London, April 14th. Advice from Constantinople received to-day states that the Prince of Wales had arrived there with great splendor. A despatch from Alexandria says, another plot to assassinate the Viceroy of Egypt had been discovered and frustrated. A loaded revolver was found under his chair in the theatre, and was withdrawn before it could explode.

London, April 5. In the House of Commons to-day, the Bill for the Abolition of Imprisonment for Debt was passed to its second reading. Despatches from Madrid state that informal meetings of the members of the majority in Constitutional Cortes have been held, and have resulted in a resolution to support ex-King Ferdinand of Portugal for the Throne of Spain. The Council of Ministers have also decided to second the majority of the Cortes in this determination, and a deputation has gone to Lisbon to invite King Ferdinand to accept the candidature.

New York, April 5. A short time ago the House of Representatives called upon the President, if not incompatible with the public interest, to furnish a list of vessels captured in the late war by the rebel cruisers. This information was laid before the House on Saturday. The list is made up from documents filed by those whose property has been destroyed, in support of their claims for indemnity. Where the records of the department are incomplete, reference has been made to such other official records and materials as were deemed reliable and trustworthy, in order to render the statement as complete as possible, and exhibit as far as within the power of the departments, in collated form, the amount and character of injury inflicted, and the variety and extent of these interests. The number of vessels given is nearly 300, and the aggregate value more than $13,000,000.

New York, April 6. The Republicans elected a Governor, majority of the Legislature and three members of Congress, in connection, yesterday.

An U. S. iron-clad monitor is ordered to be ready for sea immediately; destination, probably, Cuba.

New York, April 7. Sir Edward Cunard, well known as the manager of the Cunard line of steamers, died suddenly at nine o'clock last night, at the family residence, No. 124, Fifth Avenue.

It is ascertained that the amount of bonds and other valuables stolen from the Beneficial Savings Bank, at Philadelphia, on Sunday, will reach $900,000, exclusive of the cash. Included in this amount is a diamond bracelet, valued at $10,000. One gentleman loses $9,000 by the robbery. It is expected the rogues will seek Canada, and as they cannot be the extradition Act, they can there dictate their own terms as to the amount of cash for which they will surrender the bonds.

New York, April 8. President Grant yesterday sent a message to Congress, recommending that before the adjournment, provision should be made for submitting the Virginia constitution to the people for ratification or rejection, at an election next May or June, in order that it may if adopted, be submitted to Congress at the beginning of the winter session, and thus secure the early admission of Virginia to representation. The message makes similar recommendations regarding Mississippi.

The election in Rhode Island yesterday resulted in the success of the entire Republican ticket.

Ottawa, April 8. Section five of Intercolonial Railway has been let to Brinquet & Huot, Quebec, for thirteen thousand three hundred and seven dollars per mile.

Montreal, April 7. The Dominion Government is preparing a general Banking measure, which will be introduced at the next Session of Parliament.

We notice that the North Star has made an attack upon W. E. Dawson, Esq., one of the most prominent citizens of Charlottetown. Mr. Dawson, it seems, in his character of President of the Y. M. C. Association, and loyal subject of Her Majesty, "publicly and ignominiously tore down the label North Star from above the space allotted to our paper on the tables of the Reading Room of that Institution, thereby indicating that the North Star should no longer be allowed in the room." Such is the lament of the insulted "Star." We beg to console with Mr. Ross, and to assure him that in our opinion such high-handed procedure served him right, and reflected great honour on the good sense and patriotic spirit of Mr. Dawson. The only wonder is, that such an annotation should depend on the tables of the Reading Room of that Institution, which is the most public of public places, and should have been tolerated so long at the Room. For many months Mr. Ross has been insulting the British subjects of this Colony with second hand trash, respecting the union of this country with the States, and he must not wonder if there comes an end to their forbearance.

Mr. Ross's remarks on some former difficulty between Mr. Dawson and himself, are in very bad taste. They do not come well from one who is doing his best to insult and mortify the warm patron of his earliest printing efforts. Week after week slurs ranging between the shockingly obscene and the ridiculous, are passed by him upon a gentleman in Charlottetown, by whose kindness he was at first enabled to carry on his business. The story is the old one of the man and the viper.—Com.

On the evening of Tuesday last, Mr. T. Kirwin delivered a lecture before the "Summerside Literary Institute," upon the late "American War." The lecturer introduced his subject by stating the causes from which the war originated. After having reviewed the principal events of that bloody campaign, he related some of his own adventures as a soldier therein. Some of the scenes which he had witnessed, during his career in the battle field, were heart-rending in their nature. Towards the close of his subject he spoke of the beneficial results of the war, among which was the emancipation of the Slaves in the South.

The lecture, which was delivered extempore, and which was characterized by a considerable amount of witicism throughout, did not fail to elicit much applause from the audience. The discussion which took place at the conclusion of the lecture, was somewhat interesting. After a vote of thanks was awarded to the lecturer the meeting adjourned.—Com.

