Coast Guard Is Being Pondered

OTTAWA (CP) — Transport Minister Hees said Friday the question of an Atlantic coast-guard service still is under consideration by the government. He was replying in the Commons to G. Roy McWilliam (L. — Northumberland-Miramichi).

Export Agency Need Suggested

OTTAWA (CP) — There is "ample room" for a government export agency that would enable companies to make certain sales without being subject to presures from outside the country. CCF MP Frank Howard said Friday. It appears some Canadian companies, including direct subsidiaries of American firms, are afraid to make some sales, the member for Skeena said in the Commons through speech debate. He was discussing the refusal of the Aluminum Company of Canada to sell $1,000,000 worth of aluminum to Red China.

Keen Contests Point Up Montague School Sports

The most successful Montague school ice sports in a number of years was held last night with a large number of entries for each event. Thrills and spills were the order of the evening, with a keen competitive spirit prevailing throughout.

The Montague School, which has always placed high in the provincial ice sports, will have an even stronger group of entries this year, due to the generosity of the weatherman who has so kindly provided an ample supply of frost for the natural ice in the local rink.

Once again Brother Peardon swept the field in the half mile open, the mile open and place first in his race for 15 years and over.

Following the sports, the Charlottetown Oriole Bantams played to a 5-5 tie with the Montague Bantams in a good, clean, fast game of hockey with no penalties.

Scoring for the Orioles were G. MacKay with a pair, L. Duffy, R. Shea and R. Frizzell with singles. Counting for Montague were G. Power with three, B. Beck and D. White with singles.

King's County's largest electrical contracting firm is now in its 10th year of serving the people of P. E. I. During this time, their work has taken them from East Point to Summerside, and has included such jobs as the Montague Public Building, Montague's new High School, King's County Hospital nurses' residence, and hundreds of dwellings.

Gilbert Clements, owner of the business, has been actively engaged in community activities for some time, being past president of the Montague Junior Board of Trade, member of the Town Council, and associated with the Garden of the Gulf Museum, etc.

Gilbert, along with his father, has been the authorized G. E. dealer for Montague for over 30 years. Along with wiring and appliance sales, the firm also deals in oil heating equipment, both hot water and hot air.

As dealers for St. John propane gas, they now serve nearly 100 gas customers and keep a stock of space heaters, water heaters, and Enterprise gas ranges.

The firm is a member of the Electrical Service League of P.E.I. and because they use only the highest quality merchandise, all jobs are done on the "satisfaction guaranteed or no charge" basis.

At their office located in the Masonic Temple Building, they have a good stock of white goods as well as small appliances, and a large selection of lighting fixtures.

PERSONALS

Brenda Llewellyn, Murray Harbor North, was the lucky holder of the winning ticket on the cake sold by the Pembroke Women's Institute.

Mrs. Ross Young and two little girls, Bonnie Lee and Linda Rae, are presently visiting with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Spencer Llewellyn, Montague.

MURRAY HBR.

The people of Murray Harbour were shocked to hear of the sudden death of Joseph Bell, which occurred in the Prince Edward Island Hospital on December 30, 1958. Mr. Bell was a veteran of World War One. He enlisted on the 5th of October, 1914 with the 2nd Seige Battery. He was always at his best when the going was tough and perhaps one of his greatest contributions to the war effort was the high standard of morale he created among his comrades. He kept in close touch with his buddies since the war and will be greatly missed by them. He was discharged May 18, 1919.

A representative group of these life long friends considered it a privilege to attend his funeral.
