

FINANCIAL AID COLUMN

By Nancy Comeau

Financial assistance is something everyone can use. I would be more than happy to help you take advantage of available money for continuing education.

Scholarships and bursaries are offered to undergraduate and graduate students in a broad range of fields. You might be eligible for such support so take the initiative to inquire at the Financial Aid Office in Student Services. My office hours are:

Monday 9:00 a.m. - 12:30

Wednesday 1:00 p.m. - 2:30

If these hours are not convenient for you, please call and we will arrange an appointment to suit your schedule.

The following are awards which might be of interest:

Professional Fellowship:

This $3,500 Fellowship is open to any woman who holds a bachelor's degree from a recognized Canadian university, and who wishes to pursue graduate work at a recognized professional school. Deadline: November 15, 1980.

National Institute on Mental Retardation Awards

These awards valued up to $7,500 are offered to students registered in graduate studies at a Canadian university and are planning a career in assisting the mentally handicapped. Applications to be received by February 15, 1981.

Special MA Scholarships and the Queen's Fellowships by Social Sciences and Humanities valued at $7,860, these awards are offered to students in the final year of a BA Program or a holder of a BA degree intending to pursue full-time graduate studies at a Canadian university. Deadline: December 15, 1980.

 Employment and Immigration Canada:  Emploi et Immigration Canada

Due to the Federal Clerical Employees strike, Suzanne DeJong would like to extend sincere regrets at not being able to get out the weekly report from Employment and Immigration Canada.
