Refreshment Sleep.
Sleep, refreshing sleep, has a wonderful influence. It is the time which the vital force uses to repair the system, to assist digestion and to prepare the whole being for the labors of a fresh day. Even "40 winks" in many cases is a great benefit, and in many cases of fever and nervous troubles patients should seldom be aroused, unless it is absolutely necessary, to administer medicine. Opium, when given, frequently but makes the patient with a seeming relief, only to result in some aggravation of the trouble. They more or less paralyze the digestive organs, prevent vital repair, goad the brain into feverish dreams and leave the nerves irritated and finally depressed rather than rested.—New York Ledger.

AN OLD AND WELL TRIED REMEDY.
Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over fifty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for Diarrhoea. It is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup.

Corset Fitting.—Every lady who possibly can, should come out before noon to be fitted; this will save you time and oblige us. The rush in the afternoon is so great that many have to go away disappointed. This could be avoided by either making an engagement or coming out in the morning. Miss Sexton's time is limited till Friday night of this week, and will fit all the possibly can in that time—many more could be fitted if the mornings were utilized to better advantage than they are now. FAKE "FENCES."

A Little Trick That is Worked In Baxter Street.

"There was a time and that not a very long ago," remarked an old time puller in, "when almost every other store in Baxter street was a 'fence,' or pretended to be, in order to give customers the idea that they were getting good bargains. The clerk who took a hesitating customer aside and whispered 'fence' was generally sure of a sale. There are no genuine 'fences' in Baxter street now, because clothing, shoes and hats are so cheap, but some of the stores still pretend to sell stolen goods.

"When a customer in one of these stores has looked everything over in the shop and hasn't made a purchase, the salesman tells him that he has a little 'fence' down stairs and urges upon him the necessity of keeping it quiet on account of the police. Of course the customer won't say a word. So down stairs they go to the alleged 'fence,' which generally proves to be a big trunk packed with goods.

"While showing the contents of the trunk the salesman keeps up a running yarn about the famous criminals who brought the goods to the store.

"Usually, after showing a lot of stuff of the same quality and pattern the customer refused to buy up stairs, the salesman gets him to try on something, and as quality, workmanship and perfect fit always go with 'fence' goods, there is a sale made. This fake 'fence' answers sale purposes as well as the genuine," concluded the puller in, "and there is no risk attached to it."—New York Sun.

Hiram Powers and Young Leighton.

It was on the advice of the American sculptor, Hiram Powers, that as a lad Frederick Leighton was allowed to follow his predilection for an art career. The question was settled in Florence about 1845, when he was about 15 years old. His father showed a portfolio of sketches to Powers and asked if he would recommend him to bring him up as an artist. The sculptor asked for a week to think the matter over. At the end of that time he said, "Mr. Leighton, your son may be as eminent as he pleases." "Shall I make him an artist, then?" asked Mr. Leighton. "That is out of your power," was the reply. "Nature has done it for you." So it was agreed that young Frederick should study to become a painter, but only on condition that he should not neglect any other part of his education in consequence.—Art Amateur.

PROVIDER
NO. 23968.

RECORD, 2.21 3/4

By Preceptor, sire of Nutcracker, 2.17 1/4 at 4 years, and five others in 2.30 list; dam Lill, dam of Dot, 2.18, and granddam of Kickapoo, 2.16, by Dean Swift, sire of 4 in 30 list.

PROVIDER is so well known to the public, both as a trotter and race horse, that but little need be said of him. At the trotting meeting held in Charlottetown last September, he started the first day in the 2.26 class, and won in three straight heats, making the last time of 2.22, 2.21, and 2.2. The next day he started in the free for all, and again won in straight heats, time 2.22, 2.25 and 2.24, trotting every heat in the two races but one, in 2.25, and better, without making a break or mistake, beating such fast ones as Arclight 2.19, and Montrose, 2.20.

Persons who may not desire to breed trotters will please take notice that Provider has that superiorly good high knee action, so desirable in registers, and carriage horses. These qualities combined with his fine breeding, large size, good color, and disposition, must be sufficient recommendation to insure patronage.

Provider will make the season at John Connor's stables opposite the Opera House—Terms $10.00 for the season, with usual return privilege if mare is not in foal.
