

New On The Shelf... and about fifty more as of Oct 11th

Compiled by MJ Doucette
Contributor

Fiona Apple Extraordinary Machine (New version)

Franz Ferdinand You Could Have It So Much Better... With Franz Ferdinand

The Constantines Tournament Of Hearts

My Morning Jacket Z

Broken Social Scene Broken Social Scene

Metric Live It Out

Explosions In The Sky How Strange Innocence

Paul Weller As Is Now

The Clientele Strange Geometry

Liz Phair Somebody's Miracle

The Joys of Prose: Readings from Famous Novelists by Professor Emeritus John Smith

Confederation Centre Public Library—Fall, 2005—Sundays at 2:00 pm. Reader: John Smith.

The plan, in these readings, is to sample the styles of a variety of well-known novelists, ranging from the early seventeenth century to the early twentieth. The works to be read will be presented approximately in chronological order, and will therefore prompt some reflection on the development of the novel as a literary genre and as a social phenomenon, but the primary objective throughout will be to promote the enjoyment of the writing itself. Each session will concentrate on two or three major authors, but may touch, for various reasons, upon contemporaneous or otherwise related works. With a few exceptions, the readings will confine themselves to the English tradition. The schedule of dates and authors is subject to minor modifications, and is as follows:

October 16: Jane Austen and Sir Walter Scott.

October 30: Charles Dickens, William Makepeace Thackeray, and Anthony Trollope.

November 6: Emily Brontë, George Eliot, and Thomas Hardy

November 20: Robert Louis Stevenson, Oscar Wilde, Joseph Conrad, and Sir Arthur Conan Doyle.

December 4: Marcel Proust and James Joyce.

Ross Leckie: Poet, Editor, Mentor to Read Oct. 11

Ross Leckie, Director of Creative Writing and a professor at the University of New Brunswick in Fredericton, will read from his own poetry on Tuesday, October 11, at 7:30 in the Confederation Centre Library in Charlottetown.

Ross Leckie is also editor of The Fiddlehead, one of Canada's oldest and most distinguished literary magazines, poetry editor of Goose Lane Editions, and co-editor of Coastlines: The Poetry of Atlantic Canada. His poetry books include A Slow Light and The Authority of Roses. At UNB, he has mentored a remarkable number of Canada's exciting, new poets, including PEI's own David Hickey, who completed his MA creative writing thesis with Dr. Leckie and will soon publish his first book. Everyone interested in poetry, the Creative Writing program at UNB, or simply in hearing and meeting a fine writer, master teacher, and lovely spirit is encouraged to attend. The reading is sponsored by the UPEI English Department, with gracious support from The League of Canadian Poets, The Canada Council for the Arts, and the Confederation Centre Library. For further information phone 566-0389.

The Trews Interview Cont. from page 10

hanging out with people who wont let you get a big head.

Q. What's your favourite part of being a touring musician?

A. Doing the shows, it's a rush, its fun, without them we'd be nothing.

At this point in the interview, we were joined by Colin Macdonald, guitarist and vocals for the Trews who wanted to end this article with a quote:

"If any idiot throws beer at this show, there is going to be a fucking bloodbath, and it's not going to be our blood. I will kick the shit out of anyone who pulls that. If you see anyone throw beer, kick him in the balls and then hold him down till I get to him. Let it be known that the Trews don't stand for that shit and that if anyone throws beer, there will be no mercy. We will dive into the crowd and we will find you."

Lovin' Lovenasium Cont. from page 10

Word Association: Lots of time on the road can get even the most unlikely people to think alike. This exercise was to see just how close the band member's thought patterns had become because of their time together... and I thought it might be fun to get inside their their heads...

Word	Band Member	Thought...
Music	Mike Benson	Drums "I've still got 'vagina' in my head!"
Fame	Josh Benson Mike	Fortune Popular ?
Sex	Josh Benson Mike	Funk Fun SNA
Woman	Josh Benson Mike	Boobies Man Sex
Romance	Josh Benson Mike	Novel Boobies Dinner
Man	Josh Benson Mike	Woman Cheeze -Doodle Prince Albert
Drugs	Josh Benson Mike	Baaaaaad! Gimme! Yes!
Wit	Josh Benson Mike	"Apparently nothing" _____ney Houston tongue in cheek
Pleasure	Josh Benson Mike	Palace "Same" Orgasm