

Civility an Aid to Success.

It is true it costs some men much greater effort to be polite than others. It was said with bitter spleen of an English statesman:

'Canning can never be a gentleman for more than three hours at a time.'

It is true, too, that there are times in every man's life when to be even kindly courteous makes an exhausting draught on one's patience; but silently to devour the many chagrins of life, and to maintain a respectful bearing towards others even under vexation and trial, is not only a Christian duty, but wordly policy.

Dr. Valentine Mott said wisely to a graduating class:

'Young gentlemen, have two pockets made—a large one to hold the insults, and a small one to hold the fees.'

Hundreds of men have owed their start in life wholly to their winning address.

'Thank you, my dear,' said Lundy Foote to a little beggar girl who had bought a penny worth of snuff.

'Thank you, my dear, please call again,' made Lundy Foote a millionaire.

Some years ago, a dry goods' sales man in a London shop had such a reputation for courtesy and exhaustless patience, that it was said to be impossible to provoke from him irritation or the smallest symptom of vexation.

A lady of rank hearing of his wonderful equanimity determined to put it to the test by all the annoyances with which a shop visitor knows how to tease a shopman. She failed in the attempt and thereupon set him up in trade. He rose to eminence in the haberdashery trade, and the main spring of his latter, as well of his early career, was politeness.

It is related of the late Mr. Butler of Providence, R. I., that he was so obliging as to re-open his store, one night, solely to supply a little girl with a spool of thread which she wanted. The incident took wind, brought him a large run of custom, and he died a millionaire, after subscribing forty thousand dollars toward founding a hospital for the insane—a sum he was persuaded to give by Miss Dix, whom he was too polite to shake off, though almost as penurious as he was persevering.

'Well I'm glad my house cleaning is over,' said Mrs. Brown with a sigh of thankfulness. 'It must be a relief,' observed Mrs. Smith who was calling. 'But then, how soon you will need to go through it again.' If she had not looked around in a critical manner all would have been well. That call will never be returned.

A WONDERFUL CURE OF DIPHTHERIA.—Three of my children had Diphtheria in its worst form. Skin dry, lips parched, could not swallow. With a feather I applied Giles' Liniment Iodine Ammonia to the tonsils, rubbed it over their throats and chests. Great chunks of stuff came from the throats, the skin became moist, fever left them, and under the Almighty care I attribute their cure to Dr. Giles' Liniment.—JANE KELLY, Corner Tomelli Avenue and Blecker St., Jersey City Heights, N. J. Giles' Pills cure Painful Menstruation. Sold by W. R. Watson. Send for pamphlet. Dr. Giles, 120 West Broadway, N. Y. Trial size 25 cents.

A Good Thing.

German Syrup is the special prescription of Dr. A. Roschke, a celebrated German Physician, and is acknowledged to be one of the most fortunate discoveries in Medicine. It quickly cures Coughs, Colds and all lung troubles of the severest nature, removing, as it does, the cause of the affection and leaving the parts in a strong and healthy condition. It is not an experimental medicine, but has stood the test of years, giving satisfaction in every case, which its rapidly increasing sale every season confirms. Two million bottles sold annually. Beware of medicines of similar names, lately introduced. Roschke's German Syrup was introduced in the United States in 1868, and is now sold in every town and village in the civilized world. Three doses will relieve any ordinary cough. Price 75 cents. Sample bottle, 10 cents.
