A SOUND DOCTRINE.—I believe that most people like to do business in a businesslike way, and like to be talked to in a businesslike way in advertisements. I believe that a man who issues an advertisement of a desirable thing, is doing a favor to the man to whom he presents it. A man, who is trying to sell a really good thing—something that will be useful to buyers—need not take the position of supplicant, he need not ask attention as a favor—he may demand it as a right and he will get it.

Charles Austin Bates.

Address, or call at the Examiner Office.

THE OPERA HOUSE.—Laughter was king at the Opera House last evening, the large audience appreciating to the full the entertainment provided by the capable company supporting Bob Cole and Billy Johnson in "A trip to Coontown.', Messrs Cole and Johnson were very amusing in the roles of the tramp and bunco steerer respectively, and the former was also very funny as the Prince of Dahomey. During the action of the piece a great number of mirth-provoking songs and dances were introduced, besides a good contortion act by the Freeman sisters and some realy clever balancing by Jim Wilson. The singing of Mr. Gibbs was another excellent feature of a performance that was enjoyable throughout. Vinnicombe's orchestra was present and discoursed charming music. The company give their closing entertainment to-night and there will probably be another large audience.

If Our Friends

Will kindly give our quarterly accounts, just rendered, their early attention, they will greatly oblige.

BLACK

How many people wear black! On the street—on the cars—everywhere—the number is surprising. Some wear it through choice, the majority though, in the case of ladies, owing to the death of relatives.

When true, when pure, black is an admirable color, there's a genteel, a dignified elegance about it which arrests attention and commands respect.

In home-dyeing no color has been or is in as great demand, but not till the advent of the now justly celebrated was it possible for the housewife to procure a black dye that would impart to an article or garment that fascinating "something" that ideal freshness and beauty, peculiar to quality and truth in color.

MAYPOLE SOAP

Maypole Soap Dyes (in all colors) are made in England by practical dyers. They are of highest possible quality. They cleanse and dye at one operation all materials without "streaking" or "crocking." They are a revelation. May be used by anyone without previous experience with certainty of success. No rubbing necessary —simply dip the goods.

Sold by all Druggists and Dealers everywhere

During the last three weeks I have had several dresses as well as other things to dye. I have tried the BLACK of your Maypole Soap, and I must say that the result was beyond my expectation, it is simply beautiful. I have used a good many dyes of other makes, but with none have I attained the same results as with "Maypole." I am highly pleased and will recommend it.
