Academic Dishonesty Committee

Senate has created an ad hoc committee to investigate the prevalence and causes of fraudulent academic submissions. The success of this committee will depend on the co-operation it receives from members of the university community. The committee is quite emphatic in stating that any information it hears will be treated as if the source was anonymous. In the time before the end of term, it is anxious to hear particularly from members of the graduating class. Anyone wishing to appear before the committee should contact one of the members. The membership is:

Roger Black
Igor Devreeze - Chairman
Don Gillis

Wade MacLauchlan
Janet Rowe
Gary Webster

The committee has set aside the following times for meetings. Meals will be provided for interviewees:
