The Christmas meeting of the "Half Century" Club of Bedeque was held at the home of the president, Mrs. Walter Leard. Meeting opened with the reading of a poem. The usual routine of business was dealt with. This was followed by an exchange of gifts by the members and a treat from the club. A well attended and impressive service was held in the Bedeque United Church on Christmas Eve. The Central Bedeque Baptist congregation also participated. A joint choir rendered fine carol hymns. G. K. Ward presided, and was assisted in the service by Rev. E. S. Weeks who read the Scripture lesson, and Rev. C. A. Britten, who led in prayer. Following a beautiful solo by Mrs. Plomp, Mr. Ralph Callbeck led in the responsive reading of "The Magnificat", and lighted a candle for the Jews, after which silent prayer was offered for those in the following order: Japan, Miss Louise Callbeck, China, Robert Montgomery, Korea, Isabel MacFarlane, Indian, Phyllis Britten, Africa, Mrs. Walter Wright, Trinidad, Mrs. Wilfred Craig, South America, Mrs. Howard Schurman. Silent prayer followed after each lighting. "Silent Night" was then sung, and a fine address was delivered by Rev. J. M. Baxter, and Mrs. Hedley Lowther sang a lovely Christmas carol. The singing of carol number 47 and the Benediction by Mr. Ward brought a delightful service to a close.

THE VANQUISHED CAPITOL THEATRE, SUMMERSIDE The two-fisted story of a Southern town's struggle with a corrupt Reconstruction Administrator, is brought to the screen with a riot of color and excitement in Paramount's brand new technicolor adventure drama, "The Vanquished," which comes to the Capitol Theatre to-day. Set against a backdrop abounding with intrigue and violence, the action-loaded film stars John Payne in a role tailor-made for his virile talents. Payne portrays a returned Confederate Major, who upon seeing how his town is being ruined by parasitic carpetbaggers, decides to throw in with them so as to gather enough evidence to expose their evil doings. His plan of attack, however, results in his incurring the enmity of the town he so heroically is attempting to save. Payne's unenviable situation takes a still further turn for the worse when his foes learn that his true loyalties still remain with the cause of the townsman. He then becomes a hunted outlaw.