The public are hereby assured, through the columns of the Journal, that Parson's Purgative Pills contain no injurious principle, but that they may be administered to children and the most weak and shattered constitutions in small doses, with great certainty of success.

MEETING OF THE BAR.

A meeting of the members of the Bar was held yesterday afternoon in the Supreme Court Room, to press upon the Legislature the dangers and grievances any delay in the appointment of an additional judge would occasion to the Bar and the public. The Hon. Edward Palmer was called to the Chair, and Mr. L. H. Davies appointed Secretary. The meeting was addressed by the Hon. Jos. Hensley, Attorney General, D. O'M. Reddin, Esq., Solicitor General, the Hon. John Longworth, T. Heath Haviland, and by Charles Palmer, Fredk. Brecken, Theoph. Stewart, Malcolm McLeod, George Alley, and Louis H. Davies, Esquires, all of whom agreed that the absolute necessity existing for the appointment of an additional Judge called for immediate action on the part of the Government. The Attorney General, however, thought there was not any occasion for a meeting being held, as the Government did not require any pushing to make them do what is right and proper. The unanimity that prevailed showed, perhaps more clearly than anything else could, how deeply and strongly the legal profession felt on the subject. The following resolutions were then proposed, seconded, and carried unanimously:—

Moved by the Hon. John Longworth, and seconded by Malcolm McLeod, Esq.,—

Whereas the necessity existing for the appointment of an additional Judge of the Supreme Court has been recognized and set forth in a Memorial addressed to His Honor the Administrator of the Government, signed by every member of the Bar of this Island; And whereas His Honor, in his speech at the opening of the present Session of the Legislature, was pleased to call the attention of both Houses to the existence of this necessity, and to propose that papers on the subject should be laid before them. And whereas no Bill has, as yet, been introduced or any action taken on the subject in the Legislature; Therefore Resolved, That the necessity for immediate action being taken by the Legislature on this important subject is so urgent and pressing, and the hardships and disappointments which any delay would entail are so many and so grievous that, in the opinion of the Bar of this Island, any delay beyond what has been laid before them. And whereas no Bill has, as yet, been introduced or any action taken on the subject in the Legislature; Therefore Resolved, That the necessity for immediate action being taken by the Legislature on this important subject is so urgent and pressing, and the hardships and disappointments which any delay would entail are so many and so grievous that, in the opinion of the Bar of this Island, any delay beyond what has been laid before them.

Moved by Chas. Palmer, Esq., seconded by Geo. Alley, Esq., and Resolved, That the continued absence from town of the only Judge at present competent to act, has the effect of delaying the transaction of many important legal and equitable proceedings, and otherwise injuriously affecting litigants and their attorneys; and that the legal business of the colony requires daily access to a Judge at Chambers in Charlottetown.

On motion of Richard Roddin, Esq., the Secretary was instructed to forward a report of the proceedings to the Newspapers, for publication.

LOUIS H. DAVIES, Secy.

In another column, will be found the notice announcing the Musical and Literary Entertainment to be given on Tuesday evening next, in behalf of the "Whelan Fund." All who wish to spend a profitable evening, and at the same time help a praiseworthy cause, will do well to attend.

By reference to a Card in to-days paper, it will be seen that Dr. Dodd has again returned to his old stand, in Margate, for the purpose of resuming his practice in Medicine. We doubt many of his old friends will be glad to welcome him back. We wish him every success.

It is reported that a woman was murdered in Lot 14 yesterday, named McNeill.

An out-building on the premises of Mr. George Price, near Summerside, was burnt down last night. It was used for boiling pigs food, and the fire originated from the boiler, it is supposed. We are glad to know that the loss is not greater. The fire occurred about 9 o'clock, and the wind was blowing very high at the time.

Extract of Minutes of the Board of Education.

APRIL 2, 1869. The attention of this Board having been called to a letter published in the SUMMERSIDE JOURNAL of the 18th of March last, signed "Alexander McRae," wherein the character of the Rev. Angus McDonald, one of the Members and Examiners of this Board is severely assailed—

Resolved, That this Board, having the highest opinion of the scholastic abilities and high integrity of the said Member, deem it just to him, to themselves, and to the country at large, to express their highest disapprobation and censure in regard to the tone and substance of the letter in question; and considering that its effect may be very injurious, unless contradicted, Resolved, further, that the Secretary do communicate to the said Alex. McRae, this resolution, and request his attendance before this Board, when duly summoned to appear, to account for the contents of the said letter, and that this Resolution be published in the said SUMMERSIDE JOURNAL.

Grand Diet of Worms,

DISOLVED BY WATSON'S SCHELEDION,

WHICH is offered to the public as a perfectly safe, pleasant and efficacious expeller of Worms from the human system. As this preparation contains no mineral ingredient, the administration of it to young children is not followed by the dangerous and, in many cases, fatal consequences resulting from the use of many of the Vermifuges at present before the public. A compliance with the directions accompanying it will prove it deserves the character claimed for it above, while the promptness and painless character of its action render it the cheapest and safest remedy for worms hitherto discovered.
