

CLIPS FROM CUP

Wiggle Your Way to Marks

(ZNS-CUP) - You may be able to wiggle your way to good grades.

Lawrence Morehouse, a University of California physiologist, says he has spent 40 years observing students who squirm during exams, and he says they earn better grades than their more placid peers.

Morehouse says that toe-tapping, jigging, wriggling and weightshifting supply fuel to the brain by increasing blood circulation. He suggests that this keeps students alert during the last lap of an exam or in a tedious lecture.

Says Morehouse, "Students who just sit have a tendency to do badly, even stupidly, on the final few exam questions."

Morehouse hopes his observations won't incite a rash of ambitious writhing in examination rooms, however,

He says that a mere tap of the toe - instead of large-scale fidgeting - should do the trick.

Papers and T-shirts are Dumped

(HS-CUP)

A formal student-faculty grievance committee hearing has been requested for the student body vice-president who "trashed" 3,000 copies of the school paper which featured photos of women in wet T-shirts.

Student vice-president

Karen Bjerneby reportedly admitted to throwing away the newspapers as a symbolic protest over a feature she says was degrading to women.

The article described a bi-weekly ritual at a local saloon where young women soak their T-shirt clad torsos in cold water and appear before an audience for applause. The feature included pictures of three women in wet suits.

New University editor, Richard Clucas, meanwhile, is suing Bjerneby claiming that the newspaper lost 600 dollars in advertising revenues because of the dispute.

The hearing is expected to take place in March.

Coach Kealey Sues Paper

OTTAWA (CUP)

The coach of Carleton University's football team has filed a 300,000 dollar libel suit against Carleton's students' association and the campus newspaper The Charlatan.

Brian Kealey says he wants to clear his name, because a Dec. 7 story in The Charlatan quoted several of the team's players questioning his competence as coach.

The players told The Charlatan they publicly criticized Kealey because they wanted to improve the situation. In the Dec. 7 story Kealey was quoted as saying the controversy would probably have a detrimental effect on next year's team.

Despite the size of the libel suit, the coach says money is not his main objective in suing the association and newspaper.

HOW MUCH IS A SMILE WORTH?

For our visitors a warm welcome can be just as important as fantastic scenery or exciting cities. And that's where you come in - with a smile and attitude that says loud and clear: "I'd like to help make your stay a pleasant one."

Making visitors feel welcome is vital to the continued growth of tourism in Canada.

Like thousands of students across Canada, you may depend on seasonal employment in Canada's tourist industry to help pay for education and living costs.

And it's obvious that this source of income relates directly to the number of tourists who travel and vacation in Canada i.e. more tourists... more jobs!

Each welcoming smile and handshake fosters national unity and international goodwill and helps protect a source of income for almost a million Canadians... and that could mean you!

It's worth keeping in mind the next time a visitor asks you for directions or help - because tourism is important to all of us.

Canadian Government
Office of Tourism

Office de tourisme
du Canada

Canada

So much to go for.

AWAITING

Salty
Windswept.
Cold
Infinite
Murmuring voices

Alone
Seagulls calling
From afar
Waves rushing in upon me

Memories of soft and silent times

Time Titillating
Tempestuously

LISA M. ST. PIERRE
& DAWN WALSH