Mr. and Mrs. George Matthews, O'Leary, have returned from an enjoyable trip to Boston and other American centres.

Mr. Ellwood Cotelle, Charlottetown, a former O'Leary resident, spent Thanksgiving week-end in O'Leary.

Mr. and Mrs. Seaman Bell of Summerside, accompanied by Mr. Bell's parents, were visitors to Brae during Thanksgiving Sunday the guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. MacLeod.

Miss Hattie MacFadyen, Charlottetown, spent Thanksgiving in Brae the guest of her mother, Mrs. Ivey MacFadyen.

Miss Fern Oulton of Summerside spent Thanksgiving in Brae, the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Oulton.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Phillips have returned to their home in O'Leary after an enjoyable trip to Boston and other American centres.

Mr. Neil MacDonald, O'Leary, had the misfortune of falling down stairs and severely injuring his hand. He is supervising the work being done in moving and renovating the Co-operative garage and service station.

—Mr. William Crooks and Miss Helen Mercer, both of Sydney, N. S. spent the Thanksgiving week-end in O'Leary the guests of Miss Mercer's sister, Mrs. W. G. Dickson and Rev. W. G. Dickson. Miss Mercer is on the teaching staff of the Sydney, N. S. School.

Among the local students attending Prince of Wales College in Charlottetown who were home for Thanksgiving were: Verna Stetson, Arthur Seaman, Shirley Grigg, Peggy Ellis, Joan MacDonald.

Mr. and Mrs. John Matthews of O'Leary had as their guests over the Thanksgiving holiday, their daughter Mrs. F. W. Hastings and Mr. Hastings of Saint John, N.B., also their son Allan, who is on the staff of the Bank of Nova Scotia in Truro, N.S., also Mr. and Mrs. Fred MacDonald of Amherst, N.S., and Captain MacGuire from Borden, P.E.I.

A pretty wedding was solemnized by Rev. C. O. Howlett of O'Leary at the Baptist parsonage, Sept. 28th when Miss Ethyl Blanche Matthews of Brooklyn became the bride of Mr. James Leonard MacKinnon of O'Leary, Mr. and Mrs. Avarad Ellwood Smallman were the witnesses. The happy couple have the good wishes of many friends for a long and happy wedded life.

Rev. W. G. and Mrs. Dickson and Norma and Jean motored to Charlottetown on Oct. 10 where Mr. Dickson attended the Presbytery meeting at Hertz Memorial Hall. They were accompanied by Miss Joan MacDonald, O'Leary, a student at Prince of Wales College in the city, who spent Thanksgiving at her home and Miss Jean Kennedy who spent the holiday in O'Leary and returned to her work in Dr. Kennedy's office in Charlottetown.

The Women's Missionary Society of O'Leary United Church met on Friday afternoon, Oct. 6 at the home of Mrs. Dan MacPherson. The worship service was conducted by Mrs. John Moreshead. Mrs. A. J. Matheson reported on the box that was sent overseas. Mrs. Edward MacDougall gave the prayer for the missionaries. A paper on Stewardship was given by Mrs. Claude Jelly. The study on the text book "Japan Begins Again" was conducted by Mrs. J. M. MacWilliam and Mrs. Dan MacPherson.

The Evening Auxiliary of O'Leary United Church met on Thursday night, Oct. 5 at the home of Mrs. Herbert Vatcher. The worship service was conducted by Miss Hester Boates assisted by Miss Eva J. MacLennan. A paper on Stewardship was given by Mrs. E. W. Turner and on Temperance by Mrs. Herbert Vatcher. It was decided to have a "Pot-Luck" supper on November 1 in conjunction with the Women's Missionary Society and the Mission Circle. Delicious refreshments were served.

Mr. William Buchanan of Mount Royal about two miles from O'Leary, who was a patient in the P.E.I. Hospital at Charlottetown and then taken to the Victoria General Hospital in Halifax has returned to his home much improved. He is in a cast but is able to walk around. He has to return to the Victoria General Hospital about December 7th. His many friends are delighted to see this young war veteran who served overseas in the Second World War home again, and hope that soon he'll have a complete restoration to health.

