

Tired Nervous Constipated?

Get relief from constipation-indigestion. Positive results from FRUIT-A-TIVES proven by tests of thousands. FRUIT-A-TIVES contains extracts of fruits and herbs.

Tonight! Be His Lustre-Creme Dream Girl

Lustre-Creme Shampoo with Lanolin leaves your hair... Fragrantly clean, Disinfecting with sheen, Soft, easy to manage

Lustre-Creme SHAMPOO WITH LANOLIN

PRESTONE!

YOUR CAR TODAY. DON'T TAKE CHANCES CHANGE NOW

Installed While You Wait At STEWART - MOTORS - LTD.

Genuine Parts for all Ford Products. Phone 831 224 Gt. Geo.

Girl Voted Exemplary Junior Farmer

Junior Farmers' Association of Ontario recently presented awards at Toronto banquet. Hon. Thomas Kennedy, centre, minister of agriculture, is shown with Della Fraser, right. She was voted as the best one to exemplify what a junior farmer should be, by secret ballot on the last day of the Con-

GET $3,000 FROM VAULT

LONDON, Ont., Oct. 22 — (CP) — Loot estimated at more than $3,000 in cash and cheques was stolen from an office vault at Parnell's Bakery today. Another $1,800 in cash was missed by the thieves who punched a large hole through a double-brick wall of the vault to get at the money.

Wuorinen-Larter Wedding

Trinity United Church was the scene of a military wedding on Saturday evening, Oct. 14th, 1950, when the Rev. H.E.D. Ashford, united in marriage Velda Theresa, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Larter, Charlottetown, P.E.I., to Flying Officer Vilho Wuorinen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wuorinen, Port Arthur, Ontario. To the strains of the Wedding March played by the organist, Miss Louise Cox, the bride entered the beautifully decorated church on the arm of her father by whom she was given in marriage. She was charming in a floor-length gown of white satin with fitted bodice and long tapering sleeves. She wore a finger-tip embroidered lace veil, and carried a bouquet of red roses.

She was attended by Miss Lohma Downe and Miss Dorothe Moore. Miss Downe was becomingly dressed in a blue taffeta floor-length gown with matching flowered head-dress, shoulder-length veil and carried a nosegay of roses.

Miss Dorothe Moore was attractively gowned in floor-length blue sheer with matching flowered head-dress, shoulder length veil and carried a nosegay of roses.

Mrs. Avon Andrew, sister of the bride was matron of honor. She was lovely in a floor-length gown of pink lace over taffeta with matching flowered head-dress, shoulder-length veil, and carried a nosegay of roses.

The groomsmen were F/O Alan T. Carlyle, and the ushers were F/O Ronald Love and F/O Ronald Patenaude. The bride's mother chose a wine suit with black fox cape, black velvet hat with black accessories and wore a corsage of cream roses. Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Queen Hotel. The toast to the bride was made by the groomsmen, F/O Alan T. Carlyle, who presented the bride and groom with a silver tray and Ronson table lighter, the gift of the officers of the R.C.A.F. Station, Summerside. At the close of the reception a few remarks were made by the Rev. H.E.D. Ashford after which the bride and groom left on a short honeymoon.

For travelling the bride chose a brown suit with leopard coat and brown accessories. They will take up residence in Summerside, P.E.I.

Russell-Newell Wedding

A very lovely event took place at Central Christian Church, Charlottetown, P. E. I. at 7 p.m. on Wednesday, October 11th, 1950, when Irene Thelma Newell of Brackley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Newell, became the bride of John David Russell, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Russell of Charlottetown, late of London, England. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. M. D. Dunbar.

The church, beautifully decorated for the occasion with gladioli and chrysanthemums, was filled with relatives and friends of the two families. Guest pews were marked with bows of white and pink ribbons. To the strains of the wedding march played by Mrs. Stewart, the church organist, the bride entered the church on the arm of her father who gave her in marriage.

She was the picture of loveliness in her white satin gown, carrying a cascade of American Beauty roses, trimmed with maiden-hair fern.

The bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. Helen Hughes as matron of honour, the bridesmaid was Miss Grace Newell, sister of the bride who wore a floor-length gown of pink taffeta and carried a bouquet of pink roses.

