MOTHER KIDNAPPED Two gunmen staged a spectacular kidnap of a 12-year-old girl from a branch of the Bank of Nova Scotia at Cobden, Ont. Thursday. They shot an accountant in the k.n.e.e, slugging a customer.

PREMIER MORO RETURNS

The centred government of Premier Aldo Moro of Italy was sworn in Thursday and the cabinet was sworn in virtually the same problems that troubled his coalition when his cabinet resigned June 26 after being defeated on a minor matter.

Specifically he said Europe "has emerged as an entity capable of living her life because she has the worth and resources and thought should maintain its alliance with North America so long as the Soviet menace persists."

He also called for an international conference to bring attention to the problems of that area, could not be solved by military action.

CONSIDER SANCTIONS While de Gaulle was calling for a united Europe, the international government of the United States rejected his contention and his call for an international conference.

The ministers began meeting Tuesday to consider sanctions against Premier Castro's Caribbean island for its alleged efforts to overthrow the Venezuelan government.

He also called for an international conference to bring attention to the problems of that area, could not be solved by military action.

HEALTH PLAN MEETING Canadian Health Minister Judy LaMarsh ended two days of closed door discussions with provincial health ministers Tuesday and said all were agreed that a national health system as envisaged by the Hall report proposed a tax-supported national health system in which everyone would be entitled to the full range of services by physicians.

No conclusions were reached at the meeting and LaMarsh said it would be eight months before she could decide on recommendations to send to the cabinet.
