Giant's Batting Star Suffers Average Drop

By BEN ALAN — The Memorial Day week-end was far from a memorable one for Willie Mays and the San Francisco Giants star has dropped to fourth place in the national League batting competition. Mays' decline virtually was overlooked in the excitement of Sunday's 14-6 home double-header against the New York Mets. He managed only one hit in 10 tries during the 23-inning second game after a one-for-three performance in the opener.

are infielder Ron Santo, batting lead, halbo, and infielder Joe Amalfitano (17). The figures include Sunday's games.

As a result, Mays' average dropped to .34, putting him behind Milwaukee's Joe Torre and Pittsburgh's Roberto Clemente as well as the batting leader, Billy Williams of Chicago Cubs. Mays' overall performance last week was six hits in 27 times at bat, a .222 pace. Although he lost 29 points and fell two places in the standings.

Harmion Klubeck of Minnesota took over sole possession of the home run lead. He had two last week, lifting his total to 14. Cleveland's Leon Wagner remained the top man in runs batted in with 39. He had seven RBI.

The Charlottetown city softball league held a meeting last night at the Charlottetown branch of the Main Brace. League President, Charlie MacKenzie was in the chair and all the respective teams were represented.

Johnny's Kingfishers formerly of the Charlottetown Commercial loop were represented at the meeting. The team manager, Billy Gallant and Bill announced that he had withdrawn his team from the commercial loop and had entered into the Charlottetown City League. The league representative, Alfred Morrison, and Mr. Gallant's team will be entered in competition for the City League championship this year, as well as being entered in Maritime Intermediate "C".

The big question mark at the meeting was whether Barry's Lions would be able to attract enough players to participate. Mr. Moore decided he would call a practice Wednesday night to see if he could field a team for this year's season. The Park team, the Shamrocks, Main Brace and the Kingfishers will definitely be in operation. The Lions will get underway Monday, June 15, providing the playing field ready for play. League games will be played on Monday, Tuesday and Thursday nights with game time set for 6:30 p.m. There will be games played on Saturdays and games will be 1:30 p.m.

The teams will have until two weeks after the opening game for final player registration. The annual meeting of the league executive will also be held on this date at the Main Brace.

Baseball Practice Is Called

Coach Brian has called a practice to attend the workout. The Charlottetown and Area baseball league is to be held on Wednesday, June 3, at 7:00 p.m. Wednesday night.

The following players are asked to attend the workout: Wayne MacDougall, Bill Westrich, Joe Gallant, Rick Leach, and Goss, John Kane, Cyril MacDonald, Tex Macdonald, Bill Jackson, Don McWaters, Mike Brown, Thane Macdonald, Louis Smith and Don Campbell.
