Notes and Comments

Governor Flower, of New York, thinks Mr. Cleveland will get a nomination for another term of the Presidency if he wants it.

The Boston News is responsible for the statement that President Cleveland has dropped fifty thousand dollars by an investment in a Maine pulp mill.

The Gazette reminds delegates to the Liberal Convention at Ottawa that they must not blow out the gas in the hotels at night, and that they cannot light their convention cigars at the electric light lamps.

The New York World says: "In one of his state papers Benjamin Harrison took occasion to denounce the frequent lynching of colored men in the Southern States." Perhaps the ex-President will now inform the country what he thinks of the frequent lynching of white men in the Northern States of Indiana, Michigan and Kansas.

In Madrid the press is opposed to a suggested session of the Canary Islands to Great Britain in return for Gibraltar, the belief being that England will yet give the great fortress back for an indemnity representing the amount spent on its defensive works. Building castles in Spain is a thing people of all climes are prone to fall into, but this idea of the Madrid press indicates that it is an art in which the dreamy Spaniards excel all their rivals.

The Montreal Star, which reports the meeting of the great convention in that city quite fully, says there were present a dozen press men. This is not a very alarming gathering in a city of two hundred and fifty thousand people, and entitled to send probably five members to the next parliament. Evidently liberalism of the Laurier-Mercier Cartwright kind is at as low an ebb in the commercial metropolis of the Dominion as anywhere else.

The Empire points out that supporters of Mr. McCarthy, Mr. Laurier and Count Mercier continue to deal with combines of the American monopoly type which they claim to exist in Canada. The only one known of is the Whitney coal deal engineered by the Grit Government of Nova Scotia. Its results have lately been summed up as follows:

- 1. Increased price of coal to the coal consumers.
2. Decreased prices to the coal carrier.
3. More oppressive conditions to the miners.
4. Loss of market to the farmers and local dealers.
5. Increased taxation to the ratepayers of Cape Breton to make good the municipal taxation which the monopoly refuses to pay.

L'Electeur is author of a report that at the coming Liberal convention the announcement will be made that Sir Oliver Mowat, Mr. Fielding, Premier of Nova Scotia, and Mr. Blair, Premier of New Brunswick, will before the next election retire from their present positions and enter the field of federal politics with the intention of overthrowing the Dominion Government. The Montreal Gazette says it will be a matter of surprise to the country if L'Electeur's prediction is fulfilled. It will be a greater matter of surprise, if it is fulfilled, if the Liberals do not get a worse thrashing than they did in 1891. Mr. Fielding is the man who ran a provincial campaign in Nova Scotia on a secession platform. A Dominion political party that makes a Confederation smasher one of its chiefs is on the way to get more smashing than its looks for.

The Montreal correspondent of the Empire says that in connection with the illness of the venerable Bishop Bond, it is gratifying to see the Romans of Christian sympathy which the Roman Catholics of that city have publicly offered to their Protestant fellow citizens. In St. Patrick's Roman Catholic church, where the congregation is largely of Irish descent, prayers have been offered up for the bishop. La Monde, a French-Canadian organ, in a sympathetic reference, recalls an interesting historical event which many persons may never have heard of. When Bishop Mountain, whose great name and life we need not comment upon, first arrived in Quebec, Mgr. Briand went on board the ship that brought him, kissed him on both cheeks, wished him welcome, and declared himself happy to know that thereforward the Protestant people of the city would be without their spiritual adviser. Nor has that noble spirit decreased since on either side.

Are our druggists such a bad set of citizens as the public would be led to believe by such anonymous letters as "Citizen" writes in the Guardian? When a "Citizen" undertakes to use such words as "fraudulently palming off as genuine," "reprehensible practices," "exorbitant prices," "tampering with human life for the sake of gain," etc., against such respected citizens as Messrs. Dodd, Hughes, Rankin, Watson, Reddin, Johnson and Davies, he should, to carry weight and show his sincerity, append his name to his literary productions. Our opinion of our druggists is not in accord with "Citizen's." We would regret the various agitations of late affecting the druggists did we not believe them to be honorable members of an honorable calling, and did we not know that the sympathy of the public generally in their favor is being strengthened by such newspaper publications as the one we are now commenting upon. It is all very well—it is right—for citizens to be anxious that druggists sell pure liquors. As a matter of fact, the public expect to get pure liquors at the drug stores, if they get them anywhere. But "Citizen" should be careful not to allow his extreme views upon the alcohol question to lead him into "calling names behind the fence"—any person can do that.

