Old Home Week, this province's greatest outdoor attraction, brought many visitors here, some from very far away places, and had its usual great turnout of local fans. The management had made big preparations and everything was in excellent order when the show was opened officially on Monday night with a large attendance. The feature event was the Free For All Pace that had nine of the best free-for-allers in the Maritimes starting. It turned out to be all that was expected of it and the finishes were of the closest order. Jola Henrie, 14-year-old, owned and driven by Clavton MacLeod, Westville, N.S., that showed her first signs of being a coming star at Charlottetown at Old Home Week, 1945, lived up to the expectations of her many friends by winning with a summary of 1-6-1; Lucky Chief was beaten in two of the dashes but came through in the middle one to win with Prince Macpicroft 2; Hedgewood Chief 3; Time: 2:08 3/5, 2:08 2/5, 2:09. Lucky Chief is owned by P. J. Cadegan and was driven by Rannie MacDonald. In the 225 Trot Bud's Echo (E. Smith), owned by R. D. McFadyen, was 1-2; Helen Harvester, owned and driven by John R. Thompson, sprang a big surprise by winning the middle dash from Bud's Echo; Frisco the Great (McNeill) 2-6-3; Roma Budlong (Kelly) 4-3-2. Time: 2:19 1/5, n.t., 2:18. The Classified Pace was won by Adam's Orphan, owned and driven by Duncan MacDonald, Sydney, with 1-4; Rosalie Hooper (O'Meara) 5-1; Dale B. (Stead) 2-2. Time: 2:16 1/5, 2:14. Rosalie Hooper is owned by Dr. W. T. Hooper.

Afternoon racing started on Tuesday and was featured by exciting and very thrilling finishes. In the 3rd Division of the 223 Pace Miss Judy Hal (W. Lewis) was 1-1-2; Lou Kalmuck (D. McNeill) 2-3-1; Billy Budlong (MacDonald) 5-2-3. Time: 2:16 1/5, 2:15, 2:16 4/5. In the 1st Division of the 220 Trot Royal Scott Jr. (O'Meara), owned by Gregory & MacLean, headed the summary with 4-1-1; Tydhall Sennle (T. Sennle), owned by George E. Woodside, Fredericton, 1-5-5; Winnie's Last (R. Shea) 3-2-2; Celia Sharon (Ratchford) 2-4-3; Time: 2:16 1/5, 2:16 2/5, 2:16 3/5. In the 2nd Division of the 228 Pace Ann's Dream, owned by Willard MacDonald, Summerside, and driven by George Calbeck, was 1-4-1; Becky Smith (Cormier) owned by F. H. With the passing of Old Home Week and the dates of the Ploughing matches being announced, the reminder to many that summer is over. Summer this year was a disappointment to many. Those of us who expected a repetition of last seasons weather were sadly disappointed. Summers like 1952 are few and far between. True, we will experience many pleasant, sunny days between now and mid November but the summer touch will have vanished.

Fall has silently taken over and the nights have the breath of winter touch. A few evenings ago I watched ducks coming in to Moore's Sanctuary at Milltown Cross. As the light faded in the West and night shadows veiled the sky I watched flock after flock hook in on cupped wings over the spruce-wood that shelters the head of the Sanctuary. Most of them made pretty sloppy landings as they were plainly broods of the year and had a lot to learn in the way of formation flying or coming in for a landing. A few individuals were fast to the beam it was too far to swim to where the main body had come down and resorted to flight.

Most of the broods held 6 or 7 birds. The largest was 10. Black ducks are cagey and despite the members of their own kind dotting the ponds surface they would circle several times before coming in and then would sit motionless for a few moments with necks stretched to the limit looking their surroundings over. I didn't wait till the flight was over but Mr. Moore told me the evening before close to 150 ducks came in. The birds use this Sanctuary as a quiet safe place to spend the night. During the day they forage far afield in search of food.

The season bag limits etc on migratory game birds for 1953 have been announced by the Department of Mines and Resources, Ottawa. In this province (P.E.I.) the season on ducks and geese opens on October 10 and closes on December 5. On Wilson's Snipe and Woodcock October 10 till November 11. The daily bag limit on ducks is 8 (exclusive of Mergansers) possession limit 16. On geese daily bag limit 5, possession limit 10. The daily bag limit on Wilson's snipe and Woodcock is 8, possession limit on Woodcock 16. No possession limit on Wilson's snipe. The bag or possession of the aforementioned species is not a factor in this Province as neither are hunted except by a few gunners who are pretty sharp on swinging the old scatter gun. Even at that the bag limit could be a good deal for some I haven't known the birds wouldn't mind in the least.

In Saskatchewan and Manitoba the daily bag limit on ducks has been raised from 7 to 10. In eastern Canada it was raised from 7 to 8. In certain zones in New Brunswick and Nova Scotia the season on ducks opens on October 1st. By October 10th, our opening date, we should have a large addition to our duck population. Ducks have a sixth sense that tells them when conditions are favourable in areas far removed from their regular habitat. Years ago the season opened here on September 1st and on the Amherst marshes in Nova Scotia on the 15th. Amherst hunters have told me the duck population in their district increased greatly after our season opened. Travellers on the car ferry have reported seeing long skeins of ducks moving toward the mainland from the Borden area on September 1st. No charges in the regulations respecting night shooting have been made which means from one-half hour after sunset to one-half hour before the next sunrise.

The granting of two western provinces two additional ducks per day in comparison with the daily quota allowed hunters in the east is a departure from the usual procedure followed by the Department concerned at Ottawa. This

Cobblestone Wins Free For All Trot; Sister Mary Takes Second Heat

Cobblestone, a sleek bay trotter reined by the veteran driver Joey MacDonald of Sydney last night won the Free For All Trot before a large crowd of fans at an Old Home Week racing meet at the Charlottetown Driving Park.

