Long-Time Mail Courier Honoured By Community

A very pleasant evening was spent by those present at the Hamilton Hall on Thursday evening, September 25th, when the Women's Institute sponsored a dance for those in the district and several invited guests from surrounding districts, and to present Mr. Louis Gorman with a gift to show their appreciation for his many years of obliging service as their mail courier.

After a few reels of old time and modern dancing, Mr. Lloyd Lockerby called the gathering to order and asked Mr. Gorman to come forward.

Mr. Lockerby then extended to "Louie" the community's appreciation for the many years of friendly and faithful service and expressed the regret of all at his resignation.

Mrs. James Ramsay then presented him with a beautiful station wagon coat, "Louie", completely taken by surprise, expressed his sincere thanks.

The music then continued and some very fine step dancing was enjoyed by many. Those taking part were Messrs. Ned McLeod, Keir Woodside, Bruce Riley, George Campbell, Thomas Campbell and David Ramsay. Lunch was served by the Institute members, bringing an enjoyable evening to an end. The music was furnished by Ethan and Harriet Campbell.

Crowds Greet Wilf Carter In S'ide

Shown above (top picture) with Wilf Carter at the Canadian Legion Hall in Summerside on Saturday evening are (left) Al "your old friend Nick" Nicholson, popular announcer at C.J.R.W., who, through the years has answered thousands of requests for the playing of Wilf Carter recordings, and on Saturday had the happy privilege of meeting Wilf Dammarell. They were accompanied by Mr. Robert E. Burns and children, Shirley and Garth.

Mrs. Mackleson Vickerson of Cornwall spent several days recently visiting in Kensington, where she was guest of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Mann, and in Freetown, guest of Mr. and Mrs. Edson Dammarell.

Mrs. Russel Burns has received word of the illness of her brother-in-law Mr. Walter Scott, of Gardiner, Maine. Mr. Scott has been a frequent visitor to the Island for many years. He visited in Freetown in June of this year and his many friends here hope for an early improvement in his condition.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph R. Burns and son Byron were in Kensington on Thursday, September 18th, where they attended the shower tendered Miss Lorna Warren at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Warren. Miss Warren's marriage to Mr. James Hefell of Traveller's Rest took place on Saturday, September 27th.

For the first time. On the right is Corporal W. M. Beatty of the Summerside detachment of the R.C.M.P., who joined the force at Calgary and spent some time in the area in which Wilf Carter's ranch is located. Corporal Beatty is also a musician, and is a member of the Summerside Legion band.

A part of the crowd waiting to get in to the second evening performance of the Wilf Carter show in the Canadian Legion Hall are seen above in the bottom picture. Most of these people were able to get in, but a great many had to be turned away because the hall could not accommodate the unusually large crowds that were present for both performances on Saturday evening.

Great improvements have been made in many homes in Freetown during the past summer. In Lower Freetown the house of Messrs. Edmund and Robert Burns has been undergoing extensive alterations, and when finished will be very modern and very attractive. In South Freetown, Mr. Ollie McCarville has had his house raised and the walls and roof covered with siding and asphalt shingles, besides making many interior improvements. Mr. Fred Drummond has added a large sunporch, and is now doing a paint job, and Mr. Wilbert Drummond is also adding a sun porch. Mr. Leslie Reeves has made many improvements and now has a very attractive and up to date home.