Little Miss Diana Newell and Judy Matthews were the flower girls and looked winsome in floor-length gowns of mauve taffeta, and carrying nosegays of mixed flowers.

The duties of groomsmen were capably performed by Mr. R. Turpin, friend of the bridegroom.

The ushers were Mr. Derrick Russell, brother of the groom, and Mr. Roy Stewart.

The bride's mother was attired in a wine floral dress with gray

Among the many lovely gifts received was a portable radio presented by the ushers and a Presto cooker, a gift of the staff of S.A. McDonald's at which store the bride, prior to her marriage, was employed. She was also the guest of honor at several showers at which she received many lovely gifts. Their friends join in wishing the popular young couple many years of happiness.

At HOLMAN'S -- Both Stores No New Tax On This Newly Arrived "McBRINE" BAGGAGE

We Bought At The Old Prices So, We Sell At The Old Prices!

Your trip, whether for pleasure or for business, will be more enjoyable and successful if you have smart, sturdy, light-weight Baggage. . . . The McBrine Baggage in the Furniture Departments of Both Stores is all of these things and too ITS STILL AT THE OLD PRICE because we bought it before the increase in the Excise Tax. Matched Sets, Single Cases, solid leather Gladstone Bags and well-made, strong Trunks in several sizes are available in the Furniture Departments of Both Stores.

HOLMAN'S 2 BIG STORES SUMMERSIDE & CHARLOTTETOWN

Be Smart On Every Line With Baggage By McBrine!

"Where Old Friends Meet"

PALL MALL VIRGINIA CIGARETTES advertisement featuring illustrations of cigarette packs and a woman's face. Text includes 'SMOKE FAMOUS MILD', 'PLAIN END VIRGINIAS', and 'You'll be glad you switched to Pall Mall!'.

The Neighbors By George Clark

"I'll go to bed now—but when I'm grown I'll sit up all night every night watching cowboy movies!"

MacFadyen-MacEachern Nuptials. A very pretty wedding of interest to their many friends, was the marriage of Phyllis Jane, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald MacEachern, Long Creek, and Preston Reginald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel MacFadyen, Hunter River. The ceremony took place on the verandah of the bride's home at three o'clock on Sept. 27th in the presence of 100 guests. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Harry Barker, North River, assisted by Rev. Howard Christie, Hunter River. The setting was beautiful with autumn flowers and greenery. The bride, given in marriage by her father, looked lovely in a floor-length gown of white slipper satin, with fitted bodice, sweetheart neckline, long sleeves extending over her hands in lily points, full skirt and fingertip veil, held in place by a halo of white embroidered lace. Her only ornament was a double strand of pearls. She carried an arm bouquet of pink gladioli. The bride was attended by Miss Margaret Lawry, Charlottetown, as bridesmaid, who looked lovely in a floor-length gown of aqua taffeta with matching head-dress and taffeta mits. She carried a bouquet of mixed flowers. The groom was attended by his brother, James Gordon MacFadyen, as best man. During the ceremony Miss Joyce Nicholson sang in splendid voice, "I'll Walk Beside You", accompanied by Mrs. Myrtle MacPhail, who also played the wedding music. Following the ceremony a delicious supper was served to relatives and friends of both families. The table was tastefully decorated with a three-tier wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom. Friends of the bride assisted in serving. A toast to the bride was proposed by Rev. Howard Christie, and fittingly responded to by the groom. Later Mr. and Mrs. MacFadyen left on a wedding trip to the New England States. For travelling the bride chose a beige gabardine suit, fox cape and black accessories. The gifts were numerous and beautiful, including a reversible all-wool blanket from the office staff of Canada Packers Ltd., where the bride was employed for the past year. Their many friends extend to them their heartiest good wishes for their future happiness.

Instant Coffee advertisement for Chase & Sanborn. Features cartoon characters saying 'No more BUTS... here's Instant Coffee that's FLAVOR PERFECT!', 'It's the wonderful new Instant Chase & Sanborn', and 'You'll never know how good instant coffee can be until you try'. Includes an illustration of an Instant Chase & Sanborn coffee jar and a man's face.