

Is the baby too thin?
Does he increase too slowly in weight?
Are you in constant fear he will be ill?
Then give him more flesh. Give him more power to resist disease. He certainly needs a fat-forming food.
Scott's Emulsion is just that food. It will make the baby plump; increase the weight; bring color to the cheeks, and prosperity to the whole body. Thin children take to it as naturally as they do to their milk.

CORRUPTION IN POLITICS.

Duty of the Religious Newspapers.
What then should be the attitude of the religious newspapers—allowing the term under protest for the sake of convenience—to the present distress in politics in Canada? Have they no duty? Must they be dumb because they believe in a God who is righteous, whose laws are truth, and whose is the earth and the fulness thereof? Must they and all who, like them, "hear a deeper Voice across the storm" be silent at this time when the very foundations of government are being attacked and undermined? God forbid! If they have no message, or are afraid to deliver it, let them no longer call themselves religious or pretend that their eye is single to the glory of God. If a religious newspaper is ignorant of the principles of government, or unaware of the down-grade tendency in Canadian politics, or blind to the disaster wrought to public morals, the murdering of public conscience and the menace to public justice; or if it gathers up its holy robes from the defilement and contagion; or if its religion is canting and hypocrisy, reasonless pietism or other worldly unreality, then it certainly ought to leave politics alone, and, for that matter, it ought to leave religion alone too. But the newspaper that serves the Church not for subscriptions, whose policy is not directed by its advertising patronage, whose freedom is in obedience to the truth, and whose supreme faith is in the living leadership of the Lord Christ, has an opportunity and a responsibility in Canada this day such as, while it makes cowards quail, should nerve every true man to tremorless courage and devoted service.

For to whom is it given, more than to the religious newspaper, to warn the people against the deadliness of political corruption, and to denounce the crime and sin of ballot stealing, ballot stuffing and electoral bribery? The preachers cannot do it, for those who would muzzle the religious newspaper long ago gagged the pulpit. The government newspapers are handicapped by their party allegiance, and those of the opposition have their testimony discounted because of past records and prospects of party gain. Party politicians devote themselves too much to slandering their opponents, and care too much for the loaves and fishes of office to make their service in the work of political regeneration of any account. But religious newspapers, appealing as they do to the best class in every community, the intelligent, the self-respecting, the conscientious, have an entrance and are given a hearing not accorded to the preacher, and their praise and blame, if they exhibit intelligence and independence, are more potent with even the skilful politician than are stronger newspapers of his own or of the opposite party. What is needed, urgently needed in Canada just now, is such an awakening of public conscience, such an arousing of public indignation, such a rallying to the public service of the strong, the intelligent, the incorruptible, as will crowd out of both political parties the self-seeking, the corrupt and the unfit. Those who buy and sell votes and trusts more sacred than votes, have made God's holy house of government a den of thieves, and there can be no peace or power until they are driven out under the lash of a strong and holy wrath. That is Christ's work in Canadian politics this day, and whosoever is Christ's man is His co-worker. And in that work the newspapers of whatever

Bible Measures.

A day's journey was about twenty-three and one-fifth miles.
A Sabbath day's journey was about an English mile.
Ezekiel's reed was nearly eleven feet.
A cubit was nearly twenty-two inches.
A hand's breath is equal to three and five-eighths inches.
A finger's breath is equal to one inch.
A shekel of silver was about fifty cents.
A shekel of gold was eight dollars.
A talent of silver was five hundred and thirty-eight dollars and thirty cents.
A talent of gold was thirteen thousand eight hundred and nine dollars.
A piece of silver, or a penny, was thirteen cents.
A farthing was three cents.
A mite was less than a quarter of a cent.
A gerah was one cent.
An ephah, or bath, contained seven gallons five pints.
A hin was one gallon and two pints.
An omer was six pints.

Christ the Great Example

Christ came to make us good, but also glad. He was the faithful and true witness, the hater of all wrong, yet how winsome, in graciousness and sympathy, His bearing day by day. "The bruised reed He did not break, the smoking flax He did not quench." The glory of God shone in His face, and it was the glory of a sweet and sympathetic love. He extolled what the ancients despised—humility, and elevated it into a chief and essential virtue. He gave us His new commandment, that men should love one another even as He loved them. From Him is to be learned the true art and manner of life. He died to make us good and our goodness has no "finish" unless we are characterized in measure by that Divine department which is caught from communion with Him, and which consists in the love which "is not puffed up, and doth not behave itself unseemly." To walk with Him is to scatter joy and soothe suffering. To be "in him" is to have born and bred in us those fine feelings that are careful not to wound, and have their happy exercise in contributing to the happiness of others.—Rev. A. Scott.

Dr. A. W. CHASE
DISCOVERED NERVOUS DISEASES
A NEW TREATMENT FOR

In his study of diseases of the nerves, Dr. A. W. Chase found that in nearly every case the cause of trouble was improper nourishment. About one-fifth of all the blood in the human body is found in the brain, and unless this blood is rich and pure the nerves cannot obtain proper nourishment, and become worn out and exhausted.
Nervous depression, nervous headache, nervous dyspepsia, loss of sleep and vital force, lack of energy, are symptoms of weak, watery blood and exhausted nerves.
It was as a food for blood and nerves that Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food was prepared. Its remarkable success in curing all diseases arising from thin blood and impoverished nerves is proof that Dr. Chase's theory of feeding the nerves and blood is the proper one; stimulants only urge on the tired and worn out nervous system until there comes a complete collapse.
Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food creates new brain and nerve cells, and makes the blood pure and rich. It restores to the exhausted nerves the vigor of perfect health. See a large box, at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

OLD MAN'S EVIDENCE.

Mr. H. S. Barnes, of Rat Portage, Speaks in no Uncertain Term of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Rat Portage, Sept 18.—No old gentleman in Rat Portage is better known or thought of than Mr. H. S. Barnes, father of ex-mayor Barnes, of this place. "Some months ago," writes Mr. Barnes "my wife asked me to get her some of Dodd's Kidney Pills. She was suffering from kidney trouble and I got a box but she never lived to take them. I had long been suffering from symptoms similar to those of my wife and these now become severe, and having a box of Dodd's Kidney Pills in the house, I resolved to try them. The first box eased these symptoms, and continuing their use I was completely cured. Dodd's Kidney Pills possess genuine merit."

Weary of Experimenting

With salves, suppositories and ointments and deadening surgical operation, scores and hundreds have turned to Dr. A. W. Chase's ointment and found it an absolute cure for the terrible itching, and it is very seldom that more than one box is required in effect a permanent cure.
