Hyde Park Trade Pact Revival Urged In House

OTTAWA (CP)—Liberal Lionel Chevrier suggested in the Commons Wednesday that Canada and the United States revive their wartime Hyde Park trade agreement, or devise some similar co-operative arrangement.

Canadian industries were given an opportunity to bid for defence production contracts in the U.S. POINTS OUT BAIES It is all very well, said the member for Montreal Laurier, to speak of Canadian-American economic co-operation, but such co-operation does not mean much when the U.S. places trade barriers against Canadian crude oil, lead and zinc.

Mr. Churchill, who painted a hopeful picture of Canada's economic prospects this year, suggested this is a fine time for the Liberals to start calling for a better Canada — U.S. relationship.

Long Fight Seen To Replace Oyster Beds Hit By Blight

NEW BRUNSWICK, N.J. (AP) — "Epidemic X" that has been killing oysters is found, it will be some years before the sick oyster industry recovers, a marine biologist said Wednesday.

Dr. Harold H. Haskin, professor of biology at Rutgers University, said it will take years to replenish the ravaged beds along the Atlantic coast.

It may take longer if the blight that struck suddenly in 1957 reaches the seed beds, Haskin said.

Haskin is one of 16 oyster experts attending a three-day oyster mortality conference here sponsored by Rutgers University and the U.S. Fish and Wild Life Service.

WIDESPREAD DAMAGE "Epidemic X" has done grave damage to oyster production on Delaware Bay and off Prince Edward Island and is threatening the rich oyster fields in the Chincoteague area of eastern Virginia.

Haskin said one of the killers is a bacterium and the other a fungus. Dr. R. R. Logis, of the Canadian Fisheries Research Board, said an unidentified organism has been discovered in Canada that might be causing the P.E.I. blight.

The next step is to let nature develop a seed oyster that resists the killers. This was done in Canada when a blight almost wiped out the P.E.I. oysters 40 years ago. The Canadian government is doing the same thing now. Logis said. It will take several years to develop and seed such a strain in Delaware Bay, Haskin said. And if the blight moves into the seed beds—where damage so far has been moderate — it will take longer.

"but", he said, "the real purpose of this gathering is to welcome back two wanderers, to the community." Mrs. Hillard Meek was then called upon to read an address and Mr. Heath Harding made the presentation.

The following committee were appointed: Parsonage, Mrs. S.S. Beaton and Mrs. Albert Callbeck, Official Board Delegate, Mrs. R. S. Hinton; Choir, Mrs. C.R. Webber and Mrs. Carr; Press and Flower Committee, Mrs. Ralph Boates and Mrs. George Melkie; Buying, Mrs. James Johnston and Mrs. Robert MacKay.

The Westminster Chimes clock presented to their parents by Arthur, Roland and Paul Paynter was accompanied by an original address in verse.

The retiring president, Mrs. Harold Lyte, conducted the worship service at the annual meeting and was assisted by Mrs. James MacDougall.

The remainder of the evening was spent pleasantly in social chat, and in the singing of old favorites. "How Great Thou Art" was beautifully rendered as a trio by Nancy Paynter, Sandra Paynter and Betty Duggan. Accompanists were Mrs. Hillard Meek and Mrs. Charles Paynter.

Refreshments were served by the members of the Women's Institute and others. "The Queen" brought a most enjoyable evening to a close.

Mrs. Paynter is the former Florence Adams of Sea View, and the couple have a family of six, Roland and Arthur who are engaged in farming at French River, Paul with the firm of M. F. Schurman, Summerside, Thelma, Mrs. Allan Melnis, Halifax, June, Mrs. Cyril Gray, Fredericton, N. B., and Harold with the Toronto Mail and Star.

Mr. and Mrs. Paynter had the pleasure of having all the family home for Christmas.

Following are the addresses: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Paynter, French River.

We, your friends of the New London area have gathered here this evening, at the threshold of the New Year, to extend to you and yours all the compliments of the season, and to express our pleasure, that after your sojourn in another province, you have returned to again become members of our community.