Nihilist Papers Found.

Paris advices state that the nihilist Saweki, alias Licturski, who killed himself some time ago, left a bundle marked "to be destroyed." Both the Russian consular-general and the nihilist's family claimed the papers, and the officers who seized them were allowed to keep them only under protest while the courts were hearing the complaints. The consular-general based his claim to the papers on the ground that they undoubtedly contained valuable information of nihilist plots and organizations in Russia. The family wished merely to destroy the papers as Saweki had directed. The court of appeal have decided that the papers must go to the consular-general.

In the Sixty Million Land.

THE CARNEGIE LAND AND IRON COMPANY ASSIION—OTHER FAILURES.

JOHNSTON CITY, Tenn., June 5.—Yesterday the Carnegie Land Company assigned with liabilities of $125,000 and assets estimated at $600,000. General J. T. Miller president, has just returned from the east, where he has been unsuccessfully attempting to float bonds to the amount of $100,000. The parties who promised to take them were unable to do so on account of the financial stringency. It is expected by the stockholders that the matter will be straightened out by October.

SANDUSKY, O., June 5.—The Sandusky Savings Bank has failed. The available assets aggregate $300,000 and the liabilities $205,000.

CHICAGO, June 5.—Meadowcroft Bros. & Co., private bankers, failed to-day, with liabilities estimated at $250,000 and assets $160,000.

NEW YORK, June 5.—Morris Schwaier, carrying on business under the name of Edward Simon & Bros., trunk, valise and bag manufacturers, Newark, N. J., and 67 Broadway, to-day allowed judgment to be entered against him for $22,511 for merchandise and money lent. An attorney for a number of creditors said the liabilities were $250,000 and the assets $200,000. The failure is said to be caused by poor collection and a tight money market.

NEW YORK, June 5.—The failure of the Fort Ann Woolen Company of Fort Ann was announced this morning. The property of the company was attacked and the mills shut down by the sheriff, owing to inability to realize on the goods in New York. The general stringency of the money market is given as the cause.

Personal.

Rev. J. A. Gordon returned last evening from St. John. Messrs. Walter H. MacMahon and Albert C. McMahon arrived home from Chicago last night.

Lewis Carvell, Esq., and his son, L. T. Carvell, of Boston, arrived here last evening. We are pleased to learn that Frederick J. Macleod, M. A., has been elected President of the Harvard Canadian club. Mr. Macleod is a son of Hector Macleod, Esq. Royalty.

George McKinnon, Esq., of the firm of Wm. Tait & Co. merchants, Edinburgh, and Rev. Clarence McKinnon, from River Hebert, N. S., sons of the late Rev. John McKinnon, for many years pastor of the Presbyterian Church in Georgetown, are visiting friends here in the city on their way to the World's Fair. They are accompanied by W. G. Anderson, Esq., of the publishing firm of Oliphant, Anderson & Ferrier, of Edinburgh.

Speaking of the Gilbert English Opera Company, which is to appear in St. John next week, the Telegraph says: Miss Cur. E. Trevelyan-Carvell, the prima donna, is said to possess a wonderful voice. Miss Carvell is a daughter of Lewis Carvell, formerly superintendent of the Intercolonial railway and now of the firm of Carvell Brothers, commission merchants of Charlottetown, P. E. I. She now resides in Boston, where she has been studying music for the past three years. Rev. J. A. Gordon, to whom the Main Street Baptist Church extended a unanimous call, met the pulp supply and financial committee of the church last night. The congregation promise to do all that Mr. Gordon could possibly expect of them, and he will give them his answer by Sunday. Mr. Gordon told a Sun reporter last night that it would be hard for him to sever his connection with the Charlottetown church, where he had been permitted to do so much good.—St. John Sun.

