Prince 4-H Clubs Hold Annual Rally

Approximately 125 4-H Club members, leaders and parents assembled at the O'Leary Regional High School last Friday for the annual Prince County 4-H Club rally. Prince County agriculture representative, Graeme Linkletter welcomed the members and leaders to the rally and also began the program with a mixer. Graeme also led in several games throughout the day. Chairman for the day was Aden Sherry of Bedeque.

The morning program consisted of entertainment by the Sherbrooke, Miscouche, Alma and Cardeton, Lot 6 clubs. Miss Irene Mountain of the WI branch led in a sing-song. Entertainment for the afternoon was provided by the Bedeque, Miscouche, Mt. Carmel, Newton Lot 16 and Cape Egmont clubs.

A dress review by the garment club girls of Prince County was very much enjoyed. Commentator for the review was Miss Myne Smith of the WI branch.

Guest speaker for the day was Mervyn MacNally, who was P. E.I. delegate to National 4-H Club Conference in Washington. Mervyn was introduced by Aden Sherry and spoke of the opportunities provided by 4-H Club work, and encouraged all members to work for these opportunities. He also told the members of the experiences of his trip and the places visited.

The rally was brought to a close by a sports program under the direction of Graeme Linkletter and Charles Ballem of the physical education branch. The following are the results of the sports program:

Historic Fort Edward with its ancient cannons silently guarding the entrance to Charlottetown Harbour. Located in Victoria Park, just 4 blocks from the centre of the City, it is one of the favorite scenes for postcards and magazine articles. Their usefulness long since past, the cannons never cease to provide a thrill for youngsters.