We congratulate you on your choice of a new home, and the location, where every day you can enjoy the scenic beauty of the river, wooded hills and fertile fields.

Looking back to the time before you left here to reside in Halifax, we remember the active part you always played in the social, economic and church life of the community, the hospitality of your home, where a warm welcome awaited, was known and enjoyed by many of us. Always active in the work of the church, your help in the service of praise was of special value.

In the field of entertainment, many people still remember the fine concerts put on in the local halls, which always drew a full house, where again you both look a leading part. Tonight we also have kind memories of all those who sang and danced and played with you on those occasions, who are now gone from the stage of life to be seen and heard no more.

For our country's defence two of your sons, Roland and Arthur enlisted and served overseas in the Second World War.

We join with you in gratitude to Divine Providence, that although you have suffered serious illness you have been spared and granted a measure of health, which we hope you will continue to enjoy.

We conclude with two words, which because of their perfection of meaning convey so much, they are "Welcome Home!" As a tangible expression of our esteem, please accept this gift.

"They Mean So Much To Us!" To us it means the difference 'Twixt joy and sorrow dear To have the ones we really love With us so very near.

These people are our lives, our all — Our comfort, love and joy. We've held them close within our hearts Since we were girls and boys. To say what each has meant to us Is quite a heavy task There's not a thing we would not If they should ever ask.

And troubles may prevail, With just a word from these dear ones We cannot ever fail. You will have wondered who they are These folks who make us glad So nice it is for us to say They're just our Mom and Dad.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Paynter were honored by a large gathering of friends and neighbors at a party held on Friday evening, January 2nd, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Paynter and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Paynter.

Mr. and Mrs. Paynter have returned to the community after an absence of twenty years, 17 of which were spent at Halifax, N. S., where Mr. Paynter was supervisor of machines in Her Majesty's Navy Shipwright Shop.

The Mace summer home at New London was purchased and completely winterized for year round living, and the couple are happily settled near friends and family.

The guests of honor were presented with a well filled purse on behalf of neighbors and friends, and on the same occasion a Westminster Chimes clock was presented by members of the family.

Mr. G. F. Ferguson was the capable Master of Ceremonies and began his remarks by wishing— all present a Happy New Year, and thanking the Paynter family for the use of their home.

"KAFFEE KLATSCH"

What is a Kaffee Klatsch? In Bavaria, it's a friendly chat over steaming cups of hot coffee. Well, I'd like to enjoy a chat with you, about coffee. Coffee in frostings, coffee in desserts—but first, a few words about that bracing cup that "gets you going" in the morning or gives real meaning to between-meal breaks.

Did you know that your coffee can taste richer—at half the cost of cream? The secret is Carnation, the double-rich milk that whips. Carnation Evaporated Milk looks, pours and whips like cream. It's the evaporated milk that tastes most like fresh cream. Makes coffee smoother and richer-flavored—yet costs only half as much as cream.

Try Carnation in your coffee.

MORE AND MORE, coffee is being used to flavor desserts, frostings, cakes, candies. And the richness that Carnation gives to coffee, carries over into coffee-flavored foods. One outstanding example is frosting. Carnation makes all frostings unusually smooth, rich, tasting and easy to spread. Couple this with Carnation's natural affinity for coffee, and you'll understand the special appeal of this

RICH COFFEE FROSTING

(Fills, frosts 8" layer cake)

1/2 cup butter
Pinch of salt
3 1/2 cups sifted icing sugar
1 tbsp. instant coffee powder
1/2 cup undiluted CARNATION EVAPORATED MILK
1/2 teaspoon vanilla

Cream butter. Add salt, 1/2 cup sugar and the coffee. Add remaining sugar alternately with Carnation. Add vanilla; beat until smooth.

ONE REASON WHY Canadians use more Carnation Evaporated Milk in coffee than any other brand, is because it's the evaporated milk that tastes most like fresh cream. That's probably also the biggest reason why Canadians use more Carnation in cooking than any other brand. I know you'll prefer Carnation too!