The MacDonald driven Cobblestone won the second and third heats of the Free For All after Flaxscot trotted his little victory in the opening heat.

Cobblestone had little trouble winning the second heat as MacDonald took him out of third position at the five eighths pole to move to the top of the field and come under the wire a length ahead of the second place Clean Up.

The opposition was stronger in the third and final heat as Cobblestone and Flaxscot battled it out for the lion's share of the purse. Flaxscot led the field for seven eighths of the mile but Cobblestone came on to win by half a length in the stretch.

Freddie Scott won top honors in the 220 pace by winning the first and third heats. Sister Mary, who placed second following a great lead all the way to win the second heat.

Esso, driven by Len O'Meara won the opening dash of the card and Jenny Lyn was a comparatively easy winner in the second dash of this event.

Flaxscot led from wire to wire in winning the opening heat in third position, as the quarter headed the field followed by Clean Up, Rajah Hanover and Cobblestone.

They remained that way down past the half and as they moved past the three quarter pole Cobblestone started his drive. It wasn't quite good enough, however, as Flaxscot came under the wire a length in front.

Flaxscot again went into an early lead in the second heat although he went away in eighth position. As they passed the half-way mark it was Flaxscot, Rajah Hanover, Cobblestone and Clean Up.

Cobblestone moved out at the five eighths pole and went to top on the back stretch. Clean Up and Great Doon also pulled out and finished one and two behind Cobblestone.

In the third heat Cobblestone came up from third position to outdistance Flaxscot to the wire following a tough battle during the last quarter mile.

Freddie Scott paced great miles to win the first and third heats of the 220 Pace but his performance in the first heat was almost overshadowed by the great finish

Sister Mary went away in seventh position and trailed the field until she reached the back stretch on the second lap around. She then pulled out and paced up the stretch with a brilliant burst of speed.

She battled it down the home stretch with Freddie Scott but the Scott horse had enough left to keep in front to the wire and win in a photo finish. Sister Mary won her reward in the second heat when she came back to win in 2:10 3/5 and set a new mark.

Shining Hour set the pace during the first five eighths of the first heat followed by Freddie Scott, Colonel Hansford, Volon and Abner, the Great. Freddie Scott pulled out at the five eighths pole and opened up a two lengths lead over Shining Hour before Sister Mary moved into contention.

In the second heat Freddie Scott and Shining Hour raced for top honors during the first half mile with Sister Mary in third place and Ann's Boy in fourth.

Sister Mary moved into the lead past Shining Hour at the three quarter mark and Ann's Boy came up to challenge on the upper turn. Sister Mary and Ann's Boy raced neck and neck down the stretch with Sister Mary winning by a quarter of a length.

The stout-hearted Freddie Scott came back to win the third heat. Ray O'Brien kept him in front from wire to wire although Ensor Bowness took Ann's Boy within a nose of the lead at the finish wire.

Esso had a comparatively easy time in winning the opening race on the card. She went down to the half in 1:10 and had plenty left to come home a winner in 2:15 2/5.

Len O'Meara took Esso away on top in the second dash but this time Jenny Lyn went into the lead shortly after the horses passed the quarter mark and stayed out front to win in 2:12 flat. Billy McVay came on to finish second while Esso came in to show.

The pari-mutuel on Freddie Scott and Flaxscot paid $11.90 and the quinnella on Sister Mary and Ann's Boy paid $19.50.

Summary:

Esso (O'Meara)	1 2
Jenny Lyn (Lewis)	2 1
Billy McVay (Moreside)	5 2

Halifax Golfer Winner Of Maritime Ch'ship

SAINT JOHN, N.S. (CP) — A jocular army colonel from the Ashburn Club of Halifax left his light-hearted manner in the Riverside Golf and Country Club locker room Friday to complete the serious chore of winning the Maritime amateur golf crown.

J. K. S. (Jack) Manuel, 45-year-old dark horse who had cleared his way to the championship finals, was all business as he handed a classic beating to M. J. Dowling to retain the crown for Nova Scotia.

Because of his record, Dowling, the Moncton Golf and Country Club shotmaker who has been picking up titles for a long time, was the favorite, but trailed from the beginning of the match, which ended on the 32nd hole with Manuel a 6 and 4 winner.

Manuel was three up at the end of 18 and breezed through the last 14 with only token opposition.

They halved the next hole and Dowling won the 26th to cut the winner's margin to two, but that was as close as he got. He didn't take another hole.

Then, on the 28th, Manuel electrified the gallery by sinking a 100-foot chip shot that just about wrapped up the championship.

Dowling won only five holes of the 32 played, while the victor took 11. In the first 18 Manuel copped five against two for Dowling and in the 14 holes played in the second round, the champion took six against three for the loser.

The championship consolation went to W. D. Bill Davidson, who defeated last year's Maritime champion, C. J. O'Hearn of Dartmouth Brightwood, 2 up.

The first flight championship was won by E. Levy of Brightwood who defeated Ralph Costello of Riverside, two up in the final match.

R. L. Davidson of Amherst won the first flight consolation with a 3 and 2 win over R. King, Moncton, 6 and 4.

The second flight winner was W. N. Brittain of Riverside. He trimmed John Angevine of Westfield Country Club 6 and 5. Jim Conrad and Dick Streeter, both of Riverside, met in the second flight consolation finals with Conrad a one up winner.

Robert Conrad copped the third flight with a 3 and 2 win over Jim Brittain. Both were Riverside players. The third flight consolation went to George Chapman of Fredericton who won over J. M. Fader of Truro, 3 and 2.