BAND MUSIC.—Several of the more enterprising of our merchants have arranged with Mr. Gairdner to give a band and concert in Queen Square Garden on one of the evenings during the shopping excursion next week. The idea is a good one.

It is announced that the St. Joseph's College, Memramook, band, under the leadership of Rev. S. J. Azeemah, are coming to the island in a few days on a short holiday trip. They will arrive here on the evening of the 22nd inst., and go direct to Charlottetown, returning to Summerside next day, and going the following morning to Egmont Bay, where they will remain over Sunday, returning to the mainland on Monday.—Agriculturist.

THE WORD-STER.—The steamer Worcester, Captain Baker, arrived at this port from Boston at an early hour this morning, bringing a very large cargo, including about 1,400 bushels of flour. She had as passengers: J. A. Drown, Mrs. Kemp and friend, Miss McLeod, Miss Fraser, Miss Laura Myers, Miss Pease, Miss George McNeill, Harry Jennings, A. D. McDonald, Mrs. Frank Turnbull, Mrs. E. Ashely, Miss Buchanan, Miss McDowell, Miss McCaulley, R. D. Stewart, Austin McInnis, Mr. Dingwell.

BILLIARDS.—The international billiard match between Frank Ives and John Roberts, which began in London early last week, closed on Saturday evening. In the opening runs Ives had a slight advantage. Then he ran 80. Roberts followed with 30 and then 103. After having made another short run of 46, Ives got the balls jammed and ran 852. This carried his score up to 5,997. Roberts made two points in four runs, and then Ives ran out. Roberts' final score was 3,831.

WEATHER IN WINNIPEG.—The thermometer registered 82 degrees in the shade at St. John's college yesterday afternoon. The ravages of the mosquitoes last night before the shower left a record that has never been beaten on the persons of many citizens.—Free Press, June 1.

TWO FATAL ACCIDENTS

KILLED BY AN ELEVATOR.

A Longshoreman Drowned.

MONTREAL, June 5. Fatalities still continue with startling frequency. Yesterday Patrick Fitzpatrick, aged 35, residing at Point St. Charles, while in charge of an elevator in the Imperial Building seems to have lost his presence of mind, and while the elevator was on the upward march he opened the door and looked out. His head crashed instantly, and his lifeless body fell to the passage below.

About the same hour Philip Gravel, while unloading a ship, fell into the river, and as the current is very rapid at this spot, the body was carried away.

MRS. STEVEN'S ON TRIAL.

MONTREAL, June 7. The Westmoreland County Court opened yesterday. The principle interest centres in the trial of Mrs. H. T. Stevens. Solicitor-General Fugate appeared for the Crown, and Wells, Q. C., and Powell for the prisoner. Only two jurors were secured when the court adjourned till to-day. About forty witnesses have been summoned, and the trial will probably last six or eight days.

MONTREAL, June 5.—There was quite a spurt in cattle shipments during the past week, no less than ten boats carrying 4649 head having sailed from the port of Montreal.

VALLEYFIELD, Que., June 4.—A particularly sad fatality took place here yesterday. Pierre Laberge, a well to do farmer, had been to market, and having disposed of his produce, was driving home, accompanied by his wife. While going along the canal bank the horse took fright at the cars and backed into the canal. Although men who were near got the couple out as soon as possible, Laberge was drowned, but his wife was restored to consciousness after a good deal of difficulty. The horse was also drowned.

NEW YORK, June 5.—Rev. Lyman Abbott, in a sermon on the Briggs case on Sunday, in Plymouth church, Brooklyn, declared that Dr. Briggs and not the General Assembly had defied the true Christian faith during the past two years, and that it was not Dr. Briggs who was heretical, but that the stand taken by the General Assembly was one whose logical result was infidelity.
