Sport Echoes From Prince County

The residents of Slemmon Park really take an interest in their Little League ball team. They turned out in large numbers on Thursday evening to see their team drub the inkmen of Summerside by the score of 11-1. Sgt. Walter Cowling, sports representative of the Slemmon Park Community Council, threw the first ball, and F.L. Savelle, representing the station, received it.

They've got the makings of a great little pitcher in Al McInnis, a lefty who throws them in with lots of speed for a Little League, and good control. Nial Hunter, the catcher, who is a son of Sgt. Joe Hunter of the RCAF sports department, is above average as a Little League backstop. If he snaps the ball to second as he is the "set-propped." We doubt the "Old Man" could improve much on it.

We didn't rightly appreciate Donnie Schurman's one-hit performance against the RCAF. Tuesday night until we saw what the Airforce kids did to Kinsmen pitching Thursday evening. When young Schurman whiffed 15 of them, we thought maybe the Slemmon Park stickers were duds. They're not, believe us. They hit the ball sharply, and get good distance on their shots. You did a real job, Donnie, in silencing these pepper pots from the port.

A baseball fan from Charlottetown writes to ask why he doesn't read more about the activities of Donnie Sirmmons and Benny Carson. He pays a compliment to these boys, calling them fine competitors and sportsmen, "on and off the field." We say "amen" to the latter. Donnie plays with Clarke's Harbor again this year, alternating between short field and the mound. We believe, as you suggest, Mr. Fan, that Benny is also in that circuit, which doesn't seem to get very much coverage in the Halifax papers.

Tuesday night's boxing card in Charlottetown looks like the "main event" of the summer's sports activities. When three boys like Don, the "Assass" Soule, "Monty" and "at-om" mixer, Cobey Mead, Cloukey (smoothie, lately turned fighter man), and Gaston Roy (do we have to elaborate?) take on three fighters from the U.S.A., all of whose records are studded with KO's — well, we'd rather cross Yonge Street at rush hour against a red light than stray into that squared circle while a couple of those boys are operating. A real centennial fight. It'll be a hundred years before you see another card like it in Charlottetown, and then you'll be too old to really enjoy it.

Hughes, Bryce Bailem, Stewart White, Malcolm Macdonald, Terrence Lannigan, Billy Van Iderstine, Lowell Stead.

Sir Joseph
Prudence Hy and Sir Joseph pulled out at the seventh-eight pole and Sir Joseph paced out front in the stretch to win by a length over the fast finishing Prudence Hy who has been improving every time out under the driving of Ike Moreside.

Sir Joseph won the first dash of the Free-For-All in 2:09 1/2 by Gabagan second. After the final mile fans were predicting that Archie Llewellyn will have Sir Joseph down to 2:07 by the time Old Home Week rolls around.

The two dashes of the trot were thrillers. Miss Mite owned and driven by Rufin Barrieau won the first dash after moving up from fourth place with a terrific burst down the stretch. Bud's Echo was second and Milldale third.

In the second dash the veteran campaigner Milldale trotted a great mile for owner-driver Chester Birt to win. Rajah Hanover and Feather Duster led for most of the mile with Milldale third.

Birt, however, sneaked through on the rail with Milldale to win the dash by half a length. Feather Duster was second and Royal Scott Jr. third.

Penny Royal, owned and driven by Cecil Drake, pulled the biggest upset of the night when he won the second dash and paid $66.00 for a win ticket. Penny Royal went away on top but lost the lead to Colonel Budlong only to regain it and come home on top.

In the sixth dash it was Penny Royal, driven by Len O'Meara showing her best form of the year, and finishing second.

Countess Carlo, owned and driven by Rufin Barrieau won the opening dash while Alfred Lowery's Dr. J. D. won by half a length over Countess Carlo in the fifth dash. Dr. J. D. another surprise winner. Paid $23.40 to win.

EXTRA MILEAGE FOR CANADIAN DRIVERS!

Improved Esso gasolines and new Marvelube motor oil used together give these results:

1. MORE MILEAGE
2. IMPROVED GETAWAY
3. LESS ENGINE DEPOSITS

HERE'S PROOF FROM IMPERIAL OIL'S RESEARCH LABORATORIES

This research technician checks results of quality tests carried out on petroleum products as they are being made from crude oil. Laboratory tests like these have shown that improved Esso gasolines burn cleaner—leaving less engine deposits that rob cars of power.

Research has also revealed that when you use Marvelube in used with Esso or Esso Extra gasolines, there is an even greater reduction in deposits. These years of road tests prove that Esso gasolines and Marvelube used together result in faster getting and more mileage.
