RCAF Royals Score 12-6 Win Over Holmans In Game At S'side

The R. C. A. F. Royals narrowed the gap between them and league leading Curran & Briggs by defeating the Holman Intermediates 12-6 at the Recreation Centre diamond in Summerside last night. The game was featured by hard hitting and indifferent fielding. The Air Force team off on the offerings of Joe Bernard, Dee Lefurgy and Gil Williams for a total of eighteen hits. The Holman aggregation got ten hits off Wilson, Brock and Lefurgy. The ball five times, and they were for the most part costly.

Meier, brilliant RCAF shortstop led all batters with 4 hits in 5 tries. Green had 3 hits in 5 trips. Allison Farmer had a perfect day for Holman's, cracking out 2 bingles in 2 trips. H. Gallant had 2 for 5. The all-round brilliance of Don MacKenzie at second base for the Flyers stood out. He robbed Vance Harris of a hit in the seventh inning, and came all the way to first to retrieve a hard hit ball which struck the eighth to keep Underwood from a safe bingle.