The Concer campaign in O'Leary has closed for 1930. The splendid sum of two hundred and nine dollars and thirty cents ($219.30) was collected by the following canvassers: Mrs. Lewis Bernard, Mrs. John Matthews, Mrs. Thomas Phillips, Mrs. Philip Thompson, Mrs. George Dewar, Mrs. John Moreshead, Mrs. Alton Boulter, Miss Eva J. MacLennan, Mr. Ray Jelly and the campaign manager for Prince County Dr. George Dewar who wishes to thank the collectors and donors whose assistance made the drive so successful. A list of contributors will appear in the press at a later date.

Big Top-Bell Wedding

A quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized on Friday, Oct. 12th in St. James Anglican Church in Port Hill when Mrs. Lottie Bell of Charlottetown became the bride of Mr. Charles Herman Dignan of Woodstock, about three miles from O'Leary. The service was performed by the groom's brother, Rev. Leslie Dignan of Port Hill. The best man and the matron-of-honor was another brother of the groom and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Dignan of O'Leary. A wedding supper was served in Port Hill and Mr. and Mrs. Dignan have the good wishes of many friends for a long and happy wedded life. They will reside in Woodstock on the family homestead. Mrs. Dignan is an accomplished singer and is frequently heard on Saturday mornings in the Pentecostal program broadcast from Charlottetown.

Kensington Notes

Master Charlie Condon, Kensington, is again able to join his young friends after being indisposed with a severe attack of flu.

Much sympathy is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Leo Condon, Kensington, in the death of their infant son Joseph Roger, six weeks old. Although he was strong and active and very bright and he won such affection in the family that he will be sadly missed; but as God's ways are not ours — his angelic form without apparent illness took flight to join the angels in the heavenly paradise. To his parents, three brothers, Reggie, John, Charles and two sisters, Isabel and Rosemary, many friends join in their grief.

The family of Mrs. John H. Baker, formerly Annie MacNeill of Kensington and New Annan, who passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Leo MacCarville, Kensington on Friday, Sept. 22 at the advanced age of 81 years, has the sympathy of a host of friends. Her jovial disposition and exemplary Christian character has left fondest impressions among her many friends. Her entire family had the pleasure of paying her a visit in the form of a re-union during the past summer and they, along with other relatives and friends will always remember her as a true, sincere and loving mother and friend. To the family who are: Ambrose, Lynn, Mass.; (Creta), Sister Naomi, St. Paul, Minn.; (Lauretta), Mrs. Arthur Ehnman, New Annan, (from whose home the funeral was held); Cedric, now of New Annan; (Cecelia), Mrs. Leo MacCarville, as well as some brothers and sisters, the sympathy of all is extended.

The September meeting of the C. W. L. of Indian River-Kensington Sub-Division was held in the vestry at Indian River on Sunday, Sept. 24, at 3 p. m., with the president, Miss Elsie Gillis, in the chair. The Chaplain opened the meeting with prayer. An attendance of sixteen members and six visitors were present. Minutes were read and adopted. Members express sympathy at the loss of a member and wish to have a Mass offered for the repose of her soul. A substantial sum was realized from entertainments during the month and on motion several bills were ordered paid. This Sub-Division is privileged to have among its members one, whose son will, this year enter St. Augustin's Seminary. He was suitably remembered by the League proceeding his entry, and sister-members join her in prayer that God's choicest blessings may be bestowed on him. The routine business being over, the president in a few well-chosen words, expressed the gratitude of the League toward their Chaplain, Rev. R. F. MacDonald, for his kindness and good counsel at all times and presented him with an appropriate gift. A short address was then read to Miss Anna Hickey, Parochial housekeeper by Miss Zelma Curley and Miss Isabel Condon presented her with a lovely rosary. Promoters of the Sacred Heart Society took this opportunity to convey their sentiments to the pastor with a "Spiritual Bouquet." After replies of acceptance were graciously given meeting closed with prayer.

