L. members in the Lay Apostolate. Rev. John Cash, Grand River, was seated in the sanctuary.

Following Mass, a banquet was held in Kinkora Region High School prepared by the women of Kinkora Parish Council.

MR. AND MRS. DAVID WILTON

Groom's Father Officiates At First Baptist Church

The First Baptist Church at Charlottetown was the scene of the August 22 marriage of Naomi Grace, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. Wilton of Charlottetown, and David Bruce, son of Rev. and Mrs. Leslie E. Wilton of the same town. The double ring ceremony was solemnized by the father of the groom.

Traditional wedding music was rendered by Florence Simmons who accompanied Rev. Ralph Wilton as he sang the "Wedding Prayer" before the ceremony and "Whither Thou Goest" during the signing of the register. The church was decorated with baskets of seasonal flowers in shades of pink and white.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a long-length gown of white silk organza over tulle. The bodice featured lace appliques, trim and with iridescent sequins which extended down the front panel. Her headpiece was a cluster leaf - circlet attached to a bouffant illusion veil. She carried a cascade bouquet of pink roses and white carnations entwined with English ivy.

Daphne Taylor, Charlotte, was maid-of-honor. The junior bridesmaid was Nancy Proud and Nadell MacFadyen, cousins of the bride.

The maid-of-honor and bridesmaids were gowned alike in floor-length dresses of green - sole the former wearing pink and the latter mint green. Their headpieces were matching detailed pill box hats attached to veils and they carried semi - cascades of feathered pink and white carnations.

The groom was attended by his brother, Paul Wilton from Edmonton, Alta. The ushers were John H. Beers, Wolfville, N.S., and Stephen Willis, brother of the bride.

Mrs. Willis chose for her daughter's wedding a two-piece broad-cast dress in moss green; she wore beige accessories and corsage of Talisman roses.

Mrs. Wilton chose for the occasion a gown of white silk organza with black accouterments, and corsage of pink roses.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at Shore Acres Motel. Rev. Wilton, brother of the groom, was master of ceremonies. John Beers proposed the toast to the bride to which the groom fittingly responded. Telegrams were read by Paul Wilton.

For a honeymoon to Ontario the bride chose a case encompassing pink rose buds and white carnations. She wore a pink velvet and maribou hat with black patent accessories.

Out-of-province guests included Rev. and Mrs. Leslie Wilton, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Beers, Mrs. Samuel Willis and Elaine, Mrs. and Mrs. Eric MacFadyen and Nadell (Ontario); Mrs. Howard Heath (Manitoba) and Paul Wilton (Alberta).

Mr. and Mrs. Wilton are residing in Wolfville, N.S. where Mr. Wilton completes his final year for a Bachelor of Divinity degree and Mrs. Wilton studied for a Bachelor of Education degree.

ELLEN'S DIARY

Folks Save Best Smiles For Friends, Not Family

"A nice morning - this" is an exaggeration, there is nevertheless a measure of truth in it. As a rule, we humans do like to put our "best side to London", and are sometimes a bit thoughtless of those within the home circle.

"But it's not good harvest weather", the air keeps dampish." "Yes" "What we need is a warm sun and a nice drying wind."

Wife's Higher Pay-Scale Routs Hubby's Assurance

DEAR MARY HAWORTH My wife and I are both 25, and have been married two years, and I am a childless (and can't be) children.

We work for the same company in the same department. My wife's salary is higher than mine, and I am the one who is responsible for the household expenses.

I am often asked how we manage, and I always reply that we are very happy. My wife's higher salary has allowed us to enjoy a better standard of living, and we have no financial worries.
