An important conference was held in November in Baghdad, Iraq. The ancient city-over a thousand years old-entertained representative of five nations. They talked about how best to defend the Middle East.

The nations were Iraq, Turkey, Pakistan, Britain and Iran. The Baghdad defence organization was set up in February 1955 by Turkey and Iraq. The other lands joined later. Iran is the newest member.

The Middle Eastern defence team is worthwhile for the following reasons: 1. Iraq, an Arab land is a member. She fought beside other Arab countries in the 1949 war against Israel. Iraq now seems to be turning her back on Arab nations, such as Egypt, which still want to make trouble.

Jack was deeply religious, possessed an agreeable personality, and was beloved by all who had the privilege of his acquaintance. He had a wonderful sense of humor and his talents for entertainment and pleasure were always in great demand around Cardigan.

Mr. Flemming said this phase of the project was being studied by commission engineers. Definite conclusions were expected within a few days.

VALUABLE RESOURCES. Iran has valuable resources, such as coal, iron, copper, sulphur, nickel, lead and manganese which are lying unused. Because it is being used, oil is Iran's main money-maker.

Visitors to Iran are sometimes surprised to see long lines of tribesmen moving along dusty trails. It isn't at all unusual, because more than 3,000,000 of Iran's people are wandering herdsmen. They move from place to place looking for better pastures for their flocks of sheep and goats.