season was held in the Sunday Schoolroom of the Church on Thursday evening, Oct. 12th with the President, Miss Hester Boates presiding and conducting preliminary worship. The secretary, Miss Olive Jelly, read the minutes. Miss Hester Boates conducted the study. The Y.P.U. donated $50.00 to the Missionary and Maintenance Fund of the Church and will pay for 25 new hymn books for the church. The singing was led by Miss Eva J. MacLennan. The Y.P.U. will give a gift to two of its members who have been recently married, Mr. and Mrs. Theophilus (nee Miss Shirley Gorrill). The meeting closed by the Misses Benediction.

The large and spacious O'Leary United Church was almost completely filled on Sunday evening, Oct. 8 when the annual Women's Missionary Society Thankoffering Service was held. Also co-operating in the service was the Evening Auxiliary, the Mission Circle and the Mission Band. The splendid offering of over one hundred and forty dollars ($140.00) was received which will be used for missionary purposes. Miss Hester Boates presided. The Scripture was read by Miss Marcia Pate. Prayer was offered by Mrs. Robert Woodside. The guest speaker was Rev. P. A. Fitzpatrick of Alberton and his address was interesting and instructive. He spoke on "W.M.S." and said one meaning was "We must sacrifice." Another meaning was "Witnessing means stewardship." The choir, under the leadership of Mrs. J. M. MacWilliam, had special music.

Tignish and Vicinity

Mr. Leo Gavin and Miss Elizabeth Gavin, Sea Cow Pond spent a day in Summerside recently.

Miss Mary Gavin, Albany, N. Y., is at present visiting her brother, Mr. Leo Gavin and her sister, Miss Elizabeth Gavin, Sea Cow Pond.

Mrs. Walter Harper and daughter Laurens of Tignish, spent two days in Alberton last week visiting Dr. W. A. Shea and Mrs. Shea.

Potato digging is nearly finished in the neighborhood and the result is overflowing cellars of one of the finest varieties of potatoes ever harvested on P.E.I. Every bin in the Tignish Co-op warehouse has been rented and still farmers are seeking places to store the tubers as they sit and hope for a bright spot to show on the market, with a good price being offered.

Another party in honour of Mrs. Walsh was held at the home of Mrs. J. F. Gallant on Monday evening, October 9th. Two tables played cards with the prize going to Mrs. Camille Chaisson. Refreshments were served and then the guest of honor was presented with a pearl rosary by Mrs. F. J. Skerry who spoke a few words of how much Mrs. Walsh will be missed in the community, having taken an active part in all undertakings for the good of the community since moving here about five years ago. Mrs. Walsh thanked her friends for remembering her and then with Mrs. Skerry at the organ a lively sing song took place before the party broke up, all wishing Mrs. Walsh health, happiness and God's blessing in her new home in St. Andrew's by the Sea.

A farewell party in honor of Mrs. Joseph Walsh was held at the home of Mrs. Peter Burke, Tignish, on the evening of October 7th. This party was attended by members of the Tignish Women's League and Tignish Ladies Aid, both organizations of which Mrs. Walsh was a faithful member. Upon the arrival of the guest of honour she was read an address by Mrs. J. F. Gallant and presented with an electric clock by Mrs. Peter Burke. A corsage of sweet peas was then pinned on her by Mrs. F. J. Skerry. Mrs. Walsh, in her pleasant and happy manner thanked her friends for their kind words and thoughtfulness in giving her such a lovely gift, which she will prize for a life-time. Refreshments were then served by the hostess assisted by several of the ladies present after which all enjoyed a pleasant hour of music and a sing-song with Miss Claire MacDonald at the piano. Mrs. Walsh is leaving Tignish for St. Andrew's, N.B. where she, Mr. Walsh and their three children, John, David and Stephen, plan to reside in the future.

Plans are being made for an international engineers exhibition at New Delhi in January.
