Howlan And Vicinity

Friends and relatives of Mrs. Ben A. Arsenault were grieved to hear of her unexpected death at the age of 69 years which occurred in Detroit, Michigan. Mrs. Arsenault was Ursula, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Joe Doiron of Bloomfield Corner. The late Mrs. Arsenault was a lady of a kind and gentle disposition who endeared herself to all who knew her. Her remains arrived in Summerside where her funeral took place. To all her sorrowing family of eight children, also two brothers, Birt and Felix Doiron, and sisters, Mrs. Margaret Johnston, Mrs. Emily Nolan, all of U. S. A., and Mrs. Felix Blanchard, sincere sympathy is extended.

A few veterans from Howlan attended the meeting in the new Legion Home at Bloomfield on June 23.

Messrs. Frank and Paul Gallant left on June 22 for Lot 7 where they are to build a large barn.

Mr. and Mrs. Rae Noonan and Mrs. Albin Arsenault motored to Summerside recently.

Film Council Formed In Western Area

A meeting of teachers and interested ratepayers of Anglo Tignish, Christopher's Cross and Sea Cow Pond was held recently in Anglo Tignish school house, to organize a film council in this area. Mr. Gregory McInnis acted as chairman and Mrs. Roy Handrahan was appointed secretary of the meeting.

Mr. John Martin of the Visual Education Branch, Department of Education, Charlottetown, was guest speaker. Mr. Martin gave a detailed report of how to organize a film council and told of the many benefits to be derived from such an organization. He told how some 1400 films covering practically every subject are available from the film library in Charlottetown without cost.

It is expected that the districts of Norway and Nail Pond will join the council later but they were not present at the organization meeting.

The slate of officers elected at the meeting were as follows: President, Mr. Ray Handrahan; vice-president, Mr. Wesley Gallant; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Emmett McCarthy, and the following representatives: Emmet Gallant, Wade Harper, Emmett McCarthy. The teachers of the various districts automatically become members of the council for their districts and other members will be added if other districts join. —CL

HIGH ADVENTURE DRAMA CAPITOL, SUMMERSIDE

—From the turbulent pages of Kenneth Roberts' "Lydia Bailey," Twentieth Century-Fox has fashioned a brilliant motion picture of high adventure, lusty romance and violent revolution in the primitive jungle of nineteenth century Haiti. The superb photoplay bearing the same title as the novel and embellished with breathtaking color by Technicolor arrived today at the Capitol Theatre.

An achievement of rare excitement and magnificent scope, "Lydia Bailey" unfolds the unforgettable story of a swashbuckling American sent by his government to the West Indies to search for the lady dangers of the jungle, he eventually locates her, falls in love and becomes embroiled in the intrigue and insurrection of the Caribbean republic as it engages in savage rebellion against the forces of Napoleon.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Mrs. Lloyd E. Inman, whom God called home one year ago today.

Peacefully sleeping, Resting at last, The world's weary troubles And trials are past, In silence she suffered, In patience she bore, Till God called her home To suffer no more.

Lovingly remembered by Husband.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Mrs. Lloyd E. Inman, Borden, P. E. I., passed away July 20, 1952.

We do not forget her We loved her too dearly For her memory to fade From our lives like a dream.

Our lips need not speak When our hearts mourn sincerely For grief often dwells Where it seldom is seen.

Always remembered by Mother, Sisters, and Brothers.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of my daughter-in-law, Mrs. Lloyd E. Inman, who passed away July 20, 1952.

There is a link Death cannot sever, Love and remembrance Last forever.

Ever remembered, Mother.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Mrs. Lloyd E. Inman, who passed away one year ago today.

We watched you suffer day by day And could not help in any way, But just stood by and saw you pass Into the Savior's arms at last.

Fondly remembered by Mary, Major and Gail Inman.
